Ike Warns Khrushchev, Keep Hands Off Cuba

Belgian Troops Intervene To Stop Congo Violence

BRUSSELS, Belgium (AP) Belgian troops have intervened in the Congo to quell the sea of violence sweeping over the former Belgian colony, it was reported Saturday night.

Diplomatic informants in London said the Western Big Three — Britain, the United States and France—jointly appealed to Belgium to send troops to the mutiny-torn Republic of Congo which became independent only 10 days ago.

The Belgian radio, quoting a message from Kabalo in northeastern Katanga Province, said Belgian troops intervened from the base at Kamina when infuriated Congolese soldiers began attacking Europeans aboard a train about to leave for safety in the neighboring British territory of Tanganyika.

BRAZZAVILLE, Congo Republic (AP) — U.S. officials here announced Saturday that all American women and children, including embassy personnel, have been safely evacuated from Leopoldville to Brazzaville.

Reports from Kampala, Uganda, said heavily armed Belgian paratroopers had moved into besieged Goma in the Congo and shepherded to safety 200 Belgian civilians. They were said to have crossed into the Belgian protectorate of Ruanda Urundi.

The first reports of Belgian intervention came as stories of chaos, disorder and savagery in the sprawling Congo multiplied.

The grimmest stories of rape and killing came from planeloads of men, women and children arriving here as refugees.

The refugees told of brutal requisition of property, of native soldiers forcing white women to disrobe before raping them under the threat of tommyguns. Some said native soldiers forced entry into convents in the Thysville area, brutalizing young girls and married women who had taken refuge there.

They told of white women being triumphantly paraded through the streets of Leopoldville on honking army jeeps while their European menfolk looked on helplessly.

The administrator of a Congo territory told newsmen he had to witness the raping of his own wife and 40 other women, most of them social workers.

The Belgian-trained Congo army, upon which the new government of President Joseph Kasavubu and Premier Patrice Lumumba depended to keep order, has been torn by mutinous soldiers demanding the dismissal of all Belgian officers and higher pay.

The mutiny was thought to have been settled Friday when the government agreed to an all-Congo army, but Belgian Premier Gaston Eskens told reporters Saturday the "situation is worse."

The Belgian airlines, Sabena, canceled all its transatlantic flights between Brussels and North America and several European flights in order to use its big planes in the giant airlift to the Congo. Sabena said 37 planes were concentrated on the operation.

Belgian air force planes were flying with ammunition, military supplies and food.

Not one of the six Congo provinces has escaped some form of violence.

The terror spread to two eastern Congo provinces where rebellious Negro troops killed at least two Europeans Saturday.

Radio amateurs at Goma, in northern Kivu Province, said hopes for the air removal of 200 Belgian civilians there had been thwarted when mutinous troops overran the beleaguered township and rolled oil barrels across the airport, making it unsafe for planes to land.

The amateur radio reports said the Congolese were "completely out of control."

No further word was received from the Belgians at Goma.

Military Court Will Try Powers, Soviet Announces

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviet Union announced Saturday that alleged American spy pilot Francis Gary Powers will be tried by a military court for espionage. The maximum penalty on conviction is death by shooting.

By ordinary standards of Soviet law, this means the trial will be secret and not open to the public, and could mean that the trial already has taken place.

In Washington, the State Department press office said Saturday's announcement was the first official notice of the actual charges against Powers and his precise legal status in the Soviet Union. A spokesman added, "We still have had no response from the Soviet government to our repeated requests for access to Powers."

No date or place for a trial was mentioned in a later brief announcement first carried in Moscow Saturday evening on a filmed television show.

It said that the investigation of the Powers case had been completed by the State Security Committee operating directly under the Council of Ministers.

This committee has now taken the place of the former secret police and it is highly unusual for it to be mentioned in a public announcement.

The Soviet news agency Tass reported earlier that an indictment charging Powers with espionage in the U2 spy plane flight over the Soviet Union has been sent to the Soviet Supreme Court.

The TV announcement said an indictment had been handed in to the Supreme Court of the U.S.S.R. and that the court had handed this over to its military division.

This is equivalent to a high-level court-martial by Western standards. No such trial has ever been held in public in the Soviet Union.

Soviet officials have said Powers was shot down by a missile last May 1.

Salt Lake City Beauty Named Miss Universe

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)— Linda Bement, 18-year-old raven-haired beauty from Salt Lake City Saturday night became Miss Universe of 1960.

Linda was selected over 14 other semifinalists representing 15 nations of the world. The young Mormon graduated from high school only last month.

Daniela Bianchi, 18, of Rome, Italy, was named first runner-up.

Elizabeth Hodacs, 18, of Vienna, Austria, was second runner-up.

Others in the top five, in order, were Nicolette Caras of Johannesburg, South Africa, and Maria Teresa Del Rio of Madrid, Spain.

The announcement of Linda's victory caught the crowd of 5,000 by surprise. The five foot six green-eyed beauty seemed stunned for a second, then beamed and moved down the ramp for the audience.

SOVIET TO HONOR MEN DOWNING U2 PLANE

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviet Union announced a statue and picture project honoring the men who downed U2 spy Pilot Francis G. Powers and the peasants who took him into custody. The project is under way by sculptor G. N. Postnikov and artist I. V. Bordachev.

METHODISTS MOVE TO INTEGRATE

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich. (AP)—Negro Methodist churches in a nine-state Midwest area were invited Saturday to join with the North Central jurisdiction in a step toward integration.

All the Negro churches currently are organized under a central conference. There are five white regional geographical jurisdictions.

Saturday's action was in line with a church policy aimed at eventually absorbing the Negro churches into the various white jurisdictions.

Assignments of three new bishops also were announced at the North Central jurisdictional conference here.

Edwin R. Garrison was assigned to the Dakotas District, covering North and South Dakota; T. Otto Nall to the Minnesota District, and Ralph T. Alton to Wisconsin. All are four-year assignments.

Kennedy Storms Toward Nomination

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Sen. John F. Kennedy of Massachusetts breached Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson's ramparts a bit Saturday, apparently cracked a line of favorite son holdouts, and stormed on toward the 1960 Democratic presidential nomination.

Gov. George Docking, Kansas' favorite son, said his inclination now is to release his state's 21-vote delegation and that he expects a majority to surge to Kennedy. Previously he had stood fast against indicating any presidential preference.

Docking said on television that he didn't think any stop-Kennedy coalition of Johnson - Symington forces was in the making.

An important labor union leader, President Joseph A. Bierne of the Communications Workers of America, sprang to Kennedy's side, too.

The front-running, hard to catch Massachusetts senator flew in from New York to take command of his campaign for the highest honor his party can offer.

Kennedy said he believes "without any question" that he will have more than 600 first ballot votes. He said that is true even if he receives no support by then from such states as California, New Jersey, Minnesota, Iowa and Kansas, which are backing favorite sons.

Camps of his challengers—Johnson, Sen. Stuart Symington of Missouri and Adlai E. Stevenson—fought on. But the confident Kennedy seemed able to leap one by one the blockades they were trying to pile in the way of an early Kennedy victory.

Symington hit town, too, proclaiming that:

"Obviously, I'm not here to lose."

Stevenson trailed the other presidential hopefuls into the Los Angeles airport, with a moist finger aloft for an elusive draft.

Johnson already was on hand.

Kennedy was laughing, beaming, sizing up his chances as better than ever.

Thousands of gleam-in-the-eye enthusiasts were on hand at the

Mr. K's High-Handedness Shocks, Amazes Diplomats

WASHINGTON (AP)—Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev, brandishing his nuclear rocket power, sought Saturday to deal himself in on the Cuban crisis.

The United States rejected his rocket warning in cold, emphatic words which stake out the lines of a new and potentially extremely dangerous East-West conflict.

Khrushchev's intervention in the crisis with a public pledge of all-out support for the Cuban government of Premier Fidel Castro—dramatized by his rocket threat against the United States—surprised and appalled high diplomatic officials here.

They do not think Khrushchev wants to start World War III over Cuba but they fear that his high-handed, swaggering commitments of Soviet prestige in an area of vital interest to the United States could lead to trouble which he did no foresee.

The warning issued by President Eisenhower from his vacation headquarters at Newport, R.I. evidently was intended to make the danger clear to the Soviet leader before he becomes too deeply involved. In this respect Eisenhower made two points "in the most emphatic terms."

The United States he told Khrushchev, "will not be deterred" by Khrushchev's threats from its pledges against foreign interference in the affairs of the Western Hemisphere. Moreover, Eisenhower said, in line with its treaty obligations to the other American states it will not "permit the esablishment of a regime dominated by international communism in the Western Hemisphere."

Formal opposition by the United States to foreign intervention in the Americas goes back to the Monroe Doctrine of 1823. The commitment to protect the region against domination by any foreign power has been embraced in more recent years by inter-American agreements, notably the Rio Treaty of Mutual Defense in 1947 and the 1954 Caracas Resolution which is specifically directed against Communist subversion of any American nation.

The Caracas resolution provides for consultation on possible anti-Communist measures.

One effect of the Eisenhower statement, though it was aimed squarely at Khrushchev, is to remind other Western Hemisphere leaders that all are committed to resist Communist intervention or encroachment.

Khrushchev's foray into the current inter - American situation therefore, may be used by the United States to rally support throughout Latin America on the issue of Communism as it arises in the case of the Castro regime.

Before Eisenhower's statement was issued, Khrushchev's nuclear rocket warning was rejected by the State Department here with a declaration that this country will protect its interests in the Cuban situation regardless of his threat.

A statement dismissing the Khrushchev warning came from undersecretary of State Douglas Dillon after a 90-minute conference with Secretary Christian A. Herter.

"My only comment," Dillon told newsmen, "is that Mr. Khrushchev ought to know the United States will never be deterred by any threats of his from protecting its own interests and from carrying on its policy of promoting freedom and progress in this hemisphere."

LIONS ELECT OFFICERS

CHICAGO (AP)—Finis E. Davis of Louisville, Ky., was chosen to head Lions International Saturday as the 43rd annual convention closed.

Davis succeeds Clarence L. Sturm of Manawa, Wis., as president. He served as 1st vice president in 1956-60.

Dr. Lytle C. Fowler of University, Miss., was named chairman of the board of governors.

Other officers for 1960-61 are Per Stahl of Eskilstuna, Sweden, 1st vice president; Curtis Lovill of Gardiner, Maine, 2nd vice president and Auburey D. Green of York Pa., 3rd vice president.

Charges Attempt To Interfere In Western Hemisphere Affairs

NEWPORT, R. I. (AP) — President Eisenhower Saturday night bluntly warned the Soviet Union to keep hands off Cuba. He told Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev the United States won't stand for a Cuban regime dominated by international communism.

The President fired his stern warning a few hours after Khrushchev had pledged all-out support to the regime of Prime Minister Fidel Castro in its crisis-ridden struggle with the United States.

Khrushchev also had rattled the Soviet Union's rockets again.

Nikita Threatens

In a Moscow speech he said the U.S.S.R. now has rocket power capable of smashing America's heartland if the United States dared intervene in Cuba.

The vacationing Eisenhower trout fishing when he got word of the latest Khrushchev blast, immediately conferred by telephone with Secretary of State Christian A. Herter, who was in Washington.

May Overplay Hand

The Soviet leader sounded off amid administration concern that he may overplay his hand and perhaps try to make good on some of his boastful threats — and conceivably start World War III.

Eisenhower's tough statement appeared to reflect that concern.

Eisenhower noted that the United States and other American republics are bound by more than one treaty to block any outside interference in the affairs of the Western Hemisphere.

"I affirm in the most emphatic terms that the United States will not be deterred from its responsibilities by the threats Mr. Khrushchev is making," Eisenhower said in his statement.

Treaty Obligations

"Nor will the United States, in conformity with its treaty obligations, permit the establishment of a regime dominated by international communism in the Western Hemisphere."

Eisenhower accused the Soviet Union of "clear intention to establish Cuba in a role serving Soviet purposes in this hemisphere."

Charges Interference

"The statement of the Soviet Premier reflects the efforts of an outside nation and of international communism to intervene in the affairs of the Western Hemisphere," the President added.

"There is irony in Mr. Khrushchev's portrayal of the Soviet Union as the protector of the independence of an American nation when viewed against the history of the enslavement of countless other peoples by Soviet imperialism.

Will Uphold Commitments

"The inter-American system has declared itself on more than one occasion, beginning with the Rio treaty, as opposed to any such interference. We are committed to uphold those agreements."

The commitments to which Eisenhower alluded include, said the White House press secretary James C. Hagerty, the 1947 Rio de Janeiro Treaty, the 1948 Bogota Charter conference which set up the Organization of American States, and the 1954 Caracas agreement.

Hagerty said that in all of those pacts the American republics pledge in substance they will tolerate no outside interference in the Western Hemisphere.

Meanwhile, it was disclosed Saturday that Eisenhower is making plans for a special message to Congress prodding for action on his legislative program. It will be coupled with a warning against runaway election-year spending.

The summer White House was unable to say at this time, however, in what form the President will get his appeal across to Congress when it reconvenes next month.

Nikita Brandishes Rockets, Pledges Support To Cuba

MOSCOW (AP)—Premier Nikita Khrushchev Saturday pledged all-out support for Cuba in its struggle with the United States. The Soviet Premier declared the U.S.S.R. now has rocket power capable of hitting America's heartland if the "Pentagon dare start an intervention" in Cuba.

He said the time of American dictation in Latin American affairs is over and the Soviet Union is "raising its voice and extending a helpful hand to the people of Cuba fighting for their independence."

"We must serve a warning that today is not the time when the imperialists robbed and shared the world at their discretion," Khrushchev declared. "We shall do everything to support Cuba in her struggle.

Threatens U.S.

"Now the United States is not so unreachable as it once was. Speaking figuratively, in case of necessity, Soviet artillery can support with their rocket fire the Cuban people if aggressive forces in the Pentagon dare to start intervention against Cuba."

Khrushchev charged American policy seeks to strangle Cuba with an economic blockade.

"We will help our Cuban brothers fight an economic blockade, and the blockade will be a failure," he said.

Challenges Monroe Doctrine

The warning was made in a bristling speech to a meeting of school teachers in the Kremlin and was the boldest and most direct challenge to the Monroe Doctrine since that cornerstone of U.S. foreign policy was issued Dec. 2, 1823. The doctrine lays down the policy that the United States will not tolerate any interference from powers outside the Western Hemisphere in the affairs of North and South America. It last was challenged by Britain in 1893 over intervention in Venezuela, but London backed away when the United States took a firm stand.

Repercussions Inevitable

It appeared inevitable that Khrushchev's speech would have repercussions on American domestic policy. The Soviet Premier bluntly served notice on Washington and the rest of the world that the Soviet Union and all its allies stood firmly behind Cuba's Prime Minister Fidel Castro in his dispute with the United States.

At President Eisenhower's vacation headquarters at Newport, R.I., White House press secretary James C. Hagerty noted the State Department had said Friday that Khrushchev seems to be more interested in making threats than in negotiating. Hagerty said that statement stands as U.S. comment on Khrushhcve's latest blast.

Thrown down on the eve of the Democratic National Convention in Los Angeles Khrushchev's warning of a rocket attack on the continental United States appeared to diplomats here to be an almost scornful demand that the United States follow Soviet wishes in its relations with neighboring Cuba.

The warning was strikingly similar to rocket threats against Britain and France in 1956 during the Suez incident. The Soviet Union has always claimed this warning forced those countries to back away, leaving the canal in Egyptian hands.

To diplomats here it appeared inevitable a claim would now be

Rock 'n' Roll Band Plays At Rites For Gypsy Prince

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—A young gypsy prince who loved Rock 'n' Roll music was buried Saturday to the soft strains of "Night Train."

The body of James Mitchell, 17, who died Thursday of a brain tumor in Chicago, was brought here to be buried next to his mother's grave. Annie Mitchell, the queen of the gypsies, died in January.

James' younger brother, Lawrence asked for the Rock 'n' Roll dirge.

"He said James always liked it," said Marie Nicholas, a palm reader. "I know it's unusual but the family decided that it would be all right even though the elders were against it."

So it was "Night Train," "B-Flat Blues" and "When the Saints Come Marching In."

The musicians were silent as a Catholic priest murmured commital prayers.

Softly again came "Night Train," as the casket was lowered. The gypsies tossed coins and stones on the coffin "to guide the spirit."

Finletter Raps Farley's Blast At Stevenson

LOS ANGELES (AP)— Criticism of Adlai Stevenson by James A. Farley only helped the Republican party, Thomas K. Finletter, former secretary of the Air Force, said Saturday.

Farley, onetime party chieftan of the Roosevelt era, slammed Stevenson for his reluctance to put on an active drive for the Democratic presidential nomination. Farley said here Friday that the twice-defeated Democratic standard bearer would be the weakest candidate the party could put up.

Finletter, a delegate with Farley from New York, said in a press release:

"I must speak out to make the record clear that his (Farley's) views are only his own and not those of scores of thousands of Democrats in the district that Mr. Farley and I represent."

Finletter said his district overwhelmingly wants a ticket of Stevenson for president and John F. Kennedy vice president.

"I was shocked by the intemperate language used by Mr. Farley," Finletter said. "The only effect of abuse of his kind is to help the Republican party."

Boy, 7, Survives Plunge Over Niagara Falls; Sister Rescued

NIAGARA FALLS, N.Y. (AP)—A 7-year-old boy survived a 161-foot plunge over the Horseshoe Falls Saturday after the boat in which he and two other were riding capsized in the upper Niagara River.

The boy, Roger Woodward, suffered only minor cuts and bruises.

His sister, Diane, 17, was rescued a few feet from the brink of the roaring falls.

The owner of the boat, James Honeycutt, 40, Niagara Falls, was missing and presumed drowned.

The boy was believed to be the first person ever to survive an accidental plunge over the falls.

He was reported in good condition in General Hospital at Niagara Falls, Ont.

His sister, also with minor injuries, was reported in fair condition at Memorial Hospital at Niagara Falls, N.Y.

The children's father, Frank, 39, Niagara Falls, N.Y., said Roger told him that the water north of Grand Island "suddenly got rough" and the boat overturned.

Visitors at the falls told police they saw the boy being swept over. The outboard motor boat also went over.

Diane was saved when two men braved the rapids near the edge to pull her to safety.

Police said John R. Hayes Sr., Voxhall, N. J., waded into the rapids when he saw the girl being carried to the falls. John A. Quattradi, Penns Grove, N.J., joined Hayes in the rescue.

Capt. Clifford Keetch of a Maid of the Mist tourist boat, spotted the boy in the gorge and with the help of three others lifted him from the rough water.

Chicago Livestock Market Report

CHICAGO (AP) — The butcher hog supply for the four trading days this week was little changed from the five days of last week and prices worked steadily lower until Friday when most of the loss was recovered.

For the week, though, weights under 240 lbs were steady to 25 cents lower while heavier kinds were as much as 25 cents higher.

In the wholesale meat trade, pork loins gained $2-2.50 for the week.

Almost 80 per cent of the week's cattle supply hit the market on Tuesday when offerings of 27,000 head were the largest for any day since last December. But the total for the four-day week was only 5 per cent less than a week ago after the smallest Wednesday supply in almost seven years.

Advances after midweek erased the earlier declines and slaughter steers were steady to 50 cents higher for the period.

Spring slaughter lambs were fully 50 cents higher on a good demand by buyers for Eastern markets and an improved market for carcasses.

CHICAGO (AP)—(USDA)— Following is a summary of the hog, cattle and sheep markets for the week:

Hogs—Compared to last week's close, barrows and gilts weighing under 240 lbs steady to 25 lower, with weights over 240 lbs steady to 25 higher. Sows unevenly steady to 25 higher. On the close, barrows and gilts weighing 190-300 lbs of all grades and combinations of grades sold from 16.25-18.50. Mixed lots No 1 and 2 and mixed No 1, 2 and 3 190-220 lb barrows and gilts brought 18.25-18.50. Most mixed lots No 1, 2 and 3 and mixed No 2 and 3 190-240 lbs 17.50-18.25, No 2 and 3 and No 3 240-270 lbs 16.75-17.50. Mixed No 2 and 3 and No 3 270-300 lb butchers 16.25-17.00. Mixed grades No 2 and 3 and No 3 300-400 lb sows 14.00-16.00, mixed No 2 and 3 and No 3 400-550 lbs 13.00-14.25.

Cattle — Slaughter steers good grade and below and weights 1050 lbs down choice and below steady to 25 higher, other steers steady to strong, high choice and prime heifers steady to 50 lower, average choice and below steady to 25 higher, utility and commercial cows steady, bulls weak, vealers steady. Loadlots high choice and mixed choice and prime steers 26.25-28.50 with most sales 26.75 up at the close. Bulk good to average choice steers 22.50-26.75 at the close with most average choice from 25.75-26.50. Loadlots mixed good and choice steers 24.75-25.50. Mixed standard and good steers 21.50-22.25. Most high choice and mixed choice and prime heifers 26.00-26.50, bulk good to choice heifers 21.75-26.00 at the close with choice 24.75 up. Utility and standard heifers 16.50-21.50. Commercial cows largely 15.00-17.00 at the close with few high commercial and standard 17.00-18.50, utility and commercial bulls 19.50-21.50. Good and choice vealers 24.00-28.00.

Sheep — Compared Friday last week, spring lambs advanced fully 50 under the influence of broader eastern demand and higher prices for lamb carcasses at wholesale. Old crop lambs and yearlings steady to weak with kinds grading good and below particularly slow to sell. Slaughter ewes fully steady. Good to prime native spring lambs 20.00-22.50, mostly 20.50 up with mixed choice and prime lots 22.00-22.50 from Wednesday on, utility grade spring lambs 17.00-19.50, load choice 95 lb shorn old crop lambs and yearlings mixed with No 1 and fall shorn pelts 19.25, few choice 95 lb weights No 2 pelts 18.50. Cull to choice shorn slaughter ewes 4.50-6.00.

New York Stock Market

By ED MORSE
AP Business News Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market nudged ahead this week despite some heavy profit taking among volatile issues which have run up big gains in 1960.

The four-day trading week, shortened by the July 4 holiday, showed no enthusiasm. Average daily volume was 2,954,107 shares compared with 2,964,092 the week before. Both figures were below the average of 3,117,714 for the first six months on 1960.

The outlook for business remained mixed. The market had anticipated a drop in the steel industry operating rate. When output was scheduled at 42.7 per cent of capacity, lowest in 11 years, it was no surprise. But it certainly was no inspiration. The market sagged irregularly with trading dull.

Sentiment was not helped by published comment to the effect that the inevitable upturn in steel production would probably be less vigorous than anticipated. The slackening of auto output as plants prepared for a changeover to 1961 models was another dampener.

While the market favorites were dragging their feet the first two trading days, many of the previously "hot" issues in electronics, vending machines, bowling equipment, and other fields encountered severe profit taking. This was spurred by considerable Wall Street advice. Losses of some of these stocks were drastic.

The steep losses among these glamour babies, however, had little effect on the market. Analysts noted the selling in these issues did not spill over into the general list. This kind of performance was looked upon with approval and gave birth to renewed confidence.

The result was a very good rally Thursday, the best in a month. Sentiment was helped also by a monthly report of the Federal Reserve Bank of New York which foresaw further economic expansion. Additionally, auto sales in June were reported as the best since 1955.

Most active issue this week on the New York Stock Exchange was United Whelan, up 2⅞ at 13 on 171,200 shares. Most active on the American Stock Exchange was Nuclear Corp. of America, up ½ at 4⅜ on 475,300 shares.

Corporate and U.S. government bond prices advanced this week.

Treasury issues started strong, many establishing 1960 highs Tuesday and Wednesday. Some were trading at their best prices since January 1959 when the trend reversed Thursday. They closed the week headed downward but holding gains reaching ⅝ of a point.

Volume for the holiday-shortened week totaled $20,348,500 par value on the New York Stock Exchange compared with $24,883,000 the previous week and $29,128,000 a year ago.

KENNEDY STORMS TOWARD NOMINATION FOR PRESIDENT

airport to salute their political hero. And they whooped and hollered at every word he said.

"I want to assure you," he said, "that today we begin here in this city an effort to win this convention, which I believe will be successful.

One reason for Kennedy's optimism:

Terry Sanford, who will be North Carolina's next governor, threw his support to Kennedy and said he figures the Massachusetts senator will gather in about a third of the state's 37 votes after the national convention opens Monday. Johnson, he said, will have the other two-thirds.

Kennedy already had set up a small beachhead in Dixie by means of a smattering of support in spots such as Alabama and Florida.

Sanford said he had only admiration for Johnson but had decided to swing to Kennedy after "careful and even prayerful consideration."

The presidential nomination goes to the man who reaches 761 on the scoreboard.

An Associated Press tabulation of unofficial first ballot strength puts Kennedy at 546 votes, Johnson 235, Symington 78½, Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota 64½, Stevenson 38, favorite sons and others 203, uncommitted 356.

The one stand-out fact in a week of convention preliminaries has been that nothing really significant has happened.

Kennedy still is the strong front runner just as he has been ever since he started a string of seven primary victories in New Hampshire last March.

And with the formal opening of the convention just two days away, nobody had come up with a guaranteed formula for undermining his strength or keeping it from growing.

Political mathematics appeared to be giong for Kennedy—like this: It takes 761 votes to nominate, and Kennedy's challengers concede he has around 600.

Seven states whose delegations are pledged to favorite sons or are largely uncommitted have exactly 350 votes to lay on the line when the voting begins along about Wednesday night. Pennsylvania and California have 81 votes apiece, New Jersey has 41, Illinois 69, Minnesota 31, Iowa 26, Kansas 21.

Whenever the party moguls in these states cast their delegates loose, Kennedy appears likely to come up with a heftier chunk of their votes than anybody else. So the outlook is highly pleasing for the man from Massachusetts, even if he has to wait for two or three ballots to cash in reserve strength.

There were more and more signs, furthermore, that the well organized Kennedy team was about to hit something of a political jackpot quickly in the powerful California and Pennsylvania delegations and among labor union presidents.

Gov. Edmund G. Brown, California's favorite son, and Carmine DeSapio, a potentate in the New York delegation, have been putting their heads together and reportedly offering some persuasive advice to Gov. David L. Lawrence of Pennsylvania. The word was getting around that Kennedy looked like the winner to all three.

So even Oscar L. Chapman, chairman of the Citizens for Johnson Committee, was forecasting that Brown will let the California delegation go Sunday and plunk for Kennedy.

David J. McDonald, president of the United Steelworkers Union, was described by friends as preparing to announce for Kennedy at a caucus of the Pennsylvania delegation Monday.

Joseph A. Berine, president of the Communications Workers of America, announced Saturday his support for Kennedy.

President George Meany of the AFL-CIO and Walter Reuther, president of the United Auto Workers, are reputedly reported to be leaning toward Kennedy.

Rival encampments were by no means hoisting flags of surrender.

Chapman, for example, claimed Johnson also is going to lasso a sizable batch of votes in the California and Pennsylvania delegations and fare well in Maryland and the favorite-son Kansas and Iowa delegations.

As always at political conventions, talks of secret wheeling and dealing, compromising and trades ran through the hordes of party faithful and curious onlookers cramming Democratic headquarters at the Biltmore Hotel. But Johnson for one insisted that his campaign managers and those of Symington had made no deal to combine forces against Kennedy.

Away from the crowds, in an isolated conference room, 20 men and women locked the door and began the actual drafting of the party platform, a declaration of principles and promises on which the Democrats will pin their hopes of regaining the White House.

As usual with Democrats, the touchiest job was that of hewing out a civil rights plank that will have some appeal to the North without infuriating the South. On that the drafters, a subcommittee of the full 109-member Platform Committee, was hopeful.

ABC's Of Democrat's Political Whizgig Due To Start Monday

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The Democrats open their political whizgig Monday. If past history is any criterion, it will be a confusing whirl of ovations, waving banners and endless speeches.

Some veteran conventioneers who have attended four, five or six of these quadrennial circuses, say they all tend to blur together in their memories.

Yet each convention, no matter how cut-and-dried the choosing of candidates, always seems to have some standout drama or human comedy that lingers.

Remember Joe Smith, the fictional candidate for vice president against Richard M. Nixon in 1956? Remember how Sen. Estes Kefauver (D-Tenn) tried to get the floor in 1952 so he could withdraw in favor of Adlai E. Stevenson, and how he had to wait in discomfort until Tennessee's name was called in the balloting? Or the Puerto Rican delegate who had the 1952 Republican convention gasping with laughter?

Something like that is likely to come out of the 1960 conventions too. To help you savvy who's on first, so to speak, here are some ABC's on what will heppen this week in the Los Angeles Sports Arena.

The Democratic convention is programmed for five days.

Monday at 5 p.m., national party Chairman Paul M. Butler will call the convention to order. He had the same chore in 1956.

Then the temporary officers will be elected, and the temporary chairman, Sen. Frank Church of Idaho, will deliver the keynote address.

Church, who turns 36 on July 25, is the youngest senator. He looks it. A gangling, apple-cheeked six-footer, he often was mistaken for a Senate page when he was first elected four years ago.

The first session ends with adoption of a resolution conforming nominations for the four standing convention committees, on credentials, permanent organization, rules, and platform.

At Tuesday's session the temporary chairman relinquishes the gavel to the permanent chairman. This is Gov. LeRoy Collins of Florida.

Collins replaces a man who has been a seemingly permanent fixture at these affairs—Sam Rayburn of Texas, speaker of the House.

Rayburn, billiard-bald and immensely dignified, withdrew this year because he wanted to campaign for Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson, his colleague from Texas.

At Tuesday's session the platform committee will present the planks it has carpentered for the party to stand on in the campaign. This is an important task, and long months of preparation have gone into it.

Then the nominating speeches begin.

On the third day the convention gets down to brass tacks. The roll calls begin to select the presidential candidate. This can be short and sweet or almost interminable.

In 1924 there were 103 ballots before John W. Davis of West Virginia won the nomination. It took 14 days. In 1860 the convention lasted 16 days.

This year it's possible Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass) will take it on the first ballot.

The vice-presidential candidate will be selected at the Thursday session.

Friday—If no lengthy deadlock develops — is cleanup day. The candidates for president and vice president make their speeches of acceptance.

There are 4,518 delegates and alternates at the convention; 1,521 votes are split up among them. The magic number for the next Democratic presidential candidate is 761.

White Refugees From Rioting In Congo Tell Of Atrocities

LUANDA, Angola, (AP) — Plane loads of white refugees from the riot-ravaged Negro Republic of Congo arrived in this Portuguese West African colony Friday night with tragic accounts of rape, killing, terror and humiliation.

Many of the refugees were weeping women and bewildered children who had left their menfolk behind. Most of them came with nothing but their clothing.

Two planes brought 97 persons from Brazzaville, the old French Congo capital across the river from formerly Belgian Leopoldville, the unstable seat of government of the nine-day old Congo republic.

Another plane, a requisitioned Pan American airliner diverted to Brazzaville from its regular run, returned Friday night without any refugees. Capt. Richard Mead, the pilot said Belgians at Brazzaville now had sufficient air transport direct to Brussels, which they preferred to the Luanda stopover.

Mead said he talked to the U.S. ambassador in Leopoldville by telephone from Brazzaville, and that the ambassador reported all Americans were safe in the embassy.

A former Belgian official in Leopoldville said many white women had been raped. He said he knew of no whites killed in Leopoldville.

Jacques Dupong, former geological services official, said mutinous Congolese soldiers cut off thousands of whites trying to escape to Brazzaville.

Many of the women and children told of their nightmarish escapes from threatened rape and injury in the new-born republic. Others were too distressed to talk of their experiences.

Emilia Ferreira told newsmen of threats by Congolese in her home at Nkinzi and of being parted from her husband and sister in her escape to Brazzaville.

She said she saw two Europeans killed in the streets of Nkinzi but had been unable to identify them.

An unidentified woman told of Europeans being made to walk barefooted as a form of humiliation. Beatings of Europeans were normal over the past two days, she said.

BELGIAN TROOPS INTERVENE TO STOP CONGO VIOLENCE

Belgian officials still were trying to put together a comprehensive picture of the situation brought about by the rebellion among the once-reliable Congolese troops.

A Belgian official said, "The way it all happened, it looks like a concerted plan."

He refused to comment further.

From a welter of confusing and piecemeal reports, this was how the situation appeared as darkness fell on Congo cities that had been turned into a man-made jungle of violence:

Lower Congo Province — African troops were reported to have invaded the docks of the seaport of Matadi and attacked a boat about to leave with a full load of refugees. President Kasavubu and Premier Lumumba flew to the port. Trouble also was reported at the port of Boma.

African troops were reported in full control of most centers along the important rail line between Matadi and Leopoldville. All Europeans who could leave these centers had done so, bringing reports of rape, violence and pillaging.

In Leopoldville itself there was comparative quiet, but African troops still held several thousand whites virtual prisoner in the capital. The troops prevented boats from escaping across the river to Brazzaville in the neighboring Congo Republic once ruled by France.

About 2,000 Europeans already had escaped to Brazzaville.

Katanga, the copper- and mineral-producing province in the south—Serious disorders were reported at Kasongo where the native population started pillaging European houses. Two whites were killed in Kongole when soldiers fired on boats loaded with Europeans fleeing the center.

Kivu Province — Troubles were reported starting at Kundu, a mining area. Europeans from all smaller centers were fleeing toward Bukavu, the provincial capital, while those already in Bukavu were attempting to reach Ruanda-Urundi, a Belgian trust territory.

Belgians who were blocked by escaping from Goma by airlift were attempting to escape by launches across Lake Kivu to Bukavu.

American missionaries from Goma, Koma, Kirotsche and Singa were attempting to reach Kisenyi, north of Lake Kivu on the Ruanda-Urundi border.

Kasai Province — The Belgian radio said intertribal warfare between Luluas and Balubas has broken out again. Sporadic fighting between the tribes has been raging for months. The provincial government was reported to have decided to divide the province in two areas to restore peace.

Coquilhatville and Stanleyville provinces — Precise reports were lacking from the huge expanses of jungles in these two provinces along the Congo River. But refugees were reported fleeing from the two provincial capitals. Stanleyville was the scene of bloody violence last year.

Mrs. Hilda Matthew of Ashland is a patient in the Memorial hospital in Springfield.

Arthur Pickle is a surgical patient at Passavant hospital. He is grounds foreman at the Illinois School for the Deaf.

H. Dale Rose, 1302 South Main, underwent major surgery at Passavant Hospital Friday, July 8.

Africa Drums Up Trouble

Group Agitates For Free, United Continent

By TOM A. CULLEN
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

LONDON—(NEA) — The hurricane of African change goes howling through the lobbies of Parliament and the corridors of the British Colonial Office.

This city has become a mecca both for politicians from the newly-independent African states and for agitators from African colonies fighting for freedom. Conspiracies, as well as constitutions, are hatched here.

The central breeding ground is the basement offices of the Committee of African Organizations, latest of the African freedom groups.

Preaching the doctrine of Pan-Africanism—"Africa for Africans"—the CAO is the coordinating body for 25 African organizations. It is not a political party, say its chairman, Kwesi Armagh of Ghana and secretary, John Longmore of Nigeria.

From its walls, a poster of Paul Robeson, the American Negro singer, grins out alongside those urging freedom for Algeria, a boycott of South African goods and a halt to French atom bomb tests in the Sahara. Mimeograph machines turn out propaganda leaflets eight hours a day.

Among the exiled African leaders who operate near the shadows of the CAO are Peter Koinange, Kenya leader linked with the Mau Mau; Joshua Nkomo, president of the outlawed African Congress Party in Southern Rhodesia and Kenyama Chiume, preacher for Nyasaland's freedom.

• • •

Britain pays host to these exiles, as a Colonial Office spokesman explained, because "These men may be premiers, cabinet ministers or even opposition leaders one day."

Many of these prospective leaders, as well as the CAO, would like to see all of Africa free and united as one nation along federal lines. The Ghana-Guinea union is being used as a "pilot study" of this plan.

Chairman Armagh speaks of the "African personality" as a distinct political and cultural entity with a heritage common to Ghana and Kenya, Madagascar and the Chad."

Pan-Africa embraces the West Indies. "West Indians are as much African as the natives of the Congo."

Nor are the CAO's activities confined to British-speaking parts of Africa and the West Indies. Currently inciting rebellion in the French-speaking Cameroons and the Portuguese colonies of Angola and Mozambique, the CAO has issued a pamphlet called "The Rape of the Cameroons" which speaks of the "imperialist beasts now at bay."

"Africa is not an extension of Europe," Armagh says heatedly.

• • •

"Nor of the United States," Longmore adds. "Africa was a great empire long before the Europeans began to crawl out of their forests and caves."

The CAO steers visiting African celebrities like Kenya's Tom Mboya around London, arranges press conferences, sees that they meet the right people including Labor party and trade union leaders.

But its main activity is agitation and propaganda — protest meetings, defense funds, leaflets and press releases.

The British boycott of South African goods in protest against apartheid was conceived in the CAO's basement office. So was the recent campaign against French A-bomb tesis in the Sahara.

The CAO draws its lieutenants from among the 10,000 Africans now studying at British universities and polytechnic schools. Many of these are "professional students" who have long since qualified or abandoned their studies for the delights of politics.

One of the CAO's immediate objectives is to get a larger and more impressive headquarters.

"We would like to climb out of this basement and into the light," Armagh explained. "We would like to have offices in a brand-new building with an elevator for we are definitely on the rise."

Brags About Rockets

Amid the cheers of the teachers, Khrushchev said the recent Soviet rocket tests in the Pacific showed the Russians can hit with pinpoint accuracy targets some 8,000 miles distant from her launching pads and thus can strike the United States.

"The men in the Pentagon should not forget," he said, "as the latest test showed, we now have rockets which are able to hit a given target at a distance of 30,000 kilometers (18,640 miles)." Challenged on this figure, he said: "I want to correct this. The distance is 13,000 (8,077 miles)." He said he wanted the correct information to go to the Pentagon, and "13 thousand is far enough."

The United States on May 20 launched an Atlas ballistic missile that traveled 9,000 miles from Cape Canaveral, Fla., down the Atlantic Ocean past the tip of South Africa and into the Indian Ocean in the vicinity of the Prince Edward Islands.

U.S. Launches Powerful A-Sub

PORTSMOUTH, N.H. (AP) — The Thresher, a new type nuclear submarine so powerful that none of the world's oceans can be denied to her was launched Saturday.

She is the first of a new class of subs capable of diving deeper and running more quietly at high speed than any submarine ever built by the United States.

Rear Adm. L. R. Daspit said in his launching speech, "None of the world's oceans can be denied to her, even though she goes alone, unsupported by other forces."

Adm. Daspit is commander, Submarine Force, Atlantic Fleet. He urged yard workers to speed her on her building trials saying "We need it."

How To Get Two For The Price Of One

ELLEN and Alice. Or is it Alice and Ellen?

By ROSETTE HARGROVE
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

PARIS—(NEA)—At the Lido cabaret after you've had a few drinks and you think you're seeing twice as much of a beautiful girl as you should be—relax. There are two of her.

Now just one 23-year-old Kessler girl would be enough for anyone looking for a beautiful blonde who could sing in perfect French or English with a slight German accent, dance and generally stand around looking pretty. But the Kessler girls, Ellen and Alice, come in the hottest "twin package" this side of the English Channel.

They each go up to five feet, eight and a half inches. The body score reads the same for both—35½-23-37—but Alice weighs five pounds more. How to tell them apart?

"My face is shorter," Ellen said.

Americans will see if they can spot any other differences when the twins appear in Las Vegas with the Lido show next year. But if the show operates the same way it does in France, they will have to observe from afar. No chorine is allowed out front at any time.

At the Lido, they work from 10 p.m. to 2:30 a.m. every day of the year under a one-year contract. They shuttled for four years between this French port of call and West Germany where they appeared in motion pictures and television shows.

They have just returned to Paris after a two-year absence to take over important parts in the revue, appearing in four tableaus and singing two songs.

• • •

The twins went into this kind of work after they literally outgrew ballet. Trained behind the Iron Curtain, they followed their father to Dusseldorf, West Germany, in 1952, developed their sister act and within two years, were spotted for the Lido by the cabaret's owner, Pierre-Louis Guerin.

But "we don't want to go on and on in show business until we are 40," said Ellen, nor do they want to live all their lives in Paris.

What do they want? A husband, or in this case, husbands.

They said, "We have a tacit agreement that neither of us will marry before we both find the right man — preferably at the same time. Because, of course, we would be lost one without the other. And that goes for our careers, too."

Right now, in addition to their Lido engagement, they are kept busy in a film based on their resemblance. On the set, they keep up the same appearance, being even-tempered, popular and good-natured. Their personal dresser believes she can tell them apart but the twins say she is wrong two out of every three times.

So when do they expect to leave the entertainment world for that of a housewife?

"Who knows," said Ellen. Or was it Alice?

Truman Keeps 'Em Guessing

INDEPENDENCE, Mo. (AP)—Harry S. Truman still is keeping the politicians and the public guessing on whether he's going to attend the Democratic National Convention.

There were indications he might say something about it Saturday but his office reported he had nothing to announce.

Ten days ago the former President announced he had resigned from the Missouri delegation. A week ago he said he did this because the convention was prearranged. But he parried questions about going to Los Angeles.

Later he said he had not canceled his hotel reservation. Then Friday, Gov. James T. Blair of Missouri announced in Los Angeles that Truman had reconsidered and would be in Los Angeles Monday to fill a delegate's role with half a vote.

To this Truman said he would make up his mind later.

Edson: Los Angeles, Political Conventions Belong Together

By ARTHUR EDSON

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Political conventions and Los Angeles have so many traits in common it's strange they didn't get together earlier.

Both are delightfully, sometimes weirdly, zany. Both show incurable, unreasonable optimism. Both often mistake make-believe for the real thing.

Democrats arrived in full force Saturday for the convention opening Monday.

Take the Biltmore Hotel, convention headquarters. You only have to step in the door to realize it's like every convention headquarters, only maybe a bit more so. The same ceaseless milling in the lobbies, the same big, blatant signs advertising the candidates, the same room clerks, hopelessly washing away in a sea of confusion.

But let's join the milling and look the place over.

First stop, headquarters for Sen. Stuart Symington of Missouri.

There's considerable to-do up front, but at the rear by the door an old man is watching a whodunit on television. The reason for the to-do is that Jim Symington the senator's guitar-playing son, is about to do a little TV recording.

Next, headquarters for Sen. John F. Kennedy of Massachusetts. He has what seems to be a bongo band, but it isn't bongoing, so it's hard to tell. Kennedy is assigned a big room with a part of it partitioned off. There's a hole in the partition and a sign says: "Delegates and alternates here."

Ever eager to report what's going on behind scenes, let's peek over parition. Mostly seems to be Kennedy men reassuring other Kennedy men, but if they can entice the delegates in there, they can convince them in droves.

On to the headquarters of Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas.

Right in the middle of an ornate room a little boy, an apostle of the capitalist system, is busy shining shoes. Has a big Kennedy sticker on his back.

Lady comes over and says somewhat irritably, "If you're going to work in here, you might at least wear one of our buttons."

Down to one of Stevenson's headquarters, a small room called the butler's pantry. Can't get in. It's all filled with 40 or so Stevenson supporters.

Back into the lobby to admire the planning of the hotel management which picked this time of all times to paint the ceiling. With all the other signs there's one on the scaffolding which advertises the decorating company.

It certainly looks as if we brought the right show to the right town.

Report Piedras Statement Is Not Mexico's Policy

MEXICO CITY (AP) — Highly informed Latin American diplomatic and Mexican government sources said Saturday the "Mexico with Cuba" statement made by a congressional leader does not represent Mexican government policy.

They said it was believed in top-level government circles that former President Lazaro Cardenas was instigating and agitating the situation, taking advantage of the touchy international crisis between the United States and Cuba to renew his own political power.

The controversial statement, which created a tense situation between Mexico and the United States, almost unequaled since the expropriation of the American oil properties, was made by Emilio Sanchez Piedras, chairman of the Congressional Permanent Committee. Sanchez Piedras is known to be a follower of Cardenas.

"Sanchez Piedras does not speak for the Mexican government or the PRI — government-dominated party of Revolutionary Institutions"—an official of the party said Saturday.

He asked not to be identified.

Saturday's reports seemed to take the sting out of a remark made in Guadalajara by Senate leader Manuel Moreno Sanchez that Mexico must supply oil to fill Cuba's pressing needs.

They not only superseded his remarks, made at an off-the-cuff news conference, but also were backed up by an official report from the government-owned oil industry two days ago that Mexico has no exportable surplus of crude.

Cub Scouts Visit Historic Sites At Beardstown

The Cub Scouts of den 4, pack 109, of Jacksonville, made a trip to Beardstown June 30. The outing began with a picnic lunch at the Beardstown Recreation Park, at the site along the river where in April 1832 Abraham Lincoln was installed as captain and was chosen to lead the Sangamon County company of soldiers during the Blackhawk War.

After exploring a bit along the river the boys visited the Beardstown City Hall, an historic Lincoln shrine. The building was erected in 1844 as the first Cass County court house.

Lincoln tried many cases in the court house, the most famous of which was the "Almanac" trial of Duff Armstrong in May of 1858. The building today is used regularly for city business and also houses the police and fire departments.

Upstairs in the court room is a collection of guns from nearly every period of American history. There is also a large collection of Indian arrowheads, axes and other items, representing the handiwork of the Indians who inhabited this region many years ago.

The boys making this trip were Danny Craddock, Bobby Spencer, Tommy Davis, Freddy Standley, John Doyle and Keith Curtis. Accompanying the boys were Mrs. Hugh Craddock, Mrs. Glenn Spencer, Marilyn Spencer, Mrs. O'Donnell and Mrs. Charles M. Davis.

Helen Osterman Bride Of Joseph Schnelt

CARROLLTON — Miss Helen Osterman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Osterman of Carrollton became the bride of Joseph Schnelt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schnelt of Carrollton in a wedding held Saturday, July 9 at 10 a.m. in St. John's Catholic church in Carrollton. The ceremony was performed by Rt. Rev. Monsignor Michael Enright pastor of the church.

The vocalist during the ceremony was George Schnelten of Carrollton and his accompaniest was Mrs. Lawrence Thien also of Carrollton.

The maid of honor was Miss Helen Ann Osterman of Carrollton, cousin of the bride and the bridesmaids were Miss Janet Keller of St. Louis, Miss Mary Helen Vandersand and Miss Frances Schnelt both of Carrollton. The best man was Robert Schnelt of Carrollton, brother of the groom and the groomsmen were Tom Meade of Hannibal, Mo., Ed Schnelt of Carrollton and Henry Brinker of Kane. The ushers were Gene Osterman and Gene Goeddey both of Carrollton.

The bride appeared in wedding gown of gardenia white embro silk organza over tulle and taffeta. The fitted bodice had a deep oval neckline and tiny cap sleeves. Her flowers were feathered white carnations and ivy foliage arranged in a cascade.

The gowns of the maid of honor and the brides maids were identical in styling and each wore embossed nylon sheer of white in floor length over turquoise, gold, mint green and orchid. They each carried cascade arrangements of carnations in shades to match their gowns.

Following the wedding a breakfast was served the members of the bridal party at the Colonial Room of Day's Cafe and a reception was held from 2 to 4 p.m. in the Knights of Columbus hall. Assisting at the reception were Miss Judy Osterman, Miss Peggy Schnelt, Mrs. Margie Shade and Miss Doris Caffery of Carrollton, Miss Kay Meade of Hannibal, Mo. and Mrs. Mary Helen Isringhausen of Jerseyville.

Mr. and Mrs. Schnelt are making their home at 121 North Main Street in Carrollton.

Mrs. Schnelt is a graduate of the Carrollton Community Unit high school and is employed in a secretarial capacity in the law office of Attorney Jack McDonald in Carrollton.

Mr. Schnelt is a graduate of St. John's high school and is employed by the Greene County Service Company in Carrollton.

Kiwanis To Have Hobby Show With Annual Kids Day

The Kiwanis Club of Jacksonville will have its annual Kids Day on Thursday, August 18. Something new this year, will be a Hobby Show to be held in the morning at the Jacksonville High School gym. The Kiwanis Hobby Show will be open to all children 14 years of age and under. The young exhibitors will be divided into two age brackets, those children under 10 years of age will be in one bracket and children 10 to 14 years old will be in the oher bracket.

There will be cash prizes awarded for the best three exhibits in each age bracket. Any hobby is acceptable except live animals provided that it can be properly exhibited in the gym. Each child will be responsible for setting up his own exhibit. The doors will be open for the exhibitors at 8 a.m. and all exhibits must be set up and ready for viewing at 9 a.m. when the general public will be admitted. The Hobby Show will close at 11 a.m.

There will be an attendance prize drawing for which all children will be eligible, both exhibitors and viewers alike. Soda pop will be available free during the show to those children who have registered.

The afternoon festivities will be held at Nichols Park. There will be free rides on the ferris wheel and free swimming just as there has been in past years. There will also be a free movie that afternoon for those children unable to attend at the park.

The annual Kiwanis Kids Day has always been well attended by the children of the Jacksonville community. Approximately 800 children participated in last year's activities and it is expected that this year's registration will exceed that. Kids Day is sponsored by the Kiwanians of Jacksonville but owes much of its success to the support of many of our local merchants and other persons in the community.

Kids Day is an outgrowth of the boys and girls work program which Kiwanis International has fostered for many years. This program is designed to help youth by building individual responsibility. The Jacksonville Club's Kids Day and hobby show carries out this theme by making it possible for these youngsters to show the work they have done during the summer and to observe the ideas of others. It also enables the adults of the community to see these accomplishments and to some small degree permits them to reward these children through their local Kiwanis Club.

Battles Discrimination In Women's Wage Rates

Equal Pay For Equal Work Is Labor Aide's Goal

By JERRY BENNETT
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

WASHINGTON — (NEA) — Forty years after the establishment of the U.S. Women's Bureau, the big problem is still the same as it was in 1920. It's how to get employers to raise women's pay to the same level as men's.

Esther Peterson, legislative representative of the AFL-CIO's Industrial Union Department says:

"Too many of today's working girls, like their mothers before them, are working in the same positions as men but for lower wages. It's only fair that when a woman does a man's work she should get the same pay.

"The difference in the paychecks of a man and woman working at the same job may range from several cents to several dollars depending on the type of work."

Esther Peterson

THE SALARY GAP was one of the topics discussed at a Labor Department Conference celebrating the Women's Bureau's 40th anniversary this June. Mrs. Peterson, a principal speaker, discussed the status progress of women during the last four decades.

A partial solution to the equal pay for equal work problem, she says, would be passage of a new bill to extend the minimum wage law to cover telephone operators, taxi and bus drivers and employes of hotels and retail stores.

The bill, now under study in both the House and Senate, would also raise the minimum wage from $1 to $1.25.

Mrs. Peterson believes that women's organizations can help solve the problem by investigating discriminatory pay conditions in their towns and bringing the matter to public attention.

Labor unions also can help, she says, "by being more vigorous in their collective bargaining to see that discrimination in pay is removed."

MRS. PETERSON'S job is to represent industrial unions in matters before Congress. She has held the position for two years.

The idea of someday holding a key job in America's labor movement never entered her mind when she graduated from Brigham Young University in her home town of Provo, Utah. Her ambition was to go East and be a science and physical education teacher.

ONE OF HER first jobs was teaching a class of working girls at the Boston, Mass., YWCA.

The employment headaches of the class sparked her interest in labor problems in general.

She began to study the subject and soon became to proficient that she began teaching special classes for women industrial workers at Bryn Mawr College in Pennsylvania.

Six years later she went to work as education assistant for the Amalgamated Clothing Workers of America.

Before taking her present job she spent six years in Europe with her husband, a foreign service officer. During a three-year stint in Sweden, she acted as an adviser to Swedish trade unions.

Despite her active professional life she has found time to rear three boys and a girl plus perfect her favorite hobby of cooking fancy Swedish and Danish dishes.

Berlo's victory in the Coaching Club American Oaks gave jockey Eric Guerin his third win in the stake. He won with Next Move in 1950 and Grecian Queen in 1953.

Announce Distribution Of Municipal Finance Edition

State Auditor Elbert S. Smith announced his office began distribution of the publication of Illinois Laws Relating to Municipal Finance which has been prepared as an aid to Illinois cities and villages Saturday.

The publication, "Illinois Statute Laws Relating to Municipal Finance" is the second edition of the laws first published in 1957 and is revised biennially to include the statutory revisions and new enactments of each session of the General Assembly.

Smith said the book contains "The pertinent laws pertaining to municipal finance which appear in the Cities and Villages Act of the Illinois Statutes and in numerous other chapters of the Illinois Revised Statutes, including the recent enactment of the Illinois Highway Code."

"This publication," he said, "was prepared for the convenience of Municipal Finance Officers, Accountants, City and Village Attorney's, and others who work with the various phases of municipal finances."

Smith credited the nine-member Municipal Audit Board who reviewed the material and assisted in its preparation and Tom Trager, Peoria, who supervised the research and indexing. The board members, who serve without pay, are: Lawrence W. Rith, Decatur; chairman; Cecil D. Rigg, Peoria; Fred P. Jones, Sterling; Wayne Pollard, Rockford; Clayton J. Schlosseh, Alton; Rolland E. Craig, Danville; John Glenn, Beardstown; Harris Rowe, Jacksonville; and Lee R. Fleming, Zion.

The laws is the most recent publication issued by Smith's office to assist municipal officials and to aid them in fulfilling their obligations under the Illinois Municipal Auditing Law.

During Smith's term, the administration of the Municipal Auditing Law has developed to the state all cities now submit audit and financial reports. His office renders fiscal services to municipalities.

The preceding publication "The Manual of Suggested Accounts and Accounting Procedures for Illinois Municipalities," was favorably received not only in Illinois but nationwide. The Municipal Finance Officers Association of the United States and Canada commented that Illinois had done "an excellent job" in the field of comprehensive accounting for municipalities and invited Smith to speak before their convention in New York last June 9, on the manual.

Chapin Cub Scout Picnic Is Held At Nichols Park

CHAPIN—The monthly meeting of Cub Scout Pack 116 of Chapin was held June 26 at Nichols Park. A picnic dinner was served at noon, to 43 persons present, to carry out the outdoor theme for the month.

Following the meal an advancement ceremony was held for David Lovekamp, who received a Lion award, and Jack Deaver, Donald Lovekamp and Jim Six, who received Wolf awards.

A vote of thanks was given to Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Surratt for their efforts in organizing the Scout pack. The Surratts recently moved from Chapin.

Milton Lovekamp was appointed cub master, with Everett Deaver as assitant cub master. The following pack committee was formed: secretary, Eugene Nienhiser; treasurer, William Surratt Jr.; advancement, Kenneth Atchinson; outings, Verne Nergenah and public relations, Allen Six.

Den mothers are as follows: den 1, Mrs. Milton Lovekamp and den 2, Mrs. Berneice Alderson.

An open meeting will be held at the Chapin American Legion Monday night, July 11, at 8 p.m. Any adults or any boys, from age eight to 11, interested in scouting are urged to attend this meeting.

During the afternoon several games were held, with appropriate prize awards, made by the scouts, being presented to the winners. John Atchison and his father were declared the winner in a father and son three-legged race.

Those attending the meeting were Mr. and Mrs. Milton Lovekamp and children, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Surratt and children, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Atchison and children, Mr. and Mrs. William Surratt Jr. and children, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Deaver and Jack.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Nienhiser and children, Mrs. Verne Nergenah and David, Mrs. Berneice Alderson and children, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Six and children, Richard Winkelman Ted Surratt and Phyllis and Jack Wilder.

Jersey Prisoners To Menard State Prison Friday

JERSEYVILLE— Two prisoners were removed from the Jersey county jail Friday morning to the state penitentiary at Menard by Deputy Sheriff Adam DeSherlia. The prisoners are Vernon Pyatt and Fred Eugene Dick.

In addition to the two prisoners, DeSherlia was accompanied on the trip by Dale Ogden, city police officer and Leo Beidermann.

The two prisoners were sentenced recently in the Jersey county circuit court. Dick had pleaded guilty to charges contained in an information filed in the circuit court in which he was charged with burglarizing the telephone company at Fieldon the night of May 19. The other charge was that of breaking jail here the night of May 30.

Pyatt was charged with aiding and assisting a prisoner to escape from jail. He pleaded guilty to an information charging him with assisting Dick to escape from the local jail.

Dick was sentenced to serve from one to five years on his charges and Pyatt was given from one to three years. A third subject, James Elledge, who was also involved in the jail break of the night of May 30, had previously been sentenced in the local county court to serve one year in the Illinois State Farm at Vandalia.

Dick and Elledge were subsequently arrested after their jail break in Jerseyville by local officers. They had a stolen pickup truck in their possession at the time.

Pyatt was arrested later in Omaha, Neb., and brought back from there by Sheriff Howard Perdun and Deputy Sheriff Thomas Dean.

Visit Here

Lt. (j.g.) Merle Fox and Mrs. Fox are guests of relatives in this city, en route from Long Beach, Calif. to Great Lakes Naval base, where Lt. Fox will be based for the future. He has been on an extensive cruise since December, 1959.

Sunday Picnic

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Roegge of near Jacksonville joined Mr. and Mrs. Robert Harrison, Brenda, Tommy and Jerry of Virginia on a trip to New Salem Sunday. They enjoyed a picnic dinner.

Norman (PeeWee) Merriman whose skating rink was completely destroyed in the recent tornado, and which was enjoyed by crowds of adults and children from this city and vicinity, received substantial help in re-establishing his rink.

Wendell Briggs, proprietor of the East Side Cafe, conceived the idea of stretching a clothes line up in his cafe, attaching many clothes pins and adding this invitation, "Let's put PeeWee back on wheels." The idea was to "pin" a bill to the line.

Customers, friends and also strangers who patronized the cafe responded, and the result was $150 toward the new rink, which is now in operation. It is located on the north side of the 4-H Fairgrounds.

On Trip

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Harris left Friday of this week for an extensive trip through the eastern states.

MANDERVILLES VISIT IN CITY WEDNESDAY

M/Sgt. and Mrs. Bernard J. Manderville and sons, formerly of Jacksonville, spent Wednesday of last week visiting friends and relatives here.

PERSONAL PROPERTY ASSESSMENT ROLL FOR 1960

The following is a list of personal property together with the amounts of the assessments as made by Robert Schall, supervisor of assessments of Morgan County.

The assessed values herein shown are subject to revision by the Board of Review, and to equalization by the Department of Revenue. Section 146 of the Revenue Act, 1939, provides that the Department shall lower or raise the total assessed value of property in any county so that such property will be assessed at its full fair cash value.

This publication (made in accordance with Section 103 of the Revenue Act of 1939) serves as a public Notice to the Taxpayers of the county of the assessed values fixed upon their property by the township assessors, or by the supervisor of assessments.

Taxpayers who consider their personal property incorrectly assessed may appear before the Board of Review and file a complaint in writing according to Section 103 of the revenue act of 1939.

ROBERT SCHALL,
Assessor, Morgan County.

Boy Scout Group From Arenzville At Camp Illinek

ARENZVILLE—A group of Boy Scouts are spending the week at Camp Illinek at Lake Springfield including Carl Bischoff, Drew Clark, Chris Clark, Robin Manker, Gordon Ginder, Tommy Paul, Randy Nobis, Todd Bischoff, Jim Morrison, and assistant Scoutmaster Rev. G. A. Bischoff.

Another group of Scouts attended the ball game at St. Louis on July 4 including James Paul, Charlie Paul, Carl Stiltz, Gary Beard, Stanley Stock, Toni Thomas, Tommy Price, David Dufelmaster Charles Schnitker, and meier, Burton Ater, and Scoutoutdoor man, Clifford Thomas.

Lutheran Ladies Meet

The Ladies Aid Society of St. Peter's Lutheran church met Thursday afternoon, July 7, at the parish hall for their regular monthly meeting. There were 19 members and one guest present and the afternoon was spent quilting.

Mrs. Oliver Meyer was in charge of the devotions, and the meeting opened by singing the hymn "Work For the Night Is Coming." The scripture text was taken from the third chapter of Proverbs.

Mrs. Meyer used the devotions taken from the "Daily Devotions" book, after which she led the group in prayer. The devotional meeting closed with the hymn "He Leadeth Me, O Blessed Thought."

A short business meeting followed with Mrs. Russell Nordsiek, the president, presiding. Roll call was answered with a Bible passage containing the word "Love." Minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. Dues were paid by several members. Meeting closed with the Lord's Prayer.

It was decided to quilt again Tuesday, July 12. Refreshments for the afternoon were served by the hostesses, Mrs. George Musch and Mrs. Alvin Heitbrink.

IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE

Ashland WSCS Officers

Nancy Clendenny To Be Bride Of Rev. Edw. Maddox

HARDIN—Mr. and Mrs. Leo Clendenny of Hamburg are announcing the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Nancy Jane, to the Rev. Edward J. Maddox, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Maddox.

Miss Clendenny is a 1957 graduate of Calhoun Community Unit 40 High School at Hardin and is employed at the Bank of Calhoun County, also at Hardin.

The Rev. Mr. Maddox is a 1954 graduate of Mascoutah Community High School and is enrolled at the National Methodist Seminary in Kansas City, Missouri.

The couple has set September 11 as their wedding date. They will make their home in Bates City, Missouri, where he is pastor of a circuit of three Methodist churches.

Picnic Season

The church picnic and chicken dinner season will open in Calhoun county this weekend with a chicken dinner Saturday evening at the Zion Lutheran Church in Batchtown. On Saturday, July 16, the Methodist Church in Batchtown will sponsor its chicken dinner, and the next day, Sunday, July 17, St. Anselm's Church in Kampsville will have its annual picnic and chicken dinner. St. Barbara's Church in Batchtown has selected Sunday, July 31, for its annual picnic and dinner.

Events in August will include a two-day picnic and dinner on August 6 and 7 at St. Joseph's Church in Meppen and another two-day affair on August 13 and 14 at St. Mary's Church in Brussels. St. Michael's parish in Michael will have the final picnic of the season, on Sunday, August 22.

Busy Bees

Final plans for Saturday's bake sale were made by the Hardin Busy Bees 4-H Club at the meeting Wednesday afternoon in the Farm Bureau building. The sale will be in the Corbett Ford Garage in Hardin, and will begin at 1:30. Also discussed at the meeting were the program for the club achievement night, which will be Monday, July 18, in the Farm Bureau building and the county achievement night, Wednesday, July 20, in the high school gym. All projects will be judged that evening.

Demonstrations and talks were given Wednesday by Mary Ellen Ducey, Babs Eberlin and Carol Carmody. The group also discussed an educational tour to be taken by the club later this month. The next meeting of the club will be Wednesday, July 13.

Iowa Visitor

Guests of Mrs. Roy Wieneke at her home in Hardin for the past week were her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Bader of Nevada, Iowa, and her sister, Mrs. Edith Weuve, of State Center Iowa. They left Hardin early Thursday morning for their homes.

SHERIFF UNCOVERS THE UNCOVERED

JERSEYVILLE—Sheriff Howard Perdun was called to the vicinity of the Westlake Country Club Friday afternoon to terminate a swimming party being staged in a small pond in the vicinity of the old "Tommy" Leigh premises, by a group of very small girls and boys.

The pond is situated in an old pasture across the highway south from the Westlake golf course, and the youngsters were clad during their swimming party as the original Adam and Eve.

The pond in question was the site of the drowning of a small boy early last spring.

The American sugar maple tree lives to be 500 years old.

Jersey County Fair Drum, Bugle Corps Contest Tonight At 8

JERSEYVILLE — For the sixth consecutive year the Jersey County Fair Association has arranged for a Drum and Bugle Corps Contest which, this year takes place at 8 p.m. Sunday.

This is the only Fair in the Midwest that has such an expensive show and National Champions and State Champions will be here to participate, their mass formation presenting an outstanding spectacular entertainment.

Six corps and one drill team were here to take part in the two hour show. The Black Knights, AMVET National Champions and Illinois State Fair Champions, a most outstanding unit, were among the contestants.

The Jerseyville Corvets, sponsored by the Jerseyville Veterans of Foreign Wars, young and always a favorite, participated.

Other units competing included, The American Woodman, Missouri First Division winners; Millstadt which placed third in the Illinois State Fair event; Bellettes, Past Girls VFW champions; East Alton Juniors, a young and peppy corps; Piasa Indians Drill Team, second place winners at the National meet.

"The Polka Chips and Dancers" famous television program was on the agenda at the Jersey County Fair Saturday night, this being one of the few personal appearances being made by this popular TV polka troupe. This exciting polka festival was the "event of the year" and featured the genial master of ceremonies, Bruno "Junior" Zielinski, the leader-accordionist Stan Wolowic and his Polka Chips, and others. This group received the Polka Award from the Polish National Alliance of the United States and North America for 1959.

Parade Thursday

Many of the floats entered in the Merchants Parade of the Jersey County Fair held Thursday afternoon, developed the general theme of "School Days." Teachers who have taught 25 years or more in Jersey county received special recognition and rode in the parade.

Engraved trophies were received by winners in six divisions of the parade. Winner in the Auto and Truck division was Harry Smith Buick Company.

The float of the Oliver Implement Company carrying the "Book of Life" received the trophy in the Tractor and Equipment division.

The float of Kirby Drug Store with a miniature School House received first place in the Commercial Float division and the John Cory Meadow Gold Dairy entry was in second place. The second place entry developed in yellow and white, showed a school room complete with a "Dunce" in the corner, studying his lessons. This is the sixth year that Kirby Drug has placed in the parade, they having won four firsts and two seconds.

The yellow and white float showing a "Guiding Light—The Teachers" entered by the Jerseyville Business and Professional Women's Club, won first in the Organization floats; and that of the men of the First Baptist church, with the men dressed as "kids," taught by a teacher in cap and gown, and led by a cross, received second award.

"An Apple for the Teacher" furnished the theme for the float of the Jerseyville Playgrounds which won the trophy in the Bast Theme division. This entry was constructed by the children of the playground group.

Ray Searls captured the first prize in the Horse division and John Ritter of Springfield won the ribbon for second place winner.

The judges were from out-of-town, two being from St. Louis and one from Springfield.

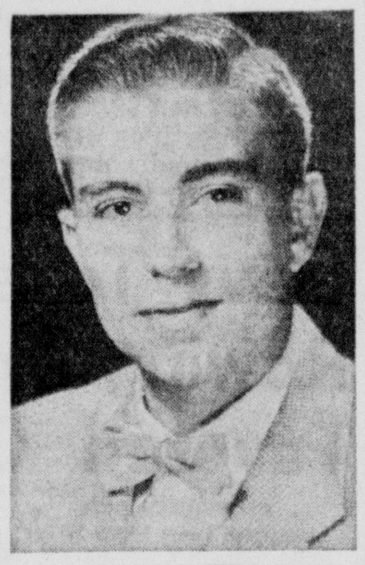
Receives Scholarship



DONALD BELL

Donald Bell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Bell of White Hall, route one, has received a scholarship to attend the Oak Ridge Institute of Nuclear Studies, sponsored by the National Science Foundation.

He will attend the institute for four weeks, studying developments in chemistry, physics and nuclear science. Tours of the Oak Ridge Atomic Energy Plant will be included.

Only 48 scholarships of this type were granted throughout the entire nation. One other Illinois resident was also a recipient.

Mr. Bell has taught chemistry and physics at Carrollton Community High School for the past two and one half years. He will teach the coming year at Jerseyville Community High School.

Joe Sommers Helps Prolong Woman's Life

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (FHTNC)— Joe Sommers, seaman, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Sommers of 505 S. Diamond, Jacksonville, Ill .,is helping to prolong the life of a victim of aplastic anemia while serving aboard the anti-submarine warfare aircraft carrier USS Bennington operating out of San Diego, Calif.

The crew of the aircraft carrier learned that a Mrs. Verna Merritt, stricken with the ailment, required continuous transfusions of whole blood. The wife of Convair employee, David Merritt, she has been through more than 500 transfusions in five years and has wiped out the family's savings, leaving them in debt by 100 pints to the San Diego Blood Bank.

Mrs. Merritt was "adopted" by the Bennington sailors who organized "Voyage for Verna" to supply her with whole blood for the rest of her life.

BOYD MEMORIAL HOSPITAL NOTES

CARROLLTON — David Pinkerton was admitted to Boyd Memorial hospital Thursday for surgery. Admitted Thursday as medical patients were Mrs. Lucille March, Carrollton and Mrs. Marie Harmer of Hamburg.

Mr. and Mrs. William Burton of Kamper were the parents of a daughter born Friday in the local hospital. Miss Joleen Hill of Greenfield was admitted Friday as a medical patient.

Dismissed Thursday were Frank Hansen of White Hall, Mrs. Judy Johnson and daughter of Alton and Phillip Farrelley of Carrollton.

Oakland in the new American Football League and San Francisco in the National Football League will use Kezar Stadium in San Francisco for home games.

PNG Potluck Held Wednesday At White Hall

WHITE HALL—The Past Noble Grand Club of Adams Rebekah Lodge No. 375 met at the I.O.O.F. Hall Wednesday night with a pot luck supper, in charge of Mrs. Nina DeShasier and Mrs. Ada Brannan.

Mrs. Nora Goodrich gave the Prayer of Grace and Dorothy M. Young, president, presided over the short business meeting which opened with the pledge of allegiance and the Lord's Prayer in unison.

The group voted to have their annual breakfast at the Lions Park July 20, at 6:30 a.m. Mrs. Bob Hubbard and Mrs. John Petrey are the committee to get the fire going for the breakfast to be cooked out of doors.

The August meeting will be a basket supper at the Lions Park at 6:30 on the 3rd, with families of members or guests invited. Bunco was played following the business meeting.

School Reunion

The First reunion of the Belltown school will be held Sunday, July 17, at the Lions Park. A basket dinner will be served at noon. All former pupils and teachers as well as friends of the school are invited to attend.

Gladys Nichols Long and Louise DeShasier are members of the committee in charge. They ask any person having school or group pictures to bring them to the reunion.

Chicago Visitors

Mrs. Charles Tatman and granddaughter, Sorena Kay Spangenberg, the latter of Jacksonville, spent several days in Chicago during the past week. They were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Vern Tatman and family.

While there they attended 8th grade graduation exercises for Mrs. Tatman's grandson, Charles Larry Tatman. Miss Bertha Marsh accompanied Mrs. Tatman to White Hall for an extended visit.

The First Baptist Missionary Society met on Tuesday at the church, with the opening prayer given by Mrs. Pearl Hull. The program, "That the Nations May Know Him," was presented by Mrs. Hoard Berline, program leader, assisted by her daughter, Miss Prudy Beth, and Mrs. Edith Owdom.

Mrs. H. Kremske was soloist. An interesting book review, "One, World, One Mission," was given by Mrs. Grover Sparks. Mrs. Thomas Glossop, President, presided at the business meeting. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Henry Day and Mrs. George Steelman.

The Lions Club met Wednesday night for their usual meeting, with supper served at the First Christian Church at 6:30 o'clock. President Ben Nunes, recently installed, presided at the meeting which adjourned after the meal so all attending could go to the Shelter House to complete the "clean up" job.

The work was completed in a short time.

Raymond Van Zetta, manager of the local American Vitrified Products Company, was a guest and was introduced by Lion J. W. Baldwin. Dave McClintock received the attendance prize for the evening.

Old Fashioned Picnic For Pilot Club Guests

A novel setting for the Jacksonville Pilot Club's guest night was an old fashioned picnic at Millwood Manor, the lovely home of Mr. and Mrs. C. Y. Rowe.

The club was honored with the presence of District No. 12 officers, Mrs. Mildred Kuhl, Gov., Bloomington; Mrs. Daisy Wickert, Lt. Gov., Peoria; Miss Kathleen Jarrett, Sec., Bloomington; Miss Lillian Hood, immediate past Gov., Springfield; and Mrs. Rhoda Samoore, Coordinating Chm. Pilot International, Jacksonville.

Other guests included sixteen members of the Springfield Pilot Club, Miss Dorothy Gaddis, Pilot Club of Phoenix, Arizona, and several guests from Jacksonville. Tables decked in red checkered tableclothes, tin plates and cups were decorated with old fashioned oil lamps and lanterns, horseshoes and breadsticks. The place cards were small wooden signs with the names burned on them. To add to the atmosphere there was a pine fire and a full moon.

In this perfect setting Indian Chief and his White Eagle Clan enchanted the guests with their dancing and Indian lure.

Gov. Mrs. Kuhl explained the structure of Pilot Internotional, its districts and local clubs. She also spoke of the meaning of Pilot- "Friendship and Service." Mrs. Nell Stout told of the local club's Trees for Jacksonville project, the number of trees planted through organized and the method of selection. Mrs. Rhoda Samoore discussed the various other projects of club. Mrs. Vesta Taylor completed the program with the Pilot Code of Ethics. Following which there was a general social hour.

The committee responsible for this delightful event was Mrs. Rhoda Samoore and Mrs. Marilyn Schlie. Miss Vera Seaten made the place cards and invitations.

★ GRAYSON'S SCOREBOARD ★

By HARRY GRAYSON

Sports Editor

Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

NEW YORK—(NEA)—Jersey Jones, one of the editors of Ring Magazine, not only knows all there is to know about boxing, he is a leading collector of anecdota on the way out characters who still abound in the fight game.

As such, Jersey is the worlds leading authority on the delightful subject of Mushky Jackson, a walking-around anthology of stories about the unwittingly funny little man who has been around Madison Square Garden in charge of the miscellaneous department since the days of Tex Rickard.

A prize in Jones' collection of Mushkiana concerns the time Joe Louis was training for the first Max Schmeling fight at Lakewood, N.J., in 1936. As a stunt, a newspaper arranged for a prominent psychiatrist to analyze both fighters. When the eminent medico arrived at Lakewood, he was greeted by Jackson, who had been told only that he was a doctor, with no details.

"What kindda doctor are you?" Mushky asked. "You cut people open?"

"Not exactly," was the reply. "I'm a psychiatrist."

Mushky looked blank.

"An alienist," amplified the doctor.

Mushky caught that one quickly.

"Oh, you won't find nuttin' here," he dismissed the medico. "Joe's a native-born American citizen."

* * *

From where Louis trained on the outskirts of Kenosha, Wis., in 1937 for James J. Braddock, there was a large factory about half a mile away. One day, just before Louis entered the training ring, the eagle-eyed Jackson spied a couple of people who were barely discernible on the factory roof.

"We gotta get them offa that roof," he told Jones, who was in charge of the camp. "Udderwise they'll see the workout for nuttin'."

"They can't see anything from that distance," Jersey pointed out.

"Mebbe not with the nekkid eye," Mushky admitted, "but mebbe they got barnacles."

Factories seemed to haunt Mushky at Kenosha. Since he was in charge of the sparring partners at the camp, he was quartered where they stayed in a rather run-down hotel directly across the street from a mill that was running 24 hours at top speed. The constant noise finally got Jackson. He came in shaky from lack of sleep.

"You gotta get me outta there," he said. "The noise has got me jittery like I had St. Vitamin's Dance."

* * *

Jones maintains that Jackson's masterpiece is unrepeatable.

"When Mike Jacobs wasn't around, I used to let Mushky make the ring announcements at workouts," Jersey explains. "Mike had no sense of humor, so I couldn't do it when he was there.

"We had a big heavyweight sparring partner namel Seal Harris, who had won an exhibition fight against another American in Czechoslovakia, where they had no regular boxing. As a gag, we started calling Seal the heavyweight champion of Czechoslovakia. Mushky, ever alert, picked up the title, and one day he introduced Harris with full honors.

"I don't know yet exactly what Mushky Jackson said," Jones admits, "but it was hilarious. He murdered Czechoslovakia better than Hitler."

Canadian Open Honors To Wall

TORONTO (AP) — Art Wall Jr., back in the form that carried him to the 1959 Masters title and top money winning honors, Saturday won the $27,000 Canadian Open Golf Championship with a 19-under-par 269 for 72 holes.

The 36-year-old Pocono Manor, Pa., pro wrapped up the title with a 3-under-par 69 after rain had held up play at the St. George's Club nearly two hours.

Wall, handicapped much of this year with a bad back, went into the final round with a three-stroke lead. He wound up six in front as Jay Hebert of Lafayette, La., and Bob Goalby of Crystal River, Fla., tied for second at 275.

Gene Littler of Singing Hills, Calif., and 48-year-old Sam Snead, both of whom were within four strokes of Wall at the start of the final 18 skidded to 77s and 281s.

The Detroit Tigers have two Cubans on their roster — shortstop Chico Fernandez and outfielder Sandy Amoros.

Oldest oarsman in this year's regatta on Onondaga Lake was Frank Haseman, 28. He's a University of Washington junior from Cleveland, Ohio.

Wins $114,700 Hollywood Derby

INGELWOOD, Calif. (AP)—Leaving the heavily-favored New Policy to finish a faded fourth, Tempestuous won the $114,700 Hollywood Derby Saturday after surviving a claim of foul.

As a crowd estimated at 45,000 waited restlessly, the stewards studied the race films. Then they ruled the combination of Jockey Pete Moreno and the Kentucky colt, Tempestuous, the winner.

Second in the field of nine 3-year-olds was T.V. Lark, and third was Blank Check.

Time for the mile and one-quarter was 2:01 2-5.

Tempestuous, owned by Joe Dragna and Sons and Dr. S. E. Santoro, netted his owners $68,700.

Jockey Bill Harmatz, on T.V. Lark, rose high in the saddle and pulled up his horse some 60 feet from the finish and was beaten by two lengths.

A steward's inquiry found nothing remiss.

"I had to quit riding in the stretch when that winner drifted out because it was getting near the heel-clipping stage," Harmatz said in explaining his movements at the finish.

LARGEST FIELD EVER

AKRON, Ohio (AP) — A field of 197—largest ever for a major golf tournament in the United States—will compete in the 42nd Professional Golfers' Assn. championship at the Firestone Country Club, July 21-24.

So bulky is the lineup-including 18 former champions, Masters and Open Champion Arnold Palmer and all the other big names of U.S. pro golf—that the first threesome will tee off on the opening round at a shuddering 6:30 a.m., EDT, on Thursday, July 21.

THE FULL PRODUCTION

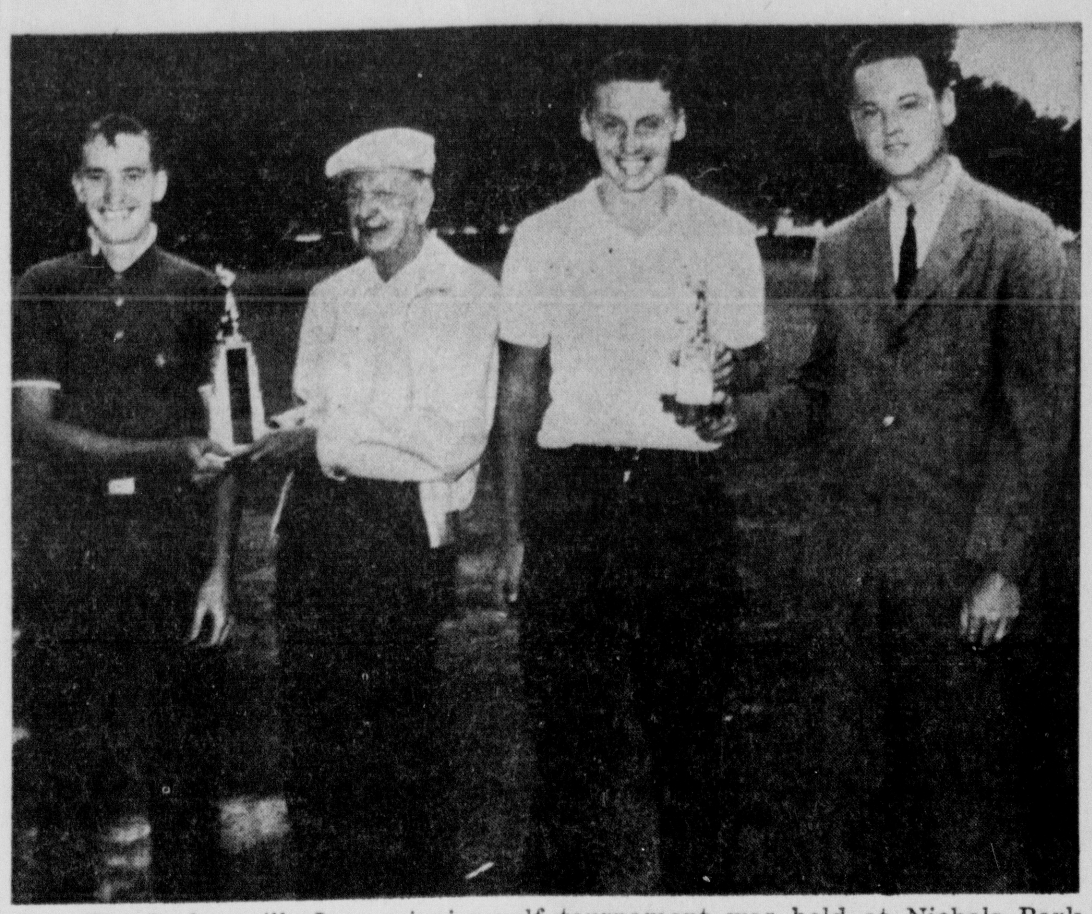
DALLAS (AP) — If players in the American Football League take punches at each other during a game, the fans will see all of the action, says Commissioner Joe Foss.

Foss revealed that the AFL office here had imposed no restrictions on the American Broadcasting Co. for telecasting games nationally this fall.

Pro telecasts in the past have not allowed TV cameras to linger on scuffles.

"Our thinking," explained Foss, "is that the living room fan is entitled to the full production."

Curtis Wins Jaycee Golf Tourney



The Jacksonville Jaycee junior golf tournament was held at Nichols Park this week and Howard Curtis was the winner of this event for the second straight year.

Curtis fired rounds of 36-32 for a 68 in the 18 hole tourney to beat out Joey Wells for top honors. Wells had a 74 on rounds of 36 and 38. Pepsi Cola bottlers awarded trophies to the champ and runner-up.

Curtis and Wells will represent Jacksonville in the state meet in Chicago on July 26, 27 and 28. If successful in the state tourney they would advance to the National competition at Waterloo, Iowa, and compete for college scholarships.

Navy Takes Olympic Rowing Trials Over Favored California

By MURRAY ROSE

Associated Press Sports Writer

SYRACUSE, N.Y. (AP)—Navy's varsity eight came on like a torpedo boat in the last 500 meters Saturday and won the Olympic rowing trials and a trip to Rome.

The husky Middies, in their first year under 39-year-old coach Lou Lindsey, collared Syracuse at the 1,500-meter mark and then streaked to a length triumph over California's favored Golden Bears. The Syracuse Alumni Rowing Assn. was third and the scrappy Navy plebes fourth and last.

It was a smashing climax to a brilliant day of rowing that decided Uncle Sam's seven entries in the games at Rome this summer.

Lindsey, a former California coxswain thus earned the position as head coach of the American Olympic Rowing team.

In the small boat competition, the Lake Washington Rowing Club of Seattle, manned by U. of Washington students and graduates, took four berths.

The Vesper Boat Club of Philadelphia captured the other two — the singles sculls with Navy Lt. Harry Parker, and the double sculls with veteran Jack Kelly Jr., and Bill Knecht. This will be the fourth Olympics for Kelly, 33-year-old brother of Princess Grace of Monaco.

Lake Washington won the pairs with and without coxswain and the fours with and without coxswain. The Seattle rowers hit for four out of five, losing only the single sculls.

Less than a length and a half separated all four eight-oared shells as they crossed the finish line in another thriller on slightly rippled Onondage Lake.

Navy, stroked by Lyman Perry, grabbed the lead at the 1,500-meter mark and majestically steamed ahead to victory. Navy admirals in the grandstand tossed their gold braided hats into the air and thumped coach Lindsey on the back.

California, which had dropped back to last 200 meters from home, picked up steam to take second place.

Navy's time was 6:46.0, followed by California 6:50.1, Syracuse Alumni 6:51.7, and the Navy plebes 6:51.8.

Jacksonville Boat Club To Conduct Water Ski School

Final plans were formulated Thursday evening at the regular Boat Club meeting to conduct another water ski school for interested parties again this season at the Jacksonville Boat Club. Last year the Jacksonville Boat Club conducted a three session school during the month of July and was unable to handle all applicants.

This year due to increased popularity of this new and thrilling water sport, arrangements are being made to double the size of the classes. More tow boats are being arranged for, and several additional instructors have been procured. It is estimated that 100 applicants will be able to complete the training during the three evening sessions planned during July.

The course will consist of three basic programs, namely water safety, a dry land demonstration and practice session, and the final phase of actually skiing solo, and along side of experienced instructors and skiers.

The Jacksonville Boat Club, as a public service, will supply all boats, skiis, tow ropes, etc. necessary to conduct the program. Classes will be held July 13, 20, and 27 with registration beginning at 6 p.m. All persons interested in taking the course should wear swimming suits when reporting at the boat club for training. There is no charge for the course, and the only requirements are being able to swim, and a minimum age of 14 years. All minors under 21 must be accompanied by parents. As the number of students able to participate is limited, classes will be filled on a first come first serve basis. There will be no advanced registration.

The Jacksonville Boat Club plans to offer several other water safety and boating programs during the summer.

Wally Moon, Dodger outfielder, played four years in the St. Louis Cardinal chain before he stuck in the big leagues.

Jim Gilliam, Los Angeles Dodger infielder, played two seasons with Montreal before making the grade in the National League.

Suggs Maintains Trumbull Pace

WARREN, Ohio (AP) — Louise Suggs, leading money winner on the feminine golf tour, fired her third straight sub-par round Saturday to lead the $16,000 Trumbull Women's Open Tournament by five strokes at the end of 54 holes with 213.

The 36-year-old Atlanta, Ga., sharpshooter fired a 70 Saturday following her 72 and 71 of the previous two days, over Trumbull Country Club's 6,246-yard par 73 course.

Veteran Patty Berg of Chicago was one under par with 72 for a 218 total, which tied her for second place with Joyce Ziske of Waterford, Wis., who carded a 75.

Redlegs Outlast Milwaukee In 10 Innings, 6-5

MILWAUKEE (AP)—Pinch hits by Willie Jones and Dutch Dotterer in the ninth and tenth innings gave the Cincinnati Reds an uphill 6-5 victory over the Milwaukee Braves Saturday.

Jones' double in the ninth drove in Harry Anderson with the tying run. In the tenth, with Warren Spahn on the mound for the Braves, Frank Robinson singled, Ed Bailey walked and Dotterer singled home the decisive marker for the Redlegs. The victory for reliever Bob Grim broke a five-game losing streak for Cincinnati.

The Braves hit starter Don Newcombe hard and held a 5-3 lead after seven innings.

Killebrew Bats Washington To 7-2 Decision

BALTIMORE (AP) — Harmon Killebrew powered two home runs Saturday as the Washington Senators defeated Baltimore 7-2. The loss was the Orioles' fourth straight and their sixth consecutive setback at home.

Killebrew's second homer of the day came with a man on base during an eighth-inning uprising that broke a 2-all deadlock.

Washington pounded two Baltimore hurlers for two doubles, a triple and a single in addition to Killebrew's four-bag blast in the eighth frame.

Loser Chuck Estrada yielded Killebrew's second homer and three of the other safe blows by the Senators in the big inning, in addition to adding to his troubles with a walk.

HYPNOSIS BRANDED DANGEROUS

CHICAGO (AP)— Hypnosis in athletics was branded potentially dangerous Saturday by the American Medical Assn.

Dr. Allan J. Ryan of Meridan, Conn., chairman of the Committee on the Medical Aspects of Sports, said many experts in the medical field believe if there are any advantages they are outweighed by the dangers involved.

The use of hypnosis in athletics may aggravate physical impairments of which the athlete is unaware," he said. "Another danger is that an athlete might exceed the limits of his physical ability and become exhausted to the point of harm.

"There is another objection to using hypnosis in an effort to improve performance — it is not good sportsmanship."

Fred Raney, 6-foot-6 Washington junior oarsman, is the son of Bud Raney, former Columbia crew coach.

The Merchants baseball team will leave for Taylorville at 11:30 a.m. Sunday. The double-header will start at 1:30 p.m.

McColl Calls It Quits After Eight Years

CHICAGO (AP) — Dr. Bill McColl Saturday announced his retirement from professional football after eight years with the Chicago Bears to complete training in orthopedic surgery at the University of Illinois Research Education Hospital.

McColl, one of Stanford's greatest ends, informed Bear owner-coach, George Halas, of his decision by letter.

Halas said McColl will rank with the greatest Bears' ends of all time.

"His medical career must come first and I am sure he always will derive as much satisfaction as I do from his eight seasons as a National Football League star," said Halas.

McColl is the seventh former Bear to go into medicine or dentistry.

Name All-Star Umpires, Scorers

NEW YORK (AP) — Umpires and official scorers for the major league All-Star baseball games next Monday and Wednesday were announced today by Commissioner Ford Frick.

Jim Honochick, Nestor Chylak and John Stevens will be the field officials representing the National League, and Dustry Boggess, Tom Gorman and Vinnie Smith will be the American League umpires.

Smith and Stevens will work the foul lines in both games. At Kansas City Monday Honochick will be behind the plate, Gorman at first base, Chylak at second and Boggess at third. Honochick and Boggess will switch at the end of 4½ innings.

At Yankee Stadium Wednesday Chylak will start behind the plate.

The scorers at Kansas City will be Edgar Munzel of the Chicago Sun Times, national president of the Baseball Writers Assn.; John Drebinger of the New York Times, and Ernest Mehl of the Kansas City Star. Munzel, Drebinger and Barney Kremenko, the latter of the New York Journal American, will score in New York.

BRAVES SIGN PITCHER

MILWAUKEE (AP) — The Milwaukee Braves Saturday announced the signing of John Nance, a 17-year-old right-handed pitcher, to a 1961 contract with Louisville in the American Assn. Nance, who is 6-2 and weighs 190, recently graduated from Cody High School in Detroit where he had a 10-1 record in his senior year.

ADDITIONAL DUTIES

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Head Coach Sid Gillman Saturday took on the added duties of general manager of the Los Angeles Chargers in the new American Football League.

He succeeds Frank Leahy who resigned last week because of ill health. The one-time Notre Dame coach is now in Loretto Hospital, Chicago, for treatment of a nervous disorder.

CALL MEET AIMED TO CUT DISCRIMINATION IN LABOR

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Labor Department Saturday called a conference for July 13-15 on ways to reduce discrimination against minority groups in employment.

Secretary James P. Mitchell said representatives of the Labor Department and state employment services would attend.

Mitchell said discussion will center on the department's administration of public service programs for such minority groups as the Negro, Puerto Rican, Mexican-American, American Indian and some religious groups.

Mitchell described bias against minority group jobseekers as "not only morally wrong," but also "a threat to the nation's economy."

Probable Pitchers And Batting Orders Will Be Known Sunday

By JOE REICHLER

Associated Press Sports Writer

KANSAS CITY (AP) — The major league All-Star game, a midseason fixture since 1933, makes its first visit to this American League city Monday with a capacity crowd of 30,611 assured at Municipal Stadium.

This is the second year the classic has been scheduled as a two-game series. The second game will be played at Yankee Stadium in New York Wednesday. The All-Stars split last season. The National League won the first game, at Pittsburgh, and the American, which leads in the series 16-11, took the second at Los Angeles.

Probable pitchers and batting orders won't be announced until noon Sunday, and even that may be a little early for the opposing managers — Walt Alston of the world champion Los Angeles Dodgers, and Al Lopez, of the American League champion Chicago White Sox—to pick their pitchers.

Left-hander Bud Daley of Kansas City, the majors' leading winner, figured to be Lopez' choice for a starter. But Daley will be shooting for his 13th victory Sunday for the A's and thus likely will start Wednesday's game.

Camilo Pascual of Washington, thought to be the No. 2 choice for the AL, withdrew Friday because of arm trouble.

The NL starter probably will be Larry Jackson, St. Louis right-hander.

There are three left-handed hitters in the AL starting line-up plus switch hitting Mickey Mantle. They are catcher Yogi Berra, right fielder Roger Maris, and second baseman Peter Runnels. The right-handers are Bill Skowron at first, Ronnie Hansen at short, Frank Malzone at third and Minnie Minoso in left.

The Kansas City game, scheduled to start at 2 p.m. (EST) will be seen and heard nationally on NBC-TV and radio. The Wednesday game at New York starts at noon, EST, with again NBC-TV-radio coverage.

Friday Baseball

By ED WILKS

Associated Press Sports Writer

It appears the San Francisco Giants, who can't play cards for high stakes and can't stay up late, now can't win ball games either.

They've won only six of 19 since mid-June, when Tom Sheehan replaced Bill Rigney as manager. And they've lost four in a row since Sheehan, who chewed 'em out about the card games and late hours, was named skipper for the rest of the season by owner Horace Stoneham.

The Giants were second, four games out of first, when Sheehan took over. But they're tied with St. Louis for fourth place, 8½ games behind, after Friday night's 7-1 thumping by the Cardinals.

First place Pittsburgh split a twi-night doubleheader at Philadelphia, winning 8-3 after a 6-5, 10 inning loss. That shaved the Pirates' lead to five games over the Milwaukee Braves, who beat Cincinnati 6-3. Los Angeles moved into third place with a 5-3 victory over the Chicago Cubs, the Dodgers' fifth straight and 10th in 12 games.

The Giants, scoring just five runs in their last five games, managed only four singles off rookie Ray Sadecki (3-4), a 19-year-old left-hander.

The Cardinals broke up Jack Sanford's shutout string at 21 innings with three runs in the third on singles by Sadecki and Joe Cunningham and Stan Musial's two-run homer. It was Sanford's sixth loss in 14 decisions.

The Phillies beat Pittsburgh for the third straight time in the opener, ending the Pirates' winning string at four as Ruben Amaro doubled and slid home under Roberto Clemente's peg on a single by winning reliever Dick Farrell. The decision at the plate, giving the Phils their seventh consecutive extra-inning victory, touched off a storm of Buc protests. Fred Green (4-3) was the loser in relief, while Farrell, now 7-2, blanked the Pirates on one hit for 3 1-3 innings.

Bill Virdon, who homered along with Don Hoak in the opener, rapped two doubles and a triple in the second game. A walk, and one-out singles by Hoak and Bill Mazeroski broke a 3-3 tie in a four-run fifth against Dallas Green (1-3). Bob Friend, winning his 10th on the fourth try over two weeks, checked the Phils on seven hits, walking just one and striking out six.

Hank Aaron and Wes Covington each drove in two runs for the Braves, with Aaron's 24th home run wrapping it up in the third inning off Jay Hook (7-8). It was the fifth straight loss for the Reds, who had only two hits, one Wally Post's home run, before chasing winner Juan Pizarro (5-2) in the ninth.

The Dodgers twice came from behind, then broke a 3-3 tie in the sixth on a walk and Duke Snider's two-out triple off Bob Anderson (2-6). Wally Moon tagged reliever Don Elston for a homer in the eighth. Ed Roebuck (7-1) won his sixth in a row with 6 2-3 innings of four-hit, shutout relief. He now has allowed just one run in the last 25 innings, reducing his earned run average to 2.03. Roger Craig was the Dodger starter.

AMERICAN LEAGUE

It wasn't so long ago that the New York Yankees were wondering when Whitey Ford would get back to form and round out their pitching staff. Now the stubby southpaw is the only starter who has won in the past five games.

Jim Coates, Ralph Terry and Bob Turley all missed decisions in that span, and Friday night Art Ditmar was tagged with the loss as the Yankees were beaten 8-0 at Boston by the seven-hit pitching of Bill Monbouquette.

Despite the loss, New York retained a three-game lead over Cleveland in the American League. The Indians dropped their third in a row to the Chicago White Sox, 4-1. Washington rapped third place Baltimore 9-5 and gained a fifth place tie with the Detroit Tigers, who lost 5-4 at Kansas City in 13 innings.

Ditmar (7-5) dropped his second in a row when Boston scored twice in the fourth on two-out singles by Don Buddin and Haywood Sullivan. The last place Red Sox then scored six in the seventh off reliever Eli Grba on four walks and just two hits—a three-run homer by Willie Tasby, and a three-run pop fly double by Frank Malzone.

Bill Monbouquette (8-7) walked three and struck out eight, saving his second shutout by fanning pinch-hitter Gil McDougald and getting Tony Kubek on a fly with the bases loaded in the seventh.

Washington scored four unearned runs while handing the Orioles their fifth straight defeat at home. Julio Becquer's two-run double brought the Senators from behind in the fifth against Jack Fisher (5-7). Dan Dobbek homered for the Nats, who also scored on a balk by reliever Gordon Jones. Pete Ramos (5-9) was the winner, giving up nine hits in his first complete game in eight tries since Memorial Day.

The White Sox, now 7-4 against the Indians, beat Gary Bell (7-7) with two runs in the first inning. Sherm Lollar's sacrifice fly brought in the clincher after Luis Aparicio doubled and scored as Ken Aspromonte threw wild on a bunt single by Nellie Fox. Frank Baumann (5-4) won his first as a starter since June 5 with a six-hitter.

A two-run single by Bill Tuttle did it for the A's after Charlie Maxwell's 13th homer gave Detroit a 4-3 lead in the top of the 13th. The Tigers, who have lost 9 of 12 to Kansas City, had tied it 3-all on Al Kaline's two-run homer in the seventh. Johnny Kucks (2-3) was the winner and Dave Sisler (5-3) the loser, both in relief.

Boston Finally Gets To Yanks', Coates For Win

BOSTON (AP)—Boston slugger Vic Wertz pierced the invincibility of New York ace Jim Coates Saturday by driving in four runs with a homer, double and single as the Red Sox defeated the American League leaders 6-5.

The defeat was the first in 14 decisions for Coates extending over a two-year period and only the second in 17 major league verdicts.

However, it took a dramatic finish by Red Sox rookie southpaw Tom Borland to stem a New York uprising with two out in the ninth inning. Pinch hitter Yogi Berra homered and Gil McDougald and Hector Lopez singled in order. Then Borland was summoned to replace Mike Fornieles and made Mickey Mantle pop up.

Wertz's first homer, a second-inning solo shot, began a Boston comeback from a 3-0 deficit. His two-run double in the third put the home forces ahead to stay, 4-3.

Castro Calls For Demonstrations Against U.S.

HAVANA (AP) — Bolstered by Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev's warning that Soviet rockets could strike the United States if Cuba were attacked, Prime Minister Fidel Castro summoned his followers Saturday to new and greater demonstrations against American "aggression."

Khrushchev's declaration that the Soviet Union, with its rocket arsenal, is pledged to all-out support of Cuba in its "David and Goliath" struggle with Washington, coincided with Castro's efforts to assemble a million and a half supporters here Sunday in a mass demonstration of support for his leftist regime.

Many here saw in the Soviet Premier's promise of support for Castro disclosure of a mutual defense pact between Cuba and the Kremlin secretly negotiated—perhaps by Armed Forces Minister Raul Castro, now in Prague—to further embarrass the United States.

Castro supporters were quick to pick up Khrushchev's bold challenge to Washington and link it with statements of Mexican politicians in support of the Cuban government's contention that "our revolution does not stand alone."

First reaction in neutral quarters was that Soviet solid backing would strengthen materially the Prime Minister's hand. Many also said Khrushchev's support could crush growing opposition to Castro in Cuba and perhaps win him new followers among other Latin nations who thus far have remained out of the Washington-Havana conflict.

But some Latin diplomats called Khrushchev's threat of military support a "dangerous two-edged sword."

"His open intervention in Cuban affairs and his declaration that Castro's Cuba is now within the Communist orbit of interest is certain to provoke sharp reaction among Cuban Catholics," said one diplomat. "And I think it is certain to raise strong displeasure of other Catholic nations in Latin America."

American diplomats declined comment on the developments.

In a television appearance Friday night, Castro appeared calmly confident that Cuba would survive and win its economic battle with the United States. He said that the United States must promise before the world not to attack Cuba "before there can be good relations between us."

Five Killed In Train Derailment

TUCUMCARI, N.M. (AP)—Five persons were killed and two injured early today when a Rock Island freight train plunged off a rain-weakened trestle and burned 17 miles east of Tucumcari.

A spokesman for the Rock Island in Tucumcari said the five persons were transients.

He said there was no immediate identification of the bodies.

The spokesman said the westbound freight from Amarillo, Tex., was crossing a trestle when the wooden structure gave way into the rain-softened arroyo (dry wash) underneath it.

The engine made it across the wash before derailing but 17 cars following the single diesel unit piled into the arroyo. The cars burst into flame following the derailment.

Injured were the engineer and fireman, Bob Howes and B. J. Deavers, both of Amarillo. Tucumcari General Hospital said their condition was not serious.

THOUSANDS OF FROGS BESIEGE HILLSDALE

HILLSDALE, Ill. (AP)—You can pick them off one or two at a time with a flyswatter. Or you can slaughter them en masse with your car. But you can't kill them all.

Literally thousands of tiny frogs have besieged this little community near Rock Island, Ill. They gather in hordes in cool, damp places. When aroused, they evacuate in leaping waves.

The frogs' eggs were apparently washed from their natural nests along the Rock River when the river flooded its banks last spring.

Now they've hatched.

One resident drove into his garage one night and about 50 frogs swarmed out.

One little boy collects them in jars. He wants to sell them for their legs; he promises prospective buyers they'll grow older.

Women of this town of 426 persons walk the streets gingerly, occasionally running, with shrieks, for cover.

But the frogs are really doing no harm. As a matter of fact, they're using mosquito eggs for their meals, and normally mosquito-pestered Hillsdale residents are marveling at the lack of the little insects this summer.

CHICAGO (AP)—The Chicago White Sox scored all their runs in the first two innings Saturday to sweep their fourth straight victory from the Cleveland Indians 8-4 and replace Baltimore in third place.

The American League champions came within ½ game of second-place Cleveland 3½ games of pace-setting New York. Baltimore lost to Washington and the Yankees were defeated by Boston.

After the Indians rapped Herb Score for two runs in the first inning, the Sox teed off on Ted Bowsfield and Johnny Briggs for five runs on five hits, including a two-run double by Roy Sievers and a triple by Gene Freese.

The Sox scored three more runs in the second off Barry Latman, with Al Smith driving across two with a bases-filled double.

Back Yard Safari Nets 2 Elephants

PLEASANT HILLS, Calif. (AP) — Barbara Harvey heard stomping and other strange noises in her back yard at 2 a.m. Saturday.

Fearful, she lay quietly in bed, waiting for her husband to return home.

James Harvey arrived from his night job at 4:15.

He listened to his excited wife. Then he got a flashlight and his rifle and went outside.

He returned quickly and reported: "I walked around a corner and there were a couple of elephants staring me in the face!"

Mrs. Harvey, wife-like, thought her husband was jesting.

Harvey, however, telephoned the sheriff's office and three skeptical deputies came to look.

There were two elephants—a huge one and a smaller pachyderm—in the Harvey back yard.

And the pair—Barney, 10 years old, and his large friend, Susie, 35—were having a gay time.

They had escaped from a small circus at a nearby supermarket.

They ate flowers, bumped against the house and shook it, knocked down 70 feet of board fence, pushed over a Chinese elm tree, uprooted a small peach tree and demolished a watermelon patch.

Their huge footprints were all over the lawn.

The Harveys hustled their four children to a neighbor's home for safety. Christine, 12, Kathie, 10, and James, 4, were wide-eyed with excitement. The baby, Cindy, 8 months, seemed puzzled.

The elephants' keeper, Kenneth Iskirt, finally arrived and herded his charges back to the circus lot.

SMOKING STATISTICS

WASHINGTON (AP) — Statistically Illinoisans aged 15 and over each smoked 184 packages of cigarettes in 1959.

If you don't smoke, your statistical neighbor smoked twice that many.

Whatever the individual total, state consumption ran only slightly behind the national average of 186 packages in 1959.

A Department of Agriculture tobacco report containing these figures admits they are not precisely accurate, but it's as close as you can come.

The errors, which probably even out in the long run, stem from the wide-spread practice of buying cigarettes in an adjoining state which happens to tax them a little more lightly.

Other purchasers who buy cigarettes in a state but don't live there, like vacationers and other transients, also help to throw the figures a bit out of kilter.

Nevadans smoked more per capita in 1959 than anyone, puffing at a rate of 296 packs a year. Neighboring Utah had the lowest annual rate of 107 packs. The second and third smokingest states were New Hampshire, 284, and Wyoming, 239.

LADY BIRD SAYS JOHNSON'S GOOD GUY IN TOUGH FIGHT

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Lady Bird Johnson gave a wife's eye appraisal of presidential hopeful Lyndon Johnson Saturday—"A good guy in a tough fight."

"The rougher it gets, the calmer and more resourceful he gets," said Lady Bird Johnson, a dark-haired attractive woman of 47, who could get to be first lady.

In a soft Texas drawl, Mrs. Johnson said of her husband:

"I think he ought to be nominated."

Then, she quickly added, "I don't know if he will."

"I don't feel any roaring confidence," she explained. "I just feel a real determination that 3,000 delegates get to know him, weigh him, and assess him and judge him by what he's done."

These were some of the answers—in unhesitating, smooth-flowing words—that Mrs. Johnson gave at her first convention news conference.

Will she be glad when this convention week is over? "Yes m'am," said Lady Bird emphatically, "but I wouldn't miss a moment of it."

During the first third of the National League season Willie Mays of San Francisco had the longest hitting streak—16 straight games.

Stevenson Arrives On Scene Acting Like Candidate

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Adlai Stevenson came to Los Angeles Saturday, acting every inch a candidate despite disavowal of any campaign for the Democratic nomination for president.

A crowd of 3,000 or more rooters cheered as Stevenson blasted the Republican Administration for what he called its "complacancy of the past 8 years."

The crowd shouted down his statements indicating he thinks the Democratic party has other candidates as good as himself for the nomination.

"We want Stevenson" the audience chanted for several minutes, as Stevenson stood smiling on a stand at the airport.

"I am not here to promote my candidacy," he said. "I am here as a delgeate for no personal purpose, but to share in the common and crucial task of the convention."

A forest of placards and banners waved before him from a crowd which had waited much of the afternoon after Stevenson's plane was delayed by a refueling stop at Las Vegas, Nev.

"It is remarkable," he said, "that in the most revolutionary period in history the only thing that has stood stock still is the Republican Administration."

He said some are saying it is time for a change, adding:

"If it is, then they have their man—Revolving Richard."

Stevenson's reference was to Republican Vice President Richard M. Nixon, the virtually certain Republican nominee for president. He added that people often don't know whether Nixon is going or coming — "but we know: He's going."

Stevenson, declaring "This is the proudest afternoon of my life," appeared touched by the enthusiasm. He said he was moved that "after all the grief and disappointments I have brought you in the past, you'd still be back."

"No! No!" the crowd shouted.

"If you keep this up I'm liable to make a speech," he said.

Detroit Collects First Triumph At Kansas City

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Detroit's Tigers won their first game of the year at Municipal Stadium, Saturday night, beating the Kansas City Athletics 6-1 with the help of a triple by Norm Cash and Rocky Colavito's 15th home run in the first inning.

The Tigers, who had won only three of their first 12 games against the impotent A's, knocked out Dick Hall, the Kansas City starting hurler with their four-run blast in the initial inning. Hall started by walking both Eddie Yost and Frank Bolling before Cash unloaded his three bagger. Al Kaline brought Cash in with a sacrifice fly before Colavito poked his homer over the left field wall.

Lefthander Pete Burnside held the A's in check with a five hit performance and had a shutout until the eighth inning. Then Jerry Lumpe tripled and scored on an infield out.

The Tigers scored two more runs in the fifth inning off Bob Trowbridge, who had suceeded Hall.

Redlegs Host Invitational Tourney Next Weekend

The Jacksonville State Hospital will host an eight-team Invitational Tournament next weekend with two games Saturday night and six tilts on tap for Sunday.

Saturday night, July 16, the Murrayville Merchants will open the playoff against the Springfield Merchants at 7:15 p.m. Bobby Garner will probably get the starting assignment against Springfield's Ducky Reed.

The Redlegs tangle in the nightcap with the Shamrock Inn of Springfield. Either Vinyard or McNeely will pitch for the host team, Henry Swingler is Springfield's likely hurling choice.

Sunday morning at 10:30 a.m., the Alton Jackson Falstaff nine meets Merkels of Quincy and at 12:00 the Alton Chiefs face Oberg Shell of Quincy.

Semifinal action starts at 2:00 p.m. that afternoon with the other semifinal affair slated for 4:00 p.m.

The consolation contest starts at 7:30 with the championship to follow.

This is probably the finest invitational field of softball nines to be seen in this area in a number of years. The public is cordially invited to attend the two-day tournament free of charge.

Many of these teams will be represented in the state finals this summer. Last year the Springfield Merchants playing under the Loami A. C. banner played for the state championship and Murrayville advanced as far as the semifinals.

Saturday night, Jack McNeely tossed no-hit ball for six innings but yielded his only hit on a pop-fly single behind second base to the leadoff man in the seventh as the Redlegs blanked Granite City Steel, 6-0.

Issue Hold Order For Man Charged With Assault

DELAWARE, Ohio (AP) — Troubles keep piling up for Harry Jordan, a Danville, Illinois magazine salesman whose companion was killed by two shotgun blasts fired by a prospective customer Thursday.

The latest development in the case is a holding order against Jordan—who already has been charged with assault with intent to rob — by the Eaton County Sheriff's office at Charlotte, Mich., where the 23-year-old salesman is accused of forging a $400 check in the name of an aged customer.

Thursday night Jordan, and his companion, James Horn, 21, of Detroit, Mich., attempted to sell magazines to Joseph J. Schmelzer of Licking County.

Jordan said Schmelzer, a 66-year-old farmer who lived alone, apparently became angered while they were soliciting magazines and shot Horn.

Jordan fled to a neighboring home and summoned sheriff's deputies. When they returned, they found Horn dead in the yard and Schmelzer lying dead on the floor of his home.

Earlier in the day of the shooting, Lester Hoy, 77, of Galena had complained that two magazine salesmen attempted to rob him when they bluffed their way into his home Wednesday night.

Hoy was taken to Newark where he identified Jordan as the man who held him while the other ransacked his home and found nothing.

After viewing Horn's corpse, Hoy said Horn was the other man.

Jordan was then taken to Delaware County jail and charged with assault with intent to rob. A hearing was set in Municipal Court for next week and Jordan's bond was set at $2,500.

Officials have not yet determined the cause of Schmelzer's death.

Of six other bishops, four were reassigned to their present jurisdictions, two were newly assigned. The new assignments:

Edwin E. Goight, formerly at Dakotas, to newly-created Downstate Illinois District with headquarters at Springfield: Charles W. Brashares, formerly Illinois bishop, now Chicago and Upstate Illinois bishop.

RIOTS HURT TOURIST BUSINESS

HONG KONG (AP) — Informed sources say the recent riots in Tokyo hurt Hong Kong's tourist business. Many Americans, the biggest tourist spenders in Hong Kong, have canceled planned trips to the Far East because of the turmoil in Japan. U.S. tourists spent about $63,666,550 here last year.

Claim Illinois Delegates Will Back Kennedy

LOS ANGELES, Calif. (AP) — Sen. John F. Kennedy's strength in the Illinois Democratic delegation appeared to be growing Saturday night.

A party leader, who declined use of his name, said he believes Kennedy will get at least 55 votes when the delegation holds its preconvention caucus Sunday afternoon in the Hayward Hotel.

He said Sen. Stuart Symington's support among the Illinoisans was on the wane and that the Missouri senator probably would get "no more than a dozen votes."

Symington backers had been claiming from 13 to 8 votes from the 69-vote Illinois delegation.

One delegate, who previously was counted in Adlai Stevenson's corner, was known to have switched to Kennedy after arriving in Los Angeles.

Stevenson's caucus strength in the delegation has been estimated at two votes.

The Illinois delegates continued to straggle in to the convention city throughout the day. Many of those on the scene blossomed out in bright Kennedy-for-President hats. For some of them, it was the first public sign of their leanings.

Officials at delegation headquarters said they had no word from Stevenson whether he will take his seat with the other delegates in the convention's business sessions. Stevenson is a delegate-at-large with a half vote.

Regarding the boos of fans, Mickey Mantle says "nothing bothers me when I'm going good." Casey Stengel says he got the platoon idea from John McGraw.

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Ernie Banks' towering 12th inning home run and Don Elston's brilliant relief pitching carried the Chicago Cubs to a 7-6 victory over San Francisco Saturday. It was the fifth consecutive loss for the Giants.

Banks' 26th homer came off Johnny Antonelli who had taken the mound in the seventh. Elston, in winning his fifth game, gave up two hits in the five innings he worked. The loss dropped the Giants into fifth place.

Willie Mays doubled in the 12th but Orlando Cepeda was called out on strikes to end the 3-hour, 45-minute game.

The Cubs collected 16 hits off three Giant pitchers. The Giants got 10 hits.

Little League Rewards Father For Aching Years

By PAT PARRISH

Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

It is a disconcerted, demoralized and generally pain-racked father who asks out loud why in the world he offered to "catch" the household Little Leaguer.

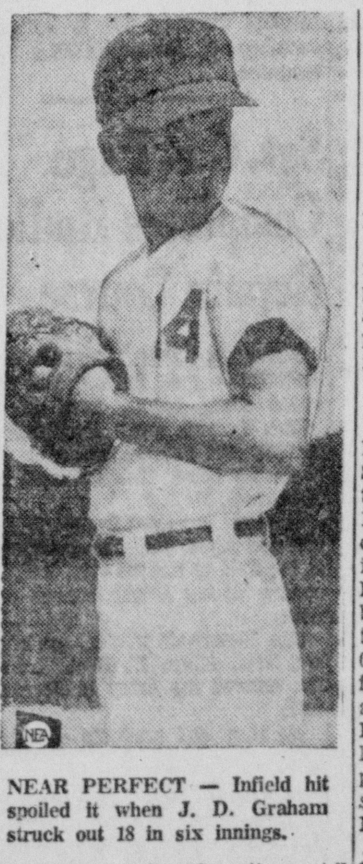
Playing Yogi Berra when you're Bill Dickey's age is apt to get more results from your Blue Cross plan than from the 12-year-old (or under) mound aspirant you tried to keep up with the day before.

Yet there is intrepid confidence in the father who refuses to admit defeat or his age and cheerfully pulls a leg muscle crouching to teach the Little Leaguer the game's finer points. The rewards are far more plentiful — as any Dad will admit — than guffaws, even though the corner druggist's liniment sales benefit.

Ask Robert A. Cook of Bloomington, Ind., if it's worth it.

"The 12-year-old at our house," says proud papa Cook, "has just pitched a no-hit, no-run game. I've been rewarded for four long years of painful crouching.

"Thus it is with unusual interest that I study a report, however unofficial, that the 16 major league baseball clubs during the 1960 season will pay salaries of more than $10 million. From this day forward, I'm just a rockin' chair father with visions of sugar plums and early retirement."



NEAR PERFECT — Infield hit spoiled it when J. D. Graham struck out 18 in six innings.

• • •

You might ask Don Graham of Mount Vernon, Ohio.

Son, Jimmie, or J.D. as he is called, turned in a stunning 18-strikeout performance and a pitcher can't get more than that in a six-inning game. The first batter beat out an infield hit to spoil a perfect game.

In his fifth year as a Little Leaguer, J.D. owns an 8-0 record in the last two seasons and has performed behind and in front of the plate. Last year, J.D. blasted a grand slam homer to win the LLB championship for his Youth Council (American League) team.

• • •

SHOP TALK—Billy Harris, son of Mount Vernon News Sports Editor Spiv Harris, got the only hit against the phenominal J.D. Graham in his 18-strikeout performance . . . Some of the LL trained players who made it in professional ranks this year: Ray Kulp, 17, Austin, Tex., $100,000 bonus from Philadelphia; Carl Wastrzewski, Bridgehampton, N.Y., $100,000 from Boston; Johnny Papa, Stamford, Conn., $55,000 from Baltimore; and Dave Parham, West Palm Beach, Fla., $44,000 from Los Angeles . . . The Eastern Regional Championships will be played for the third straight year at Hy Turkin Memorial Field, Staten Island, N.Y., Aug. 18-20 . . . competing teams are the New York, Pennsylvania, Connecticut, New Jersey and New England champions

Palmer Finishes 2nd

Nagle Of Australia Wins British Open

By WILL GRIMSLEY

Associated Press Sports Writer

ST. ANDREWS, Scotland (AP)—Ken Nagle, a brawny onetime wood cutter from Australia smashed Arnold Palmer's grand slam hopes Saturday by winning the Centenary British Open Golf Championship with a record-tieing 278. A stirring comeback by the American champion fell one stroke short.

Seven strokes back at the halfway point and four behind going into the postponed final round, Palmer made a fighting charge at it—just as he did to win both the U.S. Masters and Open titles this year.

The 30-year-old American champion from Latrobe, Pa., started with two birdies and finished with two in electrifying spurts which gave him a final round 68—five under par for St. Andrews' formidable Old Course for a 72-hole total of 279.

But Nagle, a balding, imperturbable pro of 39, was not to be shaken off. Playing just behind Palmer, he sank a difficult 10-foot putt for a birdie at the 17th and sent his second shot flying two feet from the cup at the 18th for a seemingly easy birdie. In the excitement of the occasion, he missed the short putt and finished with a 71 for 278.

The final round developed into a two-man battle between Palmer and Nagle as other contenders, one by one, fell from the chase.

Roberto de Vicenzo of Mexico City, who led through the first two rounds, took a 73 for 282. He tied for third with Harold Henning of South Africa, who shot a closing 69.

Tension was crammed into the final holes.

At the par five 17th, the notorious "road hole" which he had three-putted three days running, Palmer went boldly for the pin only to see his ball roll over the back edge onto the grass at the edge of the road.

He had a difficult chip coming back. After considerable deliberation, he took his putter and sent the ball scurrying through tall grass, over a three-foot embankment to within four feet of the cup.

He sank his putt for a birdie 4—his first of the tournament at that hole. Then at the 18th, with thousands ringing the fairway and green, he boomed a drive 300 yards up the hill, hit a wedge three feet from the pin and sank for a birdie 3.

Nagle was playing the 17th when he heard a roar go up after Palmer's closing birdie putt. At the time he was lying 10 feet from the cup—with a difficult putt for a birdie 4.

"I knew I had to get that putt or a birdie at the last," he said afterward. "The hole had been kind to me all week."

He sank the putt for his birdie. On the 18th, his drive was just over the road crossing the fairway.

Nagle hit a beautiful shot that landed just two feet from the cup. Obviously nervous, he jabbed at his short putt and missed, then judged the winning one home from nine inches.

Nagle won $3,500 in capturing the championship while Palmer was paid $2,520 for second place.

Conley Stops Leading Pirates For 2-1 Victory

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Pancho Herrera's ninth-inning single drove in Tony Taylor, who had tripled, to give the Philadelphia Phillies a 2-1 victory Saturday night over the first-place Pittsburgh Pirates.

Gene Conley pitched a four-hitter for his sixth victory against four defeats. He battled Vernon Law who lost his fourth game against 11 victories.

Conley scored the first run. He doubled in the sixth inning and scored when third baseman Don Hoak muffed Lee Walls' grounder.

The Pirates tied it up in the bottom of the seventh on Rocky Nelson's single and Smokey Burgess' double.

Coast Guard To Give Exams Next Sunday

The United States Coast Guard Auxiliary will be in Havana next Sunday to promote safe boating on the Illinois River.

Flotilla 6 of the Coast Guard Auxiliary from Peoria, Ill., is planning on giving safe boating courtesy examinations Sunday, July 17th from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. at the Tall Timbers Marina and the State Conservation Small Boat Landing at Havana.

There is no charge for this examination and all boats that pass the Coast Guard minimum standards will be awarded a decal to display.

Boats not passing the examination will be shown what is needed to make their boat pass Coast Guard standards.

There are no penalties for not passing the examinations and no report of any deficiency is recorded with any governmental agency.

It is the aim of the Coast Guard Auxiliary to help the boater become conscious of what is needed to make boating safe for everyone.

Hint Powers' Family Fears All Is Not Well

MILLEDGEVILLE, Ga. (AP) — A source close to the wife of U2 spy plane pilot Francis G. Powers hinted Saturday that there is fear all is not well with him.

The source, who declined to be identified, said a second letter from Powers to his wife, Barbara M. Powers, "did not ring true."

"It was too much like the first one," the source said. "It did not indicate what it should have indicated, if you know what I mean."

The source, a personal friend of the family, said he did not read the second letter but that he was told by Mrs. Powers that it was "a repetitious situation."

Mrs. Powers, an attractive brunette, said in Richmond, Va., last Monday that the second letter was dated June 28.

Mrs. Powers, who has been living in Milledgeville with her mother since her husband was forced down in the Soviet Union, was reported en route to her sister's home in Albany, Ga., and was not available immediately for comment.

Rafer Continues His Assault On Decathlon Mark

By MATT KRAMER

EUGENE, Ore. (AP)—Rafer Johnson uncorked a 233-foot, 3-inch javelin throw Saturday and cracked the recognized world decathlon record of 8,357 points set by Russia's Vasily Kuznetsov last year.

It was a sensational comeback for Johnson, who was sidelined by automobile accident injuries last year.

When he made his long throw, it boosted his total in the National AAU decathlon meet here to 8,483 points—and this with one event still to go. That was the 1,500 meter run.

The 200-pound, 6-foot-3, Johnson, who held the world record before Kuznetsov took it away last year, made his big throw on his first attempt in the javelin event. At that point, he had bettered the Russian's performance in seven of the nine events then completed.

RULE WOMAN CAN MARRY DEAD FIANCE

FREJUS, France (AP) — A court ruled last week that Irene Jodard can marry her dead fiance, Andre Capra, a concession made previously only to fiancees of soldiers killed in combat. President Charles de Gaulle himself had granted Irene permission to marry. But Capra's grandmother first approved, then disapproved, and the court order overruled family opposition to the wedding. Capra was killed in the Malpasset Dam disaster last November. Irene expects a child by him, she testified.

WANTS TO CUT RED TAPE

PARIS (AP) — Police Chief Maurice Papon told the City Council it takes 44 administrative operations and 12 office workers to collect a single parking fine. He proposed to cut red tape and paper work by having the cop on the beat collect for overparking. A decision is awaited.

Russian Real Estate Observed First Hand By Dr. A. B. Applebee

Editor's Note—Dr. A. B. Applebee, president of Jacksonville Savings and Loan Association and an active member of the Jacksonville Real Estate Board, is presently touring Europe with a delegation sponsored by the National Real Estate Boards. The group is primarily interested in real estate policies and problems of the various European countries and the different methods used to solve housing difficulties.

The following is a portion of a letter written by Dr. Applebee on his visit to Russia. His tour will include most of the European countries.

Perhaps you might be interested in what we found on our housing tour in Moscow. The Soviet authorities would hate me for saying this but it is only fair that visitors to Russia should see housing other than the show places on Intourist's escorted tours. Poor housing is partly the result of heavy war damage. The communists inherited an enormous housing shortage from the pre-revolutionary regime. This has been increased by the fact that the communists have given priority to heavy industry rather tha no consumer needs.

Privacy Sacrificed

In order to provide housing quickly, certain things such as privacy is sacrificed. Many of the newer apartment houses are built in units of three rooms—one room to an entire family, with common bathroom, toilet and kitchen for the three families. Even this is a marked improvement, because it still is common in metropolitan areas for a half dozen families to share bath and kitchen facilities.

Since speed is the major consideration in providing housing, quality suffers such as fitting locks on doors, no plugs for wash basins or sinks, rough concrete finish and no finish on floors. With all these defects the flats are so m uch better than the old frame tenements, there is no comparison.

We noticed a screen jutting out above the first floor of some recently constructed apartment houses. The purpose of this netting is to catch the bricks from the newly constructed walls that might fall on the heads of passersby.

Poor Construction Noted

Even official Soviet newspapers have taken notice of poor Soviet construction and have criticised architects and construction workers for shortcomings of apartment buildings that line the road on the way from the airport. These are the same buildings that are pointed out to arriving visitors as examples of Moscow's fast, modern construction program.

The "Evening Moscow" paper was headlined "Fast Construction Should Not Be Sloppy." The desire on the part of the government to make a big showing and tell how many units have been constructed in a short time has resulted in defective plumbing with water seepage through bathroom flooring, doors and window frames out of plumb and warping floors.

5-Story Buildings

Most of these new flats are five floors with walk-up stairs and no provision for maintainance or janitor service. Since all housing is owned by the state and no taxes or assessments are levied, the rentals are very low. A one room apartment with small kitchen and bath rents for $4.00 a month. A larger two room flat with some facilities will cost $6 to $7 per month. On some of the old frame tenement houses that have no running water we counted 18 television aerials on the roof. These flats rent for as little as $2.00 a month.

Camera Sensation

Our Polaroid camera has created a great sensation among adults and we are almost mobbed by the children when we take their pictures as they have never seen anything like it before.

Jacksonville is going to be one of the best advertised towns behind the Iron Curtain as we have given away hundreds of our rubber dollars with the words "Save and Be Free" and "Save it's the American way to success." Everyone wants to know what it means and that give us a chance to explain how people save to own their homes in America thru a Savings and Loan. They are wonderful public relation pieces as they show them to all their friends and on one construction job some 16 workers stopped their work to have a look at the picture we took of them.

They all smiled and the boss shook hands with us and said in broken English that they wanted to be friends with the United States and have no war.

The Easy Way—

Find Your Personal Property Assessment

Jacksonville residents should have no trouble finding their personal property tax assessment published in this newspaper today simply by following two easy rules: First—determine the Ward in which you reside; Second—find your name in the alphabetical listing of that Ward.

As a public service to Jacksonville taxpayers, the Journal Courier has published a map showing the seven Wards of Jacksonville. The ward map is reproduced on Page 5, Section 2, of this edition.

In addition to the personal property assessments, real estate changes and additions are listed.

Police Court Hits Business Slump Saturday

Jacksonville's police court business has hit a slump, for the time being — Magistrate Fred Daniels handled a dozen cases Saturday morning.

Shooting firecrackers in the city headed the list with three persons drawing $10 fines: Gonzalo Hernandez, 1201 South Main; K. H. Norton, 920 North Clay; and A. M. Portee, 428 Ebey street.

James A. Jackson, 941 Allen avenue; and Joe Garrett, 918 North East, each paid $25 fines on charges of disorderly conduct.

Leonard L. Farzier of St. Louis paid a $5 fine for running a stop sign; four persons were fined for parking violations, two on charges of being drunk and one case was dismissed.

Hold Waggener--Lamkular Family Reunion July 3

The Waggener-Lamkular reunion was held Sunday, July 3, at the dining hall in Nichols Park. A basket dinner was served, with ice cream being served later.

A busines meeting was held after the dinner. The following officers were elected: David Wadgener, president; Nelson Spaenhower, vice president; Agnes Waggener, secretary and treasurer and Virginia Hickey, historian.

A history book of the Waggener-Lamkular families since 1925, which had been written up by the historian, was shown to the group.

The reunion also honors all members who have birthdays in July. The oldest member, Minnie Waggener, was 81 years old June 13. She was unable to attend, having been a patient at Our Saviour's hospital since Jan. 11.

Baseball and a social time were enjoyed during the afternoon. One death, that of Louis Henry Sheeley, was reported. There were no marriages during the past year.

Several births were reported: a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Ed Bulzow of Sycamore, Ill.; a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Bob German, route 2, Waverly; a son to Mr. and Mrs. Donald Waggener; a son to Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Fairfield and a son to Mr. and Mrs. David Waggener.

Those attending included Mr. and Mrs. Warren Reynolds, Herman and Lena Kloppe, Mr. and Mrs. Hardin Lamkular, Rose Sheeley, William Sheeley, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Waggener, Beverly, Judy, Diane and Jeffrey Waggener, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Spaenhower.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Lamkular and Delyne, Harold and Rowena Waggener, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Lamkular, Mrs. Verl Hickey. Wanda and Gary Hickey, Mr. and Mrs. David Waggener and Lynn, Agnes Waggener and Johnny Horrer.

The 1961 reunion will be held at the same location on the first Sunday in July.

CASTLE FOR REPAIRS

REHAU, Germany (AP)—Whoever spends $28,084 on repairs can have a $100,000 baroque-style castle, the owner says. A fire recently did that much damage to the castle, and an insurance company has promised reimbursement to the owner only on condition the damage is repaired. The owner, a woman, would prefer the cash rather than investing in repairs.

Ridiculous Bargains Featured Wednesday

The horn is blowing . . . Jacksonville Merchants are showing . . . We'd be a might proud if you're going . . . to ATTEND RIDICULOUS DAY IN JACKSONVILLE—WEDNESDAY, JULY 13.

This ain't no hatching . . . you'll snicker while you're snatching . . . those RIDICULOUS BARGAINS GALORE.

This RIDICULOUS verse shows no rehearse, but we're calling attention, you see . . . to the most appealing of sales that should tip the scales in favor of a visit to watch me.

I'll be first in line, at the appointed time—9 o'clock in the morn.

Although we claim not a poet, our shoes are size twelve . . . but a cordial, friendly invite to Jacksonville stores is the purpose of our efforts to thee!

(unsigned)

Jacksonville merchants will uncork the greatest bargains in shopping history for Jacksonville area housewives when their doors open Wednesday morning, July 13. The 9 to 5 business hours will feature the city's annual RIDICULOUS DAYS sales event.

The latest ringside rumble indicates that no holds will be barred.

Parade At 8 O'Clock

A colorful parade of Jacksonville salespeople and store owners will march around the Public Square at 8 o'clock in the morning. Two popular bands will garner the crowd's favor, as in years past — the Midwest Order Buyers Pig Band, and the Chambersburg Kitchen Band.

Music for shoppers will be provided throughout the day by public address systems located in the business district.

Hate to walk through the stores?? Your problems are solved — most of Jacksonville's businessmen will hawk their wares on the public sidewalk, and, we hasten to add, at the same RIDICULOUS low prices.

Auction, Awards

A merchandise auction will take place at 5 p.m. in Central Park. Everyone is invited to attend and bid on the regular merchandise donated by members of the business community. The sales promotion is sponsored by the Jacksonville Associated Merchants (J.A.M.) and the money received will be used to sponsor other sales events throughout the year.

Three awards will be given by J.A.M. for the "most ridiculous" salesperson working in a Jacksonville store. All employees will be dressed for the occasion.

Be sure and see Tuesday's Journal Courier for a complete roundup of RIDICULOUS DAY bargains.

Sgt. C E. Page Completes Radio Repair Course

FORT MONMOUTH, N. J. (AHTNC)— Sgt. Clifford E. Page, whose wife, Marie, lives at 2009 Lyons, Laredo, Tex., completed the 25-week field radio repair course June 30 at the Army Signal School, Fort Monmouth, N. J.

Sergeant Page was trained to maintain and repair radio equipment used in the field to sustain vital communications during actual combat conditions.

The 36-year-old soldier, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert D. Page, Ashland, Ill., entered the Army in November, 1942.

He is a 1941 graduate of Ashland Community high school.

Red Cross Swim Lessons To Begin Monday, July 11

PITTSFIELD—The free swimming lesons, a project of the Pike County Red Cross, will begin on Monday, July 11, at the pool at King Park. Classes for beginners will be from 9 to 10 on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday, and will continue for two weeks.

Junior lifesaving classes will be held on the same days from 10 to 12. The Girl Scout swimming program at King pool started on Thursday, July 7, and will be held each Thursday until the pool closes. The hours are from 9 to 11 a.m.

Brownies, intermediates and senior scouts from Pittsfield, Barry, Griggsville, Hull and Kinderhook are urged to attend. There will be a life guard on duty at all times.

New Police Officer

Pittsfield now has four men on the city police force, with Jack Lemons joining the force on July 1. Others are Chief of Police Claude Wilson, Jes Hull and R. E. Gunder.

Candidate For Coroner

Roy Conboy, who was a candidate for reelection on the Democratic ticket for Coroner of Pike county, died the middle of June and Levoy Coultas, Pleasant Hill funeral director, has been named as the candidate for the November 8 election.

He was associated with Sutter Funeral Home in Pittsfield before owning his own funeral home. He will oppose Chester Predmore on the Republican ticket. Mr. Conboy's vacancy has not been filled. The law allows a Justice of the Peace to act as coroner when necesary.

Michigan Visitor

Mrs. Jane Sim of Hastings, Mich., arrived Friday for a visit with her sister, Mrs. Dean Artman, and family. They recently sold the home of their mother, the late Mrs. Isabel Green, in Jacksonville and the women will dismantle the home while Mrs. Sim is in Pittsfield. Mrs. Artman's daughter, Mrs. Ken Swafford, is also a guest in the Artman home, arriving on Thursday.

POTLUCK DINNER AT NICHOLS PARK

A potluck dinner was held at Nichols Park Sunday, July 3 in honor of Mrs. Viola Edgar and children of Ft. Wayne, Indiana.

Editorial Comment

Tooth-And-Nail

The presidency is a great prize. The competition both for party nomination and election cannot help but be intense on most occasions.

We are now witnessing the mounting pace of that rivalry on the eve of the Democratic convention in Los Angeles.

First, former President Harry Truman and then the forces of Sen. Lyndon Johnson have undertaken by strong measures to block the admitted front-runner, Sen. John F. Kennedy.

Truman, supporting the candidacy of Sen. Stuart Symington, delivered a two-gun assault on Kennedy. On the one side he declared the convention "rigged" in the Senator's favor.

On the other hand, he questioned his fitness for presidency, suggesting he was too young and inexperienced.

Johnson joined in the "rigging" charge and his supporters went a step further by seeking to cast doubt on the state of Kennedy's health.

"Stop" maneuvers directed against the leader are of course the normal and expected thing. As a campaign nears its final stages, his rivals may see no other practical hope open to them.

How effective such efforts may be can depend on a variety of factors.

One is the size of the front-runner's lead. He may in fact be unstoppable. In Kennedy's case the answer on this point is not clear. And may not become so until convention week, when the real extent of his delegate strength is fully disclosed.

Another is the degree to which the charges involved in a "stop"-drive are believed by the delegates and other affected persons.

In this instance, presumably a doctor's word will settle the matter of Kennedy's health one way or another.

On the issue of his experience and maturity, the senator made some strong counter-observations of his own in reply to Truman. The delegates must weigh these points against those made by the former president.

They must exercise the same care in considering the charges of "rigging" the convention.

The delegates know that whether or not National Chairman Paul Butler personally favors Kennedy, he did not himself choose the officers of the convention. This was done by the national committee's arrangements committee.

Thus what the delegates are in fact asked to consider is whether the 14 national committeemen from various widely distributed states did stack the convention's official roster for Kennedy.

In weighing this issue, they must examine the background, the character and the leanings not only of the 14 committee members but of the men they chose to guide the convention.

The delegates' verdict will not now be long in coming.

As we in the nation await it, we can reflect that the battle for a presidential nomination can be not only severe but almost savage.

A Glance Into The Past

10 YEARS AGO

The Morgan county draft board will reopen an office in Jacksonville soon. Members of the board are W. E. Marine, Glen C. Hickle, C. P. Hedrick and Carl E. Newport.

James Riggs of Warsaw, Hancock county, has purchased the Gamble store in Ashland.

The Clyde Beatty Circus, one of the four remaining railroad shows in America, will exhibit in Jacksonville Aug. 16.

'Vast' Understates Picture Of Convention Coverage

BY PETER EDSON
Washington Correspondent
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

WASHINGTON—(NEA)—If you don't find out what's going on at the conventions, it shouldn't be for lack of reporting. There will be more newsmen at both shows than there are delegates on the floor.

The Democratic convention in L.A. will have 3,042 delegates—each with one-half vote—and 1,467 alternates for a total of 4,509, maximum. But there will be over 5,300 daily and weekly newspaper reporters, magazine writers, news photographers, radio and television commentators, cameramen, light men, telegraph operators, messengers and assorted bosses.

The Republican show in Chicago two weeks later, with far better facilities, won't be nearly so crowded. It will have 1,331 delegates, each with one vote, and the same number of alternates for a total of 2,662. The GOP is expecting only about 4,300 newsmen to cover its show.

There have been far more applications for working press credentials tha nthere is space to put workmen, however.

Working space in the Los Angeles Sports Arena and hotel accommodations downtown are strictly limited. Chicago's International Amphitheater and bigger and more numerous hotels make the GOP problem comparatively easy. But even so, both conventions have had to install over 3,500 telephones and some 80 switchboards—enough for cities of 10,000 population.

More than a half-million miles of telephone and telegraph wire will carry the story of the conventions to 1,800 newspapers. Teletypewriters operating over a 470,000-mile network will serve 9,500 locations.

Television will carry proceedings to 672 stations in 425 cities. Radio coverage will link 1,000 stations.

The number of words used to tell the story to 100-million adults in this country will run into the trillions.

To take care of the daily press, 420 U.S. and 70 foreign papers have credentials for 1,025 reporters and editors who will be in Los Angeles. There are 950 seats in the general press area. Many of these seats are so far from the speaker's rostrum that reporters will have to watch television to see what's going on.

Actually, there were applications for 1,500 seats from 600 papers, but over 10 per cent couldn't be accommodated. But there will be another 1,000 newsmen working outside the convention, at state and candidates' headquarters downtown.

Five hundred daily papers have been accredited for the Chicago GOP convention—428 U.S. and 72 foreign—with 1,020 reporters assigned to seats. Another 500 will work downtown.

The periodical press is still worse off. About 600 magazine writers and editors are expected in both Los Angeles and Chicago. But there are only 175 seats reserved for them.

Time-Life-Fortune get 20 of these, Newsweek 14, U.S. News and World Report eight, others one and two apiece.

Weekly newspapers present still another headache for convention arrangers. This is particularly true in Los Angeles. California has many weeklies and suburban shopping news sheets.

College and high school papers have also applied. Many individuals ask for credentials as special correspondents for papers that don't even exist.

The Democrats have allocated 250 seats for weekly papers, Republicans 175. Hundreds of requests have been refused.

Newspicture agencies and individual papers' still photographers asked the Democrats for 350 photographers and got 290. Republicans got requests for 295 and accredited 275.

The four radio and three television networks got accreditation for 1,193 staff members at both conventions. But these numbers include many technicians who work off the convention floor. The networks pool some of their operations—ne camera shoting from one location for all.

The big problem in accommodating radio and television came from independent stations who want their own camera crews, microphones, recorders and reporters.

There are 301 of these independent broadcasters that applied for working accommodations. They have been given accreditation for another 1,000 announcers and technicians. Included are 40 television film and theater newsreel personnel.

And what is this big story that all these people will concentrate on, at the cost of many millions of dollars?

The names of four men.

Vacation Can Be Perfect If Mama Enjoys It, Too

Memo to Men:

If your idea of the perfect family vacation is "roughing it' by camping out or renting a summer cottage with cooking facilities—make sure that Mama isn't the one who gets the rough end of the vacation.

No woman who cooks three meals a day at home is going to find cooking three meals a day under primitive conditions much of a vacation.

So it's up to Papa to divide up the job of cooking and dishwashing so that Mama, Papa and the kids all do their share.

If there are small children Papa shouldn't leave Mama at the cottage all day baby-sitting while he goes off fishing. After all, Mama can baby-sit all day at home.

Most women on vacation like to do a little sight-seeking and window-shopping along the way. So Papa's idea of making 500 or 600 miles a day isn't likely to seem like much of a vacation to Mama, especially if she has to try to keep the kids from fighting on the back seat while Papa concentrates on the road ahead.

House keeping ought to be divided up, too, so that Mama doesn't spend her time washing out clothes, sweeping floors, making beds and so on.

All too often the summer cottage without maid service just turns Mama into the maid.

And no matter how much fun Mama is having roughing it with the family, there is sure to come a night before the vacation is up when Mama says wistfully:

"Why don't we drive into town and eat tonight?"

That's the time when an understanding husband proves he can be just as good a sport as his wife by saying:

"That suits me fine."

In Hollywood

By JAMES BACON
AP Movie-TV Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—A veteran actor who served his apprenticeship under Stanislavsky says there isn't a so-called method actor alive who could meet the master's approval.

"All the famous graduates of the Actor's Studio only imitate Marlon Brando and James Dean — and even they are not true method actors," says Vladimir Sokoloff, 70-year-old veteran of hundreds of movies and stage plays.

"The best actress on the New York stage today is Anne Bancroft, who quit the actor's studio after the second day," adds Sokoloff.

Sokoloff says he was with Stanislavsky when the method was founded by the famed director of the Moscow Art Theater in the days of the Czars.

"It was in about 1909 or so," recalls Sokoloff. "Stanislavsky founded his method in revolt against the stilted acting of the day in Moscow. He wanted us to act true to nature. He told us that the theater was four walls —the audience did not exist out front. And he saw to it that the audiences did not applaud.

"You can imagine what a revolution that created among actors. I was just a novice, but I argued that applause is an actor's life food. Still he would permit no applause."

Sokoloff said Stanislavsky told him that the method was good for Moscow but not for England or the United States.

Sokoloff said if Stanislavsky were alive today, his favorites would be non-method actors — Frederic March, Alec Guinness, Julie Harris, Michael Redgrave, John Gielgud and Ralph Richardson.

"Brando would not get the approval of Stanislavsky because he allows his personality to dominate his acting. He is always Brando."

The World Today

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Former President Truman, a nimble 76, can hop in opposite directions without losing a minute in uncontradicting himself.

For instance:

A week ago he said he was resigning as a delegate to next week's Democratic convention in Los Angeles. Now he's having second thoughts.

A week ago he implied Sen. John F. Kennedy, 43, and front-runner for the Democratic presidential nomination, was too young and inexperienced for the job.

And it was Truman who announced in 1956 that Adlai Stevenson couldn't win the presidency but three days later said he could although, as it turned out, Stevenson couldn't.

Just last Saturday, on a nationwide TV broadcast in a room packed with newsmen, Truman said he had quit as a delegate to the convention because, he implied, it was rigged by Kennedy forces.

A reporter asked him: "What are the conditions, if any, under which you would change your mind and attend the convention?"

The snappy Truman, enjoying the sensation he was causing, shot back: "There are no conditions."

But Thursday he said he had under consideration a request from Missouri's Gov. James T. Blair to attend the convention as a delegate. The governor told Truman "it's your duty to attend."

And Truman, who last Saturday said there were no conditions under which he would reconsider, now said "I haven't made up my mind" about going as a delegate.

In last Saturday's broadcast Truman implied Kennedy was too young and immature for the presidency. In front of the TV cameras he gave this unasked advice to Kennedy who has been in Congress 14 years:

"Are you certain that you're quite ready for the country or the country is ready for you in the role of President in January, 1961? I hope someone with the greatest possible maturity and experience would be available at this time."

As more likely candidates than Kennedy — apparently on the ground they were more experienced and mature—Truman suggested among others two Minnesotans: Sen. Eugene McCarthy and Gov. Orville Freeman.

While McCarthy at 44 is only a year older than Kennedy and Freeman at 42 is a year younger, Kennedy has been in Congress two years longer than McCarthy and in important elective office many years longer than Freeman.

It was on Aug. 14, 1956 at the Democratic convention in Chicago that Truman tried to wreck the presidential chances of Adlai Stevenson who was then the front-runner for the nomination.

"I don't think he can win," Truman said.

Stevenson got the nomination. And on Aug. 17 Truman stood before the convention and said:

"Stevenson is a real fighter. And I ought to know. Any man who can take this convention the way he did should be able to take the Republicans next fall."

Trouble was, Truman was right the first time, as President Eisenhower proved by swamping Stevenson in the November election.

Since Truman is just as nimble as ever it wouldn't be surprising if he winds up at the convention this year fighting for the nomination of Sen. Lyndon Johnson of Texas although he came out for Sen. Stuart Symington of Missouri long ago.

Needy Women for Jobs Altrusa Club Helps to Fit

BY MARIE DAERR

"We ourselves aren't spring chickens. What better project could we have than to help other women of our age group fit themselves for jobs?"

This is how an officer of an Altrusa Club in a big city explained a project that has brought jobs and a new lease on life to dozens of women in the 38-to-58-year age group. It also has saved the city's taxpayers money.

The project is job-training scholarships for women who, because of divorce or a husband's serious-illness or death, must support the family.

Age and lack of skills made it hard for these women to find work. Some were forced to go on public assistance.

Through this 62-member branch of Altrusa, an international club of business women, these unsuccessful job hunters were trained for work in such fields as operating a business or a power sewing machine, practical nursing and cosmetology.

"The courses cost from $50 to $300," said an Altrusa officer. "We get our candidates from our city's Vocational Guidance and Rehabilitation services. They are screened by our club's vocational information committee.

"An additional gift provided money for equipment for 10 of the women taking power sewing machine operation. The women could use this equipment in training and later on the job."

How good an investment did this Altrusa group make?

"In one year we gave $620 for scholarships to train five women," said the club officer. "Their combined earnings during the year since training, amounted to $23,400. In the same period of time, these women would have cost the community $13,500 in public assistance."

A recent Altrusa project has been 21 scholarships to train a group of older women to help out at parties.

The women are trained to make salads, canapes and hot breads, to handle fine china and silver and, in general, to make themselves useful to a hostess. They will earn $1.25 an hour for this work.

The Altrusa members finance their scholarship project by selling such items as gift ribbon, doorstops, silver polishing cloths and, at holiday time, homemade wreaths.

"We all have full-time jobs, so we must do this in spare time," said the Altrusa officer. "We have to sell a lot of ribbon to pay for one scholarship. But we feel the effort is well spent."

Give Your Family a Break; Stuff and Roll Round Steak

BY GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Food and Markets Editor

Round steak is always an economical buy. All of it can be eaten, preventing any waste. To prevent monotony, however, vary your ways of cooking it.

Rolled Stuffed Round Steak
(Yield 6 to 8 servings)

Two pounds round steak, cut ½-inch thick, 2 strips bacon crumbled, ¼ cup chopped onion, ¼ cup chopped celery, 1 tablespoon chopped parsley, ½ teaspoon powdered sage, ½ teaspoon salt, pepper, 1/3 cup soup stock or hot water, 3 tablespoons lard or drippings, ¼ cup water.

Combine bread crumbs, bacon, onion celery, parsley, seasonings and enough stock or water to moisten. Spread stuffing on steak and roll like a jelly roll. Tie in several places or fasten with skewers.

Brown roll on all sides in lard or drippings. Add water. Cover tightly and cook slowly about 1½ hours, or until meat is tender. Remove to hot platter and make gravy with drippings in pan.

Cabbage is good now and also economical. The U.S. Department of Agriculture suggests pan-cooking it for a change. Add 1 quart finely shredded cabbage to 2 tablespoons heated butter or margarine in a heavy pan. Sprinkle with salt. Cover pan to hold in steam and cook over low heat for 5 to 10 minutes, stirring occasionally.

Crisp 5-Minute Cabbage
(4 servings)

One and one-half cups milk, 1 quart shredded cabbage, 1½ tablespoons flour, 1½ tablespoons melted butter or margarine.

Heat milk and add the cabbage. Simmer about 2 minutes. Mix the flour and melted fat and add a little of the hot milk. Stir this mixture into the cabbage, and cook 3 or 4 minutes, or until thickened, stirring constantly. Season to taste with salt and pepper.

MONDAY'S DINNER: Rolled stuffed round steak, whipped patotoes, corn-on-cob, enriched bread, butter or margarine, scallions, radishes, fresh blueberries, cream, coffee, tea, milk.

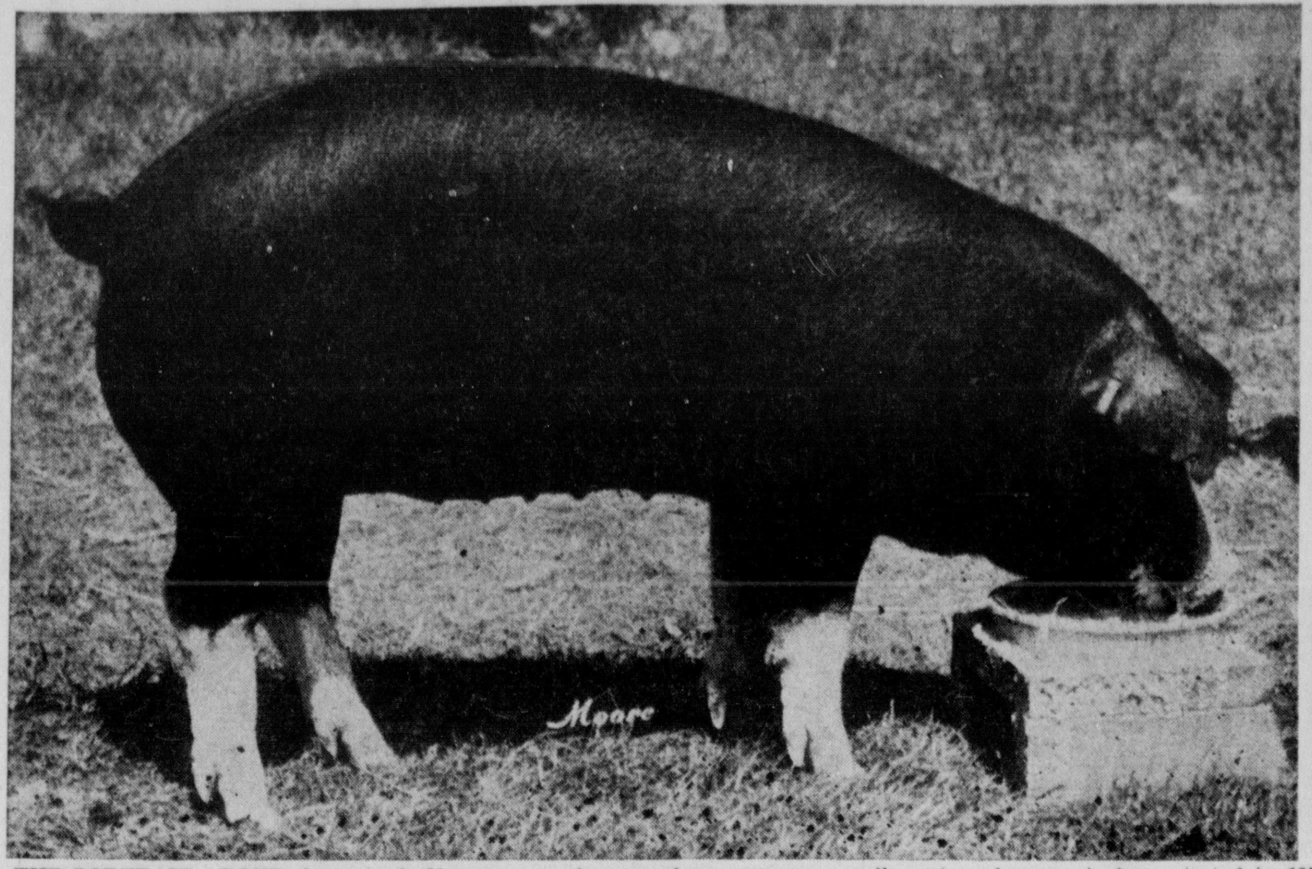
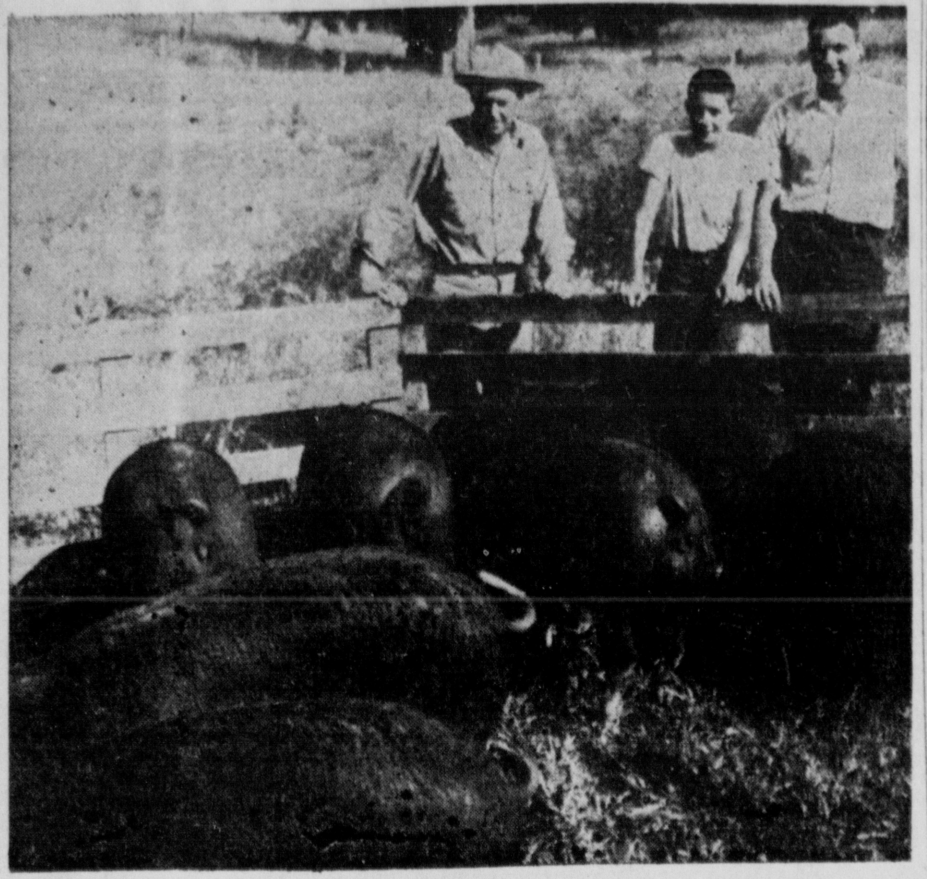
Today's Hogs Much Better Muscled—Not So Fat—Grow Faster





THE PORTRAIT ABOVE shows Jones Special Lady No. 3. She's the proud possession of Larry Jones, 13, of Winchester and is a living demonstration of what can be done by alert, conscientious and steadfast livestock breeders.

Larry is shown in the second picture with his neighbor, Marvin Tholen at left, and his father, LaVern, at right. Before them are a group of purebred Poland China gilts and boars that were shipped last week to Haiti as a gift of Morgan and Scott county residents working through CROP — Christian Rural Overseas Program.

Special Lady is a direct descendant of Black Lady and it'd be nice to have a good picture of her, for back 21 years ago she was champion, out of the herd of Jim Lashmet of Winchseter. She was purchased by LaVern Jones, 16 years old and a 4-H club enthusiast.

Before the hydrogenation process became universal, lard--pork fat—was a stable food and was held in high esteem by nearly everybody in the world. As the demand for lard went down, so did the price of hogs. To complicate matters, the housewife turned up her nose at a piece of fat pork. The consumption of all pork skidded downwards.

So hog breeders turned their attention to producing a "meat-type" hog, one that produced a higher percentage of lean meat and a lower proportion of fat. The program really got underway six years ago and the progress made thus far has been great, almost fantastic.

Backfat thickness has been significantly reduced, average daily gains increased and the feed efficiency improved somewhat.

Terry Greathouse, U. I. livestock specialist, has just completed a summary of the work done during the past five years. His record proves that farmers can increase gains, save feed and produce meatier carcasses through selective breeding based on performance testing.

His summary of more than 2,000 boars tested from 1955 to 1959 shows:

The backfat thickness on the boars tested in 1955 averaged 1.37 inches. In 1959 it had dropped to 1.16 inches.

In 1955 daily gains averaged 1.76 pounds. By 1958 they increased to 1.87 pounds. But they slipped back to 1.75 pounds last year due to the bitterly cold weather during the test periods. But the small improvement, however, still has importance. A mere 1/10 of a pound increase in average daily gains saves six days time in producing a 200 pound market hog.

In 1955 the boars needed 336 pounds of feed for every 100 pounds they gained. By 1958 they needed only 295 pounds. But last year's cold weather upped it to 302 pounds. Even so, this is 34 pounds less than the 1955 figure.

Five littermates of Special Lady were among 19 barrows tested last year. Jones, father and son, bought all of the feed for the test period from George Fogel, manager of the Scott County Service Co. The feeder was padlocked, the Service company had the key and kept track of the feed used. The pigs were marked by ear tatooes and were weighed periodically by employees of the Poland China breeders' association.

The five barrows weighed 217 pounds in exactly four months, and they used 3.06 pounds of feed to put on a pound of gain.

Special Lady is also entitled to her name because she has a long line of distinguished ancestors, including the Prairie Ace and Magnificient bloodlines which are approximately comparable to the Cabot and the Lodge. In more recent years her ancestors were picked on a "not who they are, but what they are" basis as determined by performance testing. Her father, for example, was a so nof a certified sow raised by the celebrated Oscar Anderson of LaSalle county, and a certified boar raised by Robert Beatty of Fulton county.

In the past 20 years Jones, the elder, has sold purebred breeding stock to herdsmen in 20 states and Cuba. So far this year he has sold 160 head, nearly all to Illinois and Indiana producers.

Jones, the younger, is a member of the Future Livestock Producers 4-H club, led by Truman Scott.

Illinois Farmers Outlook Letter

HOG NUMBERS LOW-- PRICE OUTLOOK HIGH

Farmers cut the spring pig crop much more than they had indicated earlier. According to the USDA report, they saved 49.1 million pigs between December 1 and June 30. This was 16 per cent less than were saved last year. Last December they reported that they would cut production only 11 per cent.

The 1960 spring pig crop is the smallest, in relation to population, since the drouth years of the 1930s.

The 1960 fall pig crop will not be cut so much. Farmers in early June reported plans to cut the 1960 fall pig crop only 3 per cent below that of last year. Their intentions pointed to a fall pig crop of about 41.5 million head. That would provide less pork in relation to population than we had in either of the past two years, but more than in any of the other years back to 1951.

Hog slaughter will be unusually small in the July-August-September quarter. The reason is that the number of pigs 3 to 6 months old on farms in nine corn-belt states on June 1 was 19 per cent smaller than a year earlier.

The scarcity of pork will continue on into the October-November-December quarter. The number of pigs under 3 months old on farms June 1 was 15 per cent less than a year before.

Plenty Of Poultry, Beef

The scarcity of pork in the last half of this year will be partly offset by record supplies of poultry and by record, or near-record, supplies of beef.

Consumer buying power is expected to increase a little this fall, but the increase may not be so much as has occurred in some recent years.

The prospectiye supply and demand situation should support a very profitable level of prices to hog producers during the last half of this year.

As a target, let's say that prices should equal the average of the three years 1956-1958. In the last half of those three years, the average price of farrows and gilts at eight leading terminal markets in the corn belt was a little over $18.00 a hundred pounds.

The average price in the three Julys was a bit over $20.00; the Augusts, a bit under $20.00; Septembers, $18.35; Octobers, $17.25; Novembers, $16.70; and Decembers, $17.65.

Prices this year may, of course, be higher or lower than these figures. The supply of pork available to each person will be smaller than it was in any one of the three years 1956-1958. But costs of marketing hogs and of processing and distributing pork are up from the previous levels.

Higher In August

The monthly distribution of spring farrowings suggests that prices may average higher in August or at least in early August, than they will in July.

Weather conditions will be important in determining the pattern of prices. Extremely hot weather in the corn belt reduces the rate of gain and delays marketings. Hot, humid weather in the big consuming centers reduces the demand for pork.

The outlook seems to call for feeding programs for winter pigs that will get cheapest, rather than fastest, gains. The same applies to late spring pigs.

Hogs weighing under 200 pounds will be discounted, especially in the late summer. Most markets will pay top prices for hogs with good hams and loins and weighing 210 to 230 pounds.

This Week.. at Dixon Springs

The second Thursday of July, the 14th, marks another annual affair on the Dixon Springs Experimental Station. That is the day, always the second Thursday in July, when 24 bouncing, ready-to-work, Station produced, yearling rams will be auctioned to the highest bidders.

Suffolks, Hampshires, and Targhees

Gene Laudrdale, Station shepherd, is presently grooming 12 Suffolk, 6 Targhee, and 6 Hampshire rams. These selected rams have the body and type for siring thrifty, market topping lambs. In fitting the rams for sale, Gene can't "pull the wool over anyone's eyes," because available to all buyers will be a complete performance record from birth to sale time on each ram. You'll know what each ram weighed at weaning and the age at weaning as well as yearling and fleece weights.

Top Gainer

The top-doing ram to be offered is a Suffolk that gained ¾ of a pound from birth to weaning and weighed 105 pounds at 129 days of age. This is the kind of ram that, it mated to good milking ewes, will produce fast gaining, early to market lambs.

The Targhee rams do not show the gain record of the Suffolks or the Hampshires but they do shine on fleece weights. Targhees are a relatively new breed, developed basically from northwest, white face ewes and Rambouillet crosses. In fact, they are bred and selected for uniform and heavy fleeces. The yearling fleece weight of the six Targhee rams average over 12 pounds with a top weight of nearly 15 pounds.

The sale starts at 1:30 p.m. daylight saving time. Come early, look the rams over, see some of our sheep experiments in progress, see our equipment, and talk to the herdsman and our sheep researchers. The Station maintains about 1,000 head of breeding ewes, various types of grade ewes as well as the purebred flocks.

HAY CROP IN JERSEY DAMAGED BY RAINS

JERSEYVILLE — The first crop of alfalfa hay and red clover sustained much loss during the current wet season, according to reports from a number of farmers.

A few farmers were fortunate in cutting and harvesting their hay between rains, but the majority suffered from partial to complete loss of the hay for this season.

In the case of alfalfa, however, farmers who lost their first cutting may expect two additional cuttings this summer, and the second cutting will no doubt be of good quality and extra heavy for a second crop as a result of adequate moisture content in the soil.

It was pointed out that the third cutting may also be expected to yield well even if rainfall diminishes to the minimum for this time of the year.

Annual Meeting Of The Chapin Christian Church

The annual meeting of the Chapin Christian church was held July 3. A bountiful dinner was served at noon.

The business meeting was conducted in the afternoon with Miller Obert, president, presiding.

The following officers for the coming year were elected, Elders for three years, Armel McDaniel, William Fisher and Wilbur Williams; Deacons for three years, Wilbur Alderson, Lloyd Anderson, William Crews, Ellsworth Rigor and James Griffin.

Financial secretary, John Alderson; Treasurer, Adell Woodward; Church clerk, Ruth Six; Historian, Adelia Hamilton; Pianist, Ruth Hutches, assistant pianist, Gloria Fisher; Chorister, Edna Obert; assistant, Adelaide Brockhouse; Ushers, Robert Suratt, Kenneth Crews, Donald Rigor, Tom Weeks, David Hutson and Byron Moody.

Deaconesses, Laura Fisher, Maude White, Inez Bonds, Ruth Calloway, Anna Mattes, May Alderson, Edna Woodward and Dora Postlewnite.

Church school officers, Superintendent, Miller Obert, assistant, Phyllis Wilder; Secretary, Barbara White, assistant, Donna Hutson; Treasurer Adelia Hamilton; Librarian, Gary Mattes, assistant, Lavona Schone; Primary superintendent, Erma Mattes, assistant, Darlene Thompson; Beginners superintendent, Virginia Goodrich; Pianist, Ruth Hutches; Chorister, Mary Ann Atchison, assistant, Barbara Gilliland.

FREDERICK BRYANT ON 6-WEEK MARINE TRAINING EXERCISE

CAMP LEJEUNE, N.C. (FHTNC) —Marine Acting Sgt. Frederick E. Bryant, son of Mr. Fred Bryant of 711 S. Diamond street, Jacksonville, Ill., embarked June 13 for approximately six weeks training exercises on Vieques Island, Puerto Rico, with the Second Service Battalion, a unit of the Second Marine Division at Camp Lejeune, N. C.

The battalion will receive training in the latest infantry tactics with use of helicopters to help maintain the Second Division's force-in-readiness role.

Periodic tours will be made of the island and to the historic city of Isabella Segunda.

ALEXANDER NEWS

ALEXANDER—Miss Clara Coe spent the past week-end in Alton as the guest of her sister, Mrs. Henry Allan and family.

Mrs. Francis Beerup is spending several days at the I.O.O.F. Home in Lincoln.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hartzell and family spent the holiday weekend with relatives in Alexander.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Weber and Elizabeth of Jerseyville were guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Royal Cass and Jeannie.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Gill, Chicago, spent the weekend with Mrs. Gill's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Dowell.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Allan Beerup and daughters left on Thursday for Salt Lake City where Mrs. Beerup and daughters will reside with her sister. Mr. Beerup will return to his post in Japan in the near future.

Kelly Robbins, Oregon, Ill., is spending a few days at the home of his sister, Mrs. C. E. Keenan and will go to Kentucky to visit other relatives

Value Of Land, Gross Farm Products Sales Boom In California

California farmers raise 250 different commercial crops, as compared with the 10 or so in Illinois.

It is now the No. 1 agricultural state in the nation and last year six California counties produced more farm products than any state, with the exception of Texas, Illinois, Iowa and Minnesota.

Although current profit margins do not justify the investment, the price of prime cropland is now in the $1,000 to $1,200 per acre class and almost everybody believes it is bound to go higher.

Irrigation is on the increase and many California agriculturists are looking forward to the day when the pipeline proposed at a cost of 1.4 billion dollars will bring water from the mountains to the arid, but fertile inland valley.

These were some of the impressions gathered by members of the American Society of Farm Managers and Rural Appraisers when they held their summer meeting at Davis, Calif. Sixteen members from Illinois attended, including Hobart Hinderliter, farm manager of the Applebee Agency, and Mrs. Hinderliter.

"They think different than we do," Hinderliter said. "I don't think they're 100% right, but they are getting things done. Last year agricultural sales in the state amounted to three billion dollars. This is way more than all the gold ever mind in California. Yolo county had gross sales of $150 per acre."

Will It Pay?

The farm managers found that the larger farms, many of them closed family corporations, don't do anything unless it can be proved profitable on paper—using strict cost accounting. Machinery costs, for example, are charged on a per hour basis. Last year lift fork loaders were used to load pallets of tomato crates on trucks, and were found to cut costs, even with the cost of the loader at $7.50 per hour, which would seem far too high to the average midwest farmer, who is traditionally short on cost accounting.

The group visited a feed yard capable of feeding 18,000 steers at a time. The company has its elevators, feed mills, 3,000 acres of irrigated alfalfa that produces six cuttings and nine tons per acre annually, dehydrators and its own barge line to bring grain, sugar beet pulp and molasses through San Francisco Bay to Collinsville.

27c Feeder Bid

About half of the cattle on feed were on contract, owned by farmers who were paying so much for each pound gain. Last year the company fed 30,000 head and when the farm managers were there it was bidding 27c for feeder cattle.

The cattle are fed in lots of 200, with fence line bunkers. All feed is handled mechanically, and the company figures one employee for each 1,200 head. The weather there is always cool in the Bay area, and the bedding problem during the rainy weather has been solved by simply using a bulldozer to pile up the manure two or three times week. This manure dries out during the summer months and makes a comfortable bedding spot during the winter months. Later it is hauled out and the cycle started all over again.

Long Hay Haul

Some dairymen raise neither grain nor forage. The Herington Bros., of Clarksburg, contracts to furnish chopped alfalfa within a range of 65-90 miles. The alfalfa is chopped at night and delivered to the dairyman in the morning, at so much per ton on an annual contract.

The Herington Bros., farm is a closed family corporation with the stock owned by nine cousins, descendants of two brothers who drained a tule swamp and turned it into an extraordinarily productive farm. They raise most every kind of garden vegetables, barley and ducks. They sell at wholesale, and buy only at wholesale.

Considerable corn is raised in that area, but the farmers there are becoming less interested in it since the government guaranteed price of $1.25 was taken off. The acreage slumped considerably last year and will be decreased even more in 1961.

The Bushel Dumped

The California farmers have gotten away from the archaic system of selling grain by the bushel, a unit set up far before the invention of computing machines. All prices are by hundredweight. Thus when one man told the visitors his corn made four tons to the acre the latter had to get out their pencils and paper pads to figure out that it really made 143 bushels.

Great progress has been made in the development of machine harvesting of tomatoes. The equipment available works well, and a variety of pear tomatoes has been bred where 80% of the fruit is ripe at the same time. These are processed into tomato paste, for which there has been an ever-expanding market. Since an acre of tomatoes there produces as much as 40 tons of fruit, it is evident that machines would save much back breaking labor and expense. Many plant breeders are working to develop a compact, upright tomato plant that will ripen its fruit at the same time. Agricultural chemists are also very busy on the same project.

Wanted: Water

Most of the irrigation water comes from shallow wells, 80-100 feet deep, but the amount is far from that needed to wet the large expanses of semi-arid fields now largely devoted to barley. The owners of this land look dreamily toward the northeast and the mountains, where most of California's rain falls. They feel that some day soon a giant pipeline will bring all the water they need. Engineers say such a line could be built for $1,400,000,000.

The fantastic immigration into the state has brought about a large and stable market for agricultural products and has much to do with today's land values. For example, in the past 10 years, new urban developments and highways have taken over 100,000 acres of farm land per year. This land brought very fancy prices, and the owners were keen to reinvest in farm land. Hence, prime cropland worth $500 a decade ago is now sought at up to 31,200 per acre and farms in the hinterland that could be bought for $10 per acre in 1950 no wfetch $50. Some of the lesser optimists claim "the cream has been pretty well skimmed," but their fathers were wrong when they declared "lower California will never be anything except a place for retired Iowa farmers who like to raise geraniums."

Vaccination Drop Builds Chance Of Cholera Epidemic

URBANA — Unvaccinated hogs help spread cholera, and the number of unvaccinated, unprotected animals is growing.

An estimated ten percent of all hogs were vaccinated in 1959 as against fifty percent in 1950. This simply means that farmers are giving cholera the chance to become epidemic.

Dr. J. R. Pichard, University of Illinois Extension Veterinarian, says healthy pigs should be routinely vaccinated at about six weeks. While some farmers regard hog cholera vaccination as just another production cost to be eliminated, when the disease strikes the loss of market weight swine exceeds the cost of routine vaccination for many years.

Cholera strikes without warning and usually kills swine within four to seven days. Death losses approach 100 percent in unvaccinated herds. And the few surviving swine are usually unthrifty.

The nature of this disase leaves the farmer no choice but to vaccinate. If the disease does strike an unvaccinated herd, the farmer has three choices. He can burn carcasses, or bury them, or call the rendering plant.

Keeping Fit Day For 4-H Clubs Here July 20

4-H Keeping Fit Day for Morgan county members will be held Wednesday, July 20, announces Bob Hayward, Jr., assistant farm adviser.

The program will be held at the Jacksonville High school, and in case of rain in David Prince gym.

Two U. I. Extension physical education specialists, John E. Greenleaf and Ronald P. Kopplin, will be on hand to give individual tests and to instruct them on how they can improve their physical fitness. The tests will determine growth, flexibility, strength, speed and endurance.

"Remember that the fourth 'H' in the 4-H slogan stands for health, so we hope to see every club represented at the field day," Hayward says.

NAME WHEAT VOTING PRECINCTS IN JERSEY

JERSEYVILLE — Voting places for the referendum to be held July 21 on marketing quotas for the 1961 wheat crop were announced Thursday.

Voting will be held in four places in the county from 8 a.m to 6 p.m. DST. Farmers of Fidelity, Piasa and Ruyle townships will vote at the Fidelity town hall. Farmers of Jersey and English townships will vote at the Jersey town hall. Those farming in Richwood and Rosedale townships will vote at the Fieldon town hall and farmers of Elsah, Quarry, Mississippi, and Otter Creek townships will vote at the Otterville town hall.

Accidents to farm people in this country accounted for more than 13,000 deaths and a million injuries in 1959.

Pittsfield Gets Federal Funds For City Lake

PITTSFIELD — At the regular meeting of the City Council the city clerk, Mrs. Katherine Smith, announced that the city had received the first check from the Federal Soil Conservation Department for $5,202 as the department share (28.9 per cent) of engineering fees of Phase 1, 2 and 3 of Structure No. 1 of the new city lake.

The annual budget and appropriation was given its first reading. A resolution was passed approving the terms of a permit from the State of Illinois whereby the city is given permission to run the water line from the new lake site to the city under route 107 at a specified location.

Also a similar agreement with the Wabash Railroad Company was approved. The mayor reappointed Arthur Biddle to the Park Board.

Open Bids

On Thursday, July 14, the bids will be opened, for the New Lake project, in the city hall at one o'clock. There are 19 firms with copies of plans for the big dam, and 41 have received plans for the water project.

John K. Burgher of Mendon is being transferred here where he will be one of the inspectors on the lake project. DeLong & Associates of Rockford are the consulting engineers for the city of Pittsfield.

Golf-Luncheon

Women from the Old Orchard Country Club that attended the golf luncheon at the Jacksonville Country club on Wednesday were Leona Bailis, Mae Mueller, Dovie Miles, Marjorie King, Dotty Awbrey, Eleanor Barber, Elizabeth Knight, Jessie Sloan, J. Ellen Fessler.

Vera Allen, Wilma Brant, Wynn Berry, Lucille Williamson, Olive Fisher, Marjorie Zimmerman, Mona Smith, Helen Kelly, Jean Watson, Mary Haun, Thelma Newman, Nina Birch, Elizabeth Bennett, Bea McKenna, Lillian Clark, Ruth McKenna, Freda Stauffer and Eunice Lidgard.

SHORTHORN CATTLE SALES ANNOUNCED

The American Shorthorn association of Omaha reports the sale transfer of five Polled Shorthorn females from Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hoppin of Virginia to Orville O. Petefish of Literberry.

The green algae that often collect on shorelines of ponds and slow-moving bodies of water may be very poisonous to cattle. The hazard increases when there has been no wind for several days to disturb the algae growth and disperse the poisonous material.

Unless extra precautions are taken, accidents could cause 14,000 deaths and 1,250,000 disabling injuries during the next 12 months. Also, 40,000 buildings may be destroyed by fire.

Wheat Harvest Here; Yields, Quality Good

A better than average crop of good quality wheat.

That was the report of the farmers of this area who began combining winter wheat last week. The harvest is behind schedule, with only a few machines operating on July 4, a date that in recent years saw the practical end of the combining season.

Well drained soils are producing well, with yields in the 40 bushel plus division. Poorly drained fields, however, vary greatly in yield; where the grain stood in water during the late winter and spring the pickings were thin. The quality was down too, with so many dead kernels that the grain tested down to 56 pounds to the bushel. A bushel of wheat weighse 60 pounds.

Some observers said the fields ripe when the big rains of June 23 came were particularly hard hit so far as quality grain is concerned. They also feel that later-maturing wheat will produce grain of much higher quality and that some Morgan county fields will make more than 60 bushels to the acre.

Federal-state estimators have put the Illinois crop up one-fourth higher than average. Nationally, they put the crop at 16% above the 10 year average, with a production of 1,271,000 bushels. Total ues for the next year is expected to be about 1,125 million bushels, with the difference to be added to carryover stocks and government inventories.

Due to an active export trade in recent weeks, current prices for wheat are a little higher than last year, even though the crop is larger and the support price is lower. Bids at country elevators ranged around $1.75 to $1.77 for No. 2 wheat last week.

Oats, although not too many were planted here this spring, have flourished. They have had the kind of weather they want, plenty of water and low temperatures, have been practically disease-free, and promise an unusually heavy crop. Current prices are around 60c a bushel.

BIRTHDAY PARADE

Above, left to right, are Karen Ann, age 9, May 10; Connie Jo, age 12, July 12; Paula Jean, age 6, August 30; with Chuckie, age 2, August 12, in front. They are the children of Mr. and Mrs. William Nunes of Bluffs.

The Nunes children are marching together because that's just the way they will celebrate their Birthdays—with one big, gala party for all of them on July 12. That will be an exciting day in the Nunes home, don't you think so?

MARK DEAN and AARON TODD

Mark writes (with a bit of help)—

"I was 3 years old June 2, and my brother Aaron is 9 months old. We live at Roodhouse.

"My parents are Mr. and Mrs. Bill Todd and my grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Sam Dean of White Hall and Mr. and Mrs. Mike Todd of Roodhouse."

ROBERT LEE AND CARL LeVERNE MORAN JR.

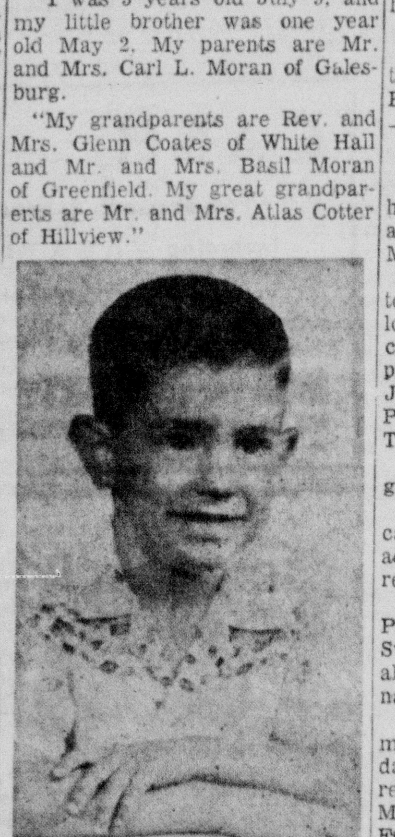
Carl writes—

"I was 5 years old July 9, and my little brother was one year old May 2. My parents are Mr. and Mrs. Carl L. Moran of Galesburg.

"My grandparents are Rev. and Mrs. Glenn Coates of White Hall and Mr. and Mrs. Basil Moran of Greenfield. My great grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Atlas Cotter of Hillview."

LILLIE AND EDITH ALLAN

These young ladies are the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Allan, Route 2, Jacksonville. Lillie was 3 years old July 1, and Edith looks forward to blowing out a whole 4 candles July 26.



DAVID CHANEY

David is 4 years old right today, July 10! He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Emmett E. Chaney of 603 N. Church.

GARY ROBERT GREGORY

Gary, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gregory of Meredosia, was 9 years July 2. He is in grade 4, and is a ball player with the Little League.

SANDRA RAE AND JULIE ANN SCROGGINS

Wheeling along next are Sandi who was 4 years old June 11 and Julie who has just one day to wait to blow out those two candles on her cake July 11. They are the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Scroggins Jr. of 1142 Elm St.

Sandi celebrated her birthday with a family fish fry at Nichols park complete with Birthday cake, ice-cream and gifts. A family barbecue is planned for Julie's Birthday

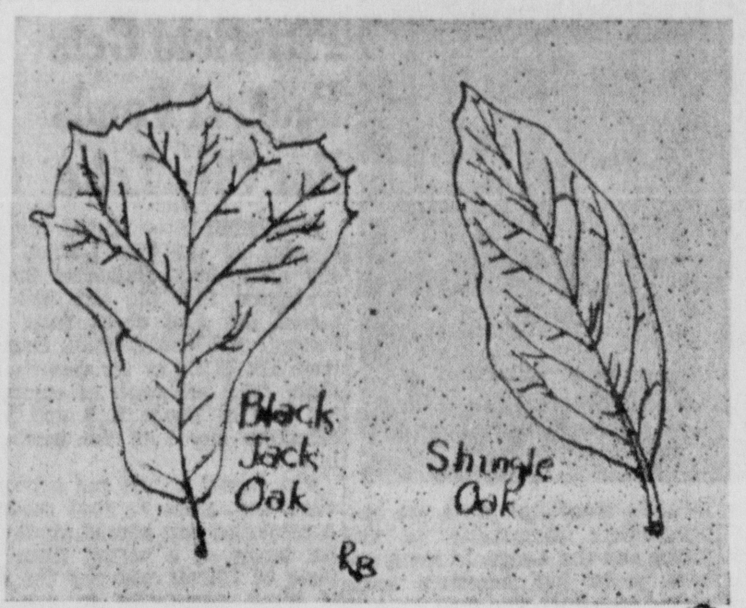
Unusual Oak Trees

By Rip Barnsdall



Black Jack Oak

The black jack oak is a small, usually scrubby tree. It reaches a usual height of 20 to 40 feet.

It is much more common in the south than in the north. It is usually found in sandy regions.

Shingle Oak

The shingle oak prefers moist hillsides and the banks of streams. The leaves of this oak are willow-like. One has to look closely at the tip to recognize it as an oak.

A bristle tip at the apex of the leaf shows it to be an oak. The shingle oak probably got its name because pioneers used the wood to make shingles, or shakes, from it.

All the letters in the President's name are scrambled above. Listed below are four facts that will also help you to identify the President.

1. He was born in Ohio.
2. He served in a regiment during the Civil War that also had another President-to-be as an officer.
3. He served two terms as President.
4. He served as a Governor of Ohio.

This President's name is —

Party for Trudy Brockhouse

CHAPIN—Trudy Diane Brockhouse celebrated her 6th birthday at her home. Trudy's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Loren L. Brockhouse.

After singing "Happy Birthday" to Trudy, games played were lollypop scramble, shoe scramble, clothes pins and elastic race with prizes going to Alysia Brockhouse, John Nienhelser, Donnie Wohlers, Penny Fricke, LuAnn Sidwell and Trudy Brockhouse.

Trudy opened her many nice gifts.

Refreshments of decorated cup cakes, ice cream bars and lemonade were served with each guest receiving a favor.

Guests included Cindy LaKamp, Penny Fricke, Susie Fricke, Ailene Swagmeyer, John Nienhieser, Donald Wohlers, John Six, Jim Nergenah and Gregg Tieman.

During the afternoon, Trudy's mother was assisted by her oldest daughter, Linda Susan, Mrs. Warren LaKamk, both grandmothers, Mrs. Luther Brockhouse and Frances Gaddis and big brother Larry Loren.

CQ RADIO HAMS—

You Can Lick TVI Monster

By Joseph A. Smith

Perhaps one of the worst trouble makers to be faced by the present day radio amateur is Television Interference (TVI). Still it need not scare you off the air if certain precautions and preventive measures are taken.

With certain necessary transmitter alterations and proper loading and operation, you can operate a transmitter at the same time others watch T.V. IN THE SAME ROOM!

With rigs running under 75 watts imput a low-pass filter may not be necessary; however, the rig must be completely shielded, and all lines leaving the metal case must be bypassed and filtered. OMHITE Z-50 chokes and 500 uufd mica (of suitable voltage rating) make excellent B plus line filters. The A.C. line cord to the rig's power supply must be by-passed carefully to ground; in severe cases you may have to use a line filter as well.

Of course, detailed information is available in the A.R.R.L. Handbook as well as from other sources; but let's get down to an actual case such as might apply to any first time builder of a low power rig. Take for example as 70 watt C.W. home-brewed rig ,such as is used at this QTH.

To gain freedom from T.V.I. in our little T.V. monster just five feet from the transmitter the following steps were taken:

(1) The final plate tank coil was trimmed of turns for a high capacity to inductance ratio when in resonance.

(2) Small Ohmite Z-50 filter chokes (bypassed to ground on either side by a 2.5 Kv - 500 uufd mcia capacitors) were installed in both oscillator and final B-plus lines; the power supply is separate from the rig itself.

(3) The rig is enclosed in a metal case, chicken fine mesh wire was installed over all air holes, etc. The wire was fastened down with strips of bare metal. Where installed around the case holes, the edges must be scraped clean of paint etc. so that the lock screws will hold the metal strips and wire tightly for a metal to metal contact.

This will make a tight R.F. fit. If the transmitter case has a lid that lifts up from the top, you should scrape the edges of the lid and case clean where they touch for a metal to metal contact again.

(4) All key and meter jacks should be bypassed right at the panel so as to minimize leakage of R.F. outside the case.

Wild Creatures Leave Old Home

By David Mudgett

For many years life had remained about the same in the woodsy area on the west side of Jacksonville—then came an invasion of Starlings.

Nothing we could do to scare the birds off had the slightest effect. Shooting into the massed roosts only caused a slight fluttering and realignment.

I tried hanging noise-making pie plates in my trees, but they may have attracted rather than repelled the birds. One morning I found five big limbs from my sweet-gum tree broken and their tips on the ground.

I found I could hit the trunk of the tree smartly with a stick and drive the birds to another tree but more would come in and I couldn't get up early enough in the morning to prevent the flocks from alighting on their way out from the roost.

Leave Old Homes

All wild life that had called the area "home" vanished. The squirrels sought other trees. The song birds were already over-due for their southern migration so they simply took off.

The winter birds stayed away and even the English sparrows decided that to "jine 'em" was better strategy than trying to "beat 'em."

My daughter Patsy tells me the noise they made was just one big racket. Billowing waves of cawing, cackling, screeching sounds would sweep by.

Even when the birds finally settled for the night, it was never silent; and the early morning noise of their departure was more raucous than any alarm clock. She describes it as pure noise—no musical sounds at all.

Then one evening late in the fall or early winter the flocks came in on schedule, wheeled around over the woods, and flew away. Some settled nearby in a puzzled fluttering, flew once more over the roosting area, and left.

Some flocks, arriving late, flew away in almost total darkness. We waited outside in the gathering darkness to see what was driving the birds away. It was too dark to see anything over by the woods.

I had seen the ghostly glide of a great owl in my headlights the night before; so I suspected a pair of owls were causing the exodus. It proved, however, to be a different creature.

Be An Expert Plane Spotter

By Joseph A. Smith

In earlier articles we learned to identify planes of today and yesterday. Now, let's take a look at tomorrow's aircraft.

There still exists the difficult problem of designing and building an atomic motor which is at the same time small enough, light enough, and still powerful enough to propel an atomic craft at supersonic speeds. Again, aircraft flying at speeds between 1,800 and 2,100 m.p.h. will encounter the so-called "Heat Barrier" where ordinary metals and alloys simply melt and burn up.

Some of today's supersonic jets are approaching this barrier (the F-104C and F-106 Delta) since their top speeds are in the neighborhood of from 1,400 to in excess of 1,500 m.p.h. Their fuselages had to be made with special metals with the utmost streamlining so as to offer minimum air friction at all times.

While scientists believe that they have solved this problem with the X-15 rocket plane, which is supposed to fly well in excess of 2,000 m.p.h. eventually, time alone will tell. Ultra high speed rocket planes and ships will naturally have this (and many more) problems to deal with too. The problem of re-entry and its tremendous heating effect on metals and fuselages is well known to everyone.

How big will these craft of the future be? That only the scientist can tell or have any idea.

Undoubtedly the present-day transport jet such as the Boeing 707 (length—128'; wing-tip to wing-tip—approx. 130'; heighth—approx. 13.2'; heighth of cabin or fuselage, tail top above ground — approx. 44.4') will seem small in comparison. For example, some of today's largest rockets (multi-stage) are taller over-all than today's airliners are long.

Rockets And Space —

What Man Would Make The Best Astronaut?

By Walter B. Hendrickson Jr.

Three groups of scientists are looking for astronauts: physiologists, psychologists and psychiatrists. At the Wright Air Development Center, they are all seeking different qualities in a man which will make him a good astronaut.

All three groups are sure that they will find many men who will fit their requirements.

The psychologists are looking for men who can compensate for the most severe stresses. The psychologists want the prospective astronaut to be able to perform a wide variety of tasks under these stresses. And the psychiatrists want him to have a record of successful performance during hazardous missions.

These qualifications were all met by men selected for the National Aeronautics and Space Administration's Project Mercury. The scientists had more than enough volunteers to select from. When the subjects were tested they proved themselves well fit both mentally and physically.

Assuming that the cabin pressure of a space ship would be like that at about 10,000 miles up, to conserve oxygen, WADC psysiologists started tests to see how well man could stand this low pressure. About 100 subjects were placed in an altitude chamber with a pressure of 10,000 feet for up to 12 hours per test.

Heart Beat Picture

During the tests occasional electrocardiograph tracings were taken. An electrocardiograph is a machine which records a person's heart beat by changing pulse beats into electrical impulses. The electrical impulses are then converted to lines on a graph.

Blood volume and the pumping rate of the heart were measured at the start, middle and end of the test. At these times urine and blood were also studied.

Isotopes were used in measuring the blood volume and pumping rate of the heart. Isotopes are atoms which have the same characteristics as other atoms of the same element but are a little bit heavier.

From these tests the physiologists found that the blood volume increased and the pumping rate of the heart decreased during the first six hours of the test. This is a normal reaction and makes up for lack of oxygen and increases the body's efficiency.

Cordination (how well the body works) was also studied under low oxygen conditions, Subjects were tested on how well they could see with an optometris'ts eye chart. Muscle coordination was tested by having the subject hold a stick inside a small loop without the stick touching the side.

Part 8: Independence Day

Last week we told you something about Independence Day celebrations in the old days, and now, with that holiday just past, we will continue the story.

Men stood at attention and many hands were raised in salute as the Grand Old Flag passed by in the parade. Some eyes shone with unshed tears in memory of those who sleep the years away . . . many unknown except "to God alone" . . . but who gave their all, that the Stars and Stripes might continue "to wave o'er the land of the free . . . and the home of the brave!"

Tommy marched with the Boy Scouts and as he kept time to the beat of drums, his heart was almost bursting with patriotism, for he was recalling his old history book and the stories of our country's countless heroes, who down the ages carved our great nation out of a wilderness of trees and vines.

Tommy forgot the people lined up along the streets; he forgot everything . . . for he was marching down the years with George Washington; James Otis, one of the first defenders of the free rights of the Colonists; Patrick Henry, with his famous "Give me liberty, or give me death;" William Pitt, and Samuel Adams, "Father of the Revolution;" and oh, many, many others!

In imagination he rode the "Midnight Ride of Paul Revere!" He marched with the Minute Men; he pulled the rope of old Liberty Bell when it pealed the message of "Independence" across the land from its belfry in the building where Congress met!

Freedom Keeps Growing

Tommy didn't even stop with the heroes of the Revolution. "For," said he to himself, "Freedom has just kept on living and growing for almost two hundred years!" And just as the marchers stopped, Tommy mopped his brow for, in imagination, he was swinging the axe of Abe Lincoln, the rail splitter who, almost a hundred years later, preserved the Nation and made all of its people free!

"From here on," said Tommy, "I'm going to take a lot more interest in my country's history. I'm afraid we sometimes forget just how we came to inherit the freedoms of this great land, and how much it cost our Fore-Fathers to leave them to us. Certainly, no storybook holds more thrilling true adventures than my old history book!"

After the parade, people gathered in the park and stood with bowed heads as tribute was paid to the heroes of the ages who sleep the years away, and to the living who still hold high the torch of freedom.

The climax came with a bountiful meal from the lunch box Grandma had packed, and Tommy certainly cached his part of it all!

He spent the afternoon in visiting with his city chums, and he made his Grandfather's farm the envy of every boy who joined his group.

When it was time to start for home, Tommy sat between Mom and Dad so Grandpa and Grandma would have plenty of room to relax in the back seat and maybe Gramp wouldn't get any cramps in his legs on the way.

Tommy was still feeling patriotic when they turned in that night, and he finally went to sleep to the tune of "My Country 'tis of Thee," and a vision of happy Boy Scouts carrying Old Glory as they proudly marched past cheering throngs along the streets!

The next morning, bright and early, Mom and Dad returned to the city . . . but Tommy stayed on at the farm.

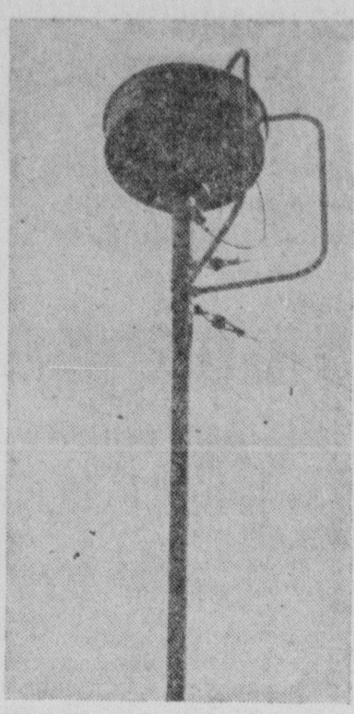
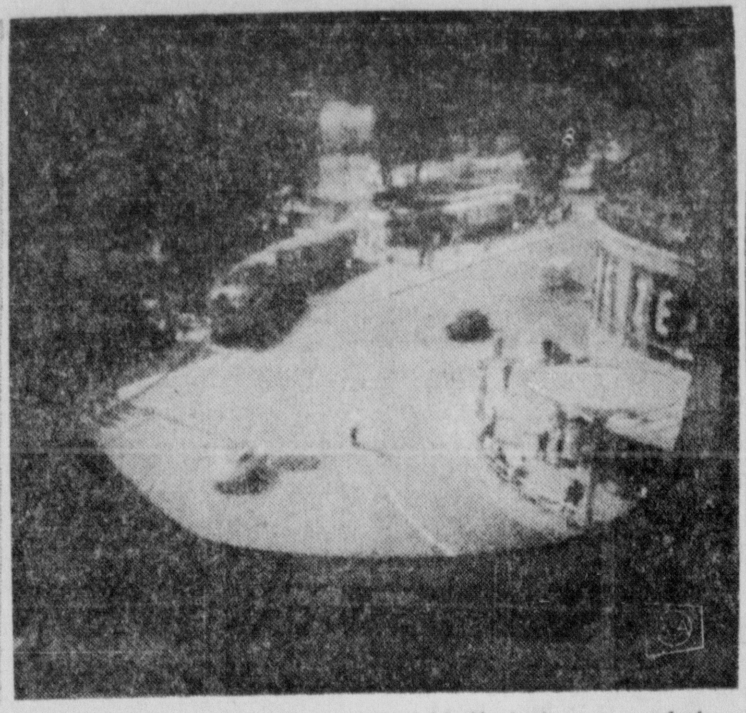
TV Eye—

A benevolent Big Brother is the single cop who controls one of the busiest intersections in Europe—the Karlsplatz in Munich, West Germany, a sprawling, subwayless city of 1,100,000. City engineers have tried different ways to move the traffic through the square smoothly but none have worked as well as an unblinking glass TV eye mounted atop a 50-foot pole. The officer is the sole audience for the telecast and its director too. No stalled Volkswagen or speeding Mercedes-Benz escapes him. Or pretty fraulein, either.

Munich's traffic is kept moving smoothly from this control panel at police headquarters. On the wall is a large map of the city dotted with blinking lights. The officer controls traffic lights and the TV camera by switches close at hand.



The TV camera, protected by a shield, transmits a bird's-eye view of the traffic situation back to nearby headquarters.



Visible on the TV screen is Munich's Karlsplatz, one of the busiest intersections in Europe. It is crisscrossed by 62 different walking and driving lanes and is clogged by about 85,000 autos, 3,000 streetcars plus pedestrians and cyclists.

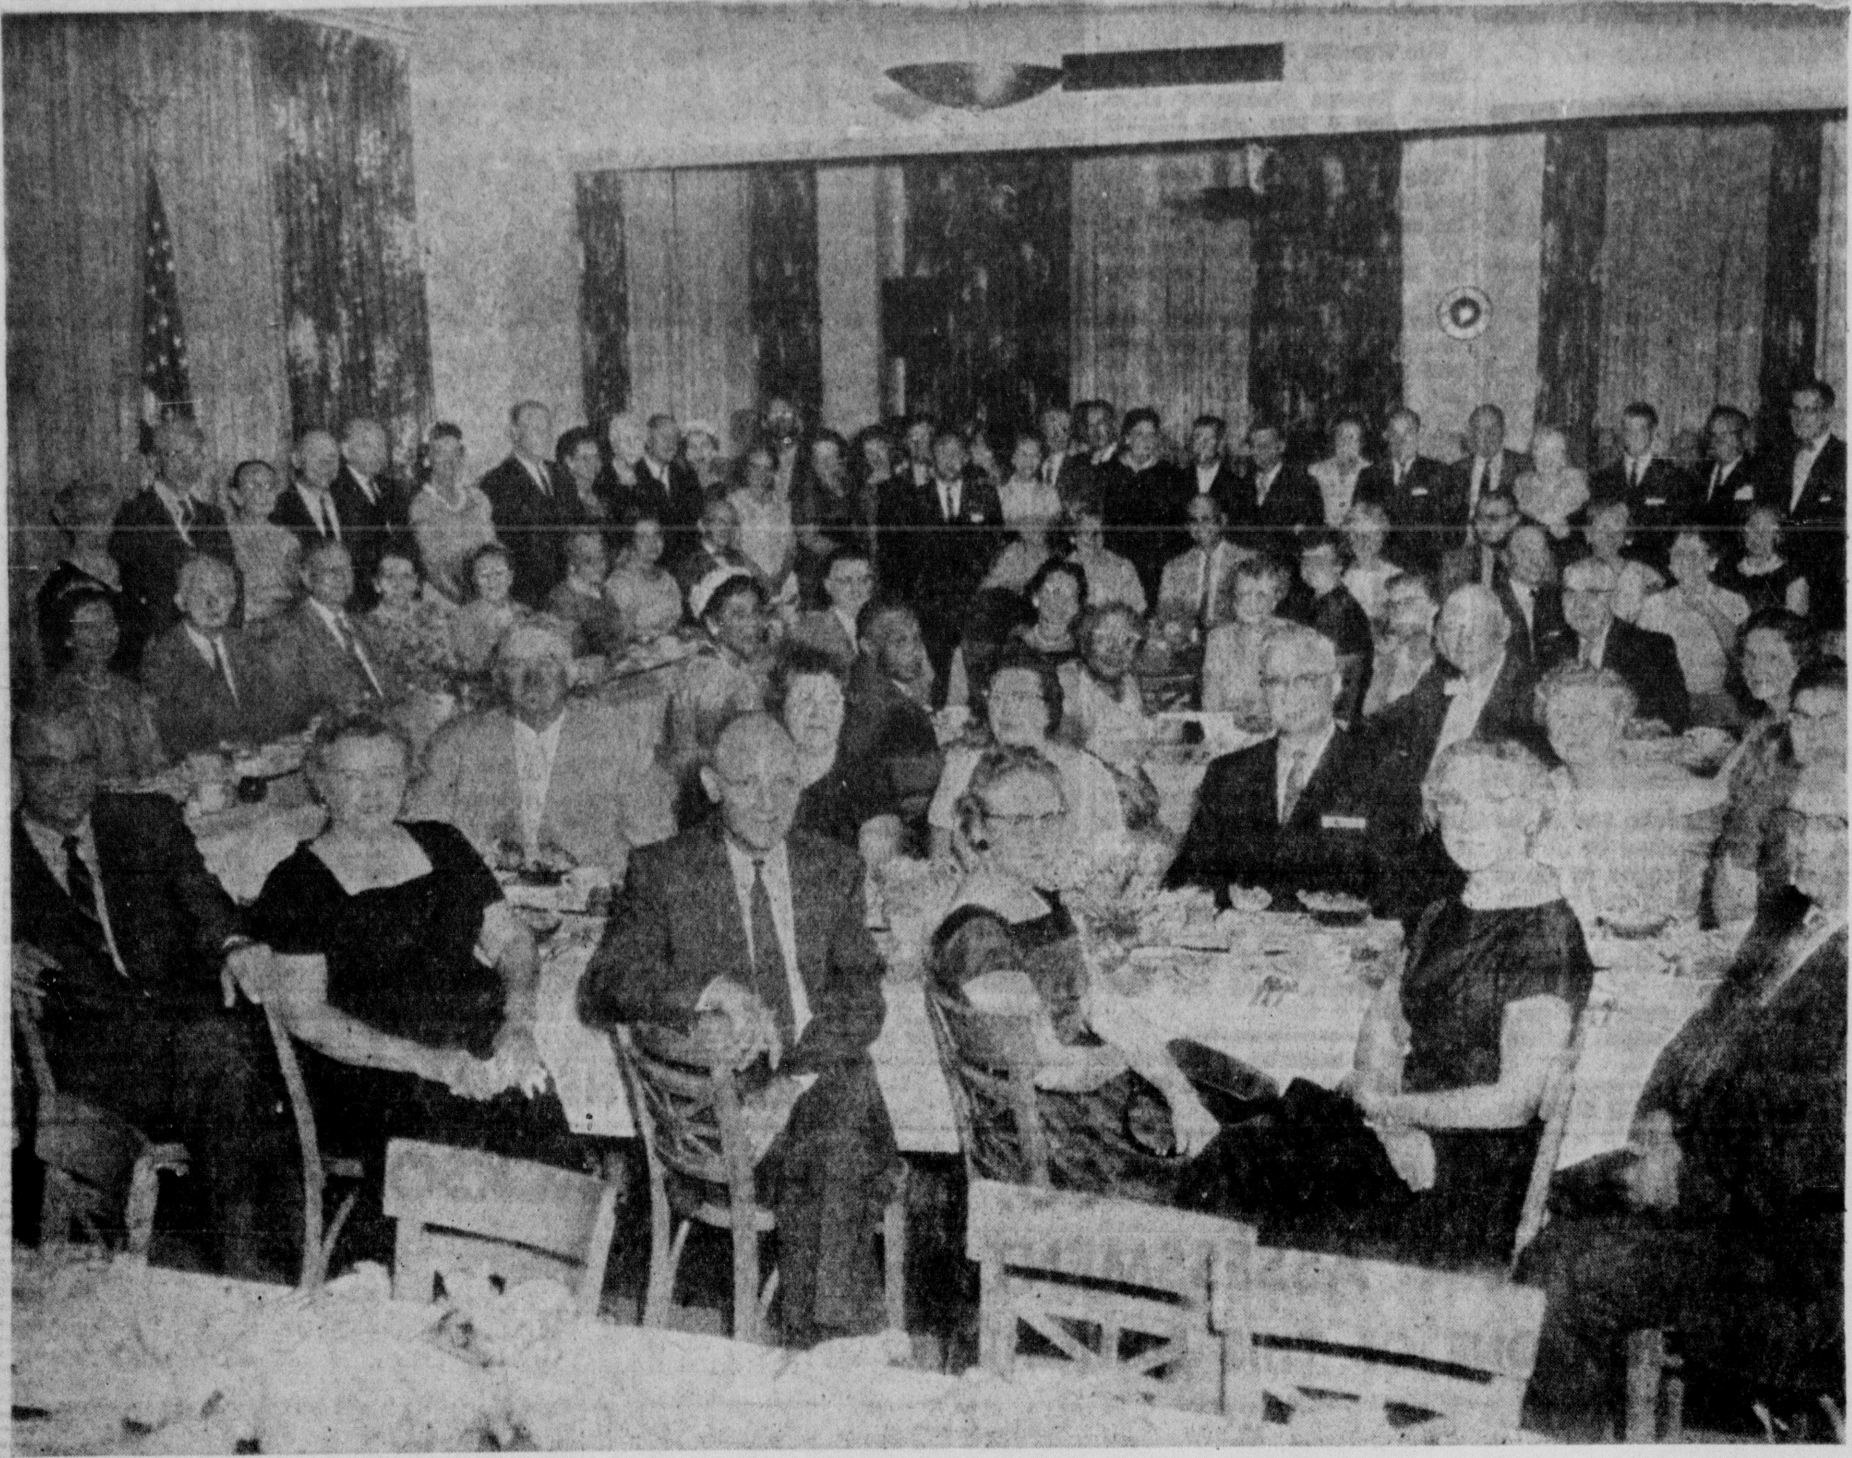
JHS Class Of 1924 Has 36th Reunion



Sunday evening, July 3, in the Illinois Room of the Dunlap Hotel 78 members of the Jacksonville High School class of 1924 gathered for their thirty-sixth anniversary.

Master of Ceremonies Harold Hopper called on a class member, Rev. Lee Baldwin of Galesburg, to give the invocation before the roast beef dinner was served. Musical accompaniment was furnished by Wilbur Rowland of Jacksonville.

Telegrams and letters were read from many class members and friends who were unable to be present. John Baird, former teacher now living in Los Angeles, Calif., sent a telegram and Emma Mae Leonard of Jacksonville now touring abroad a letter. A letter was also received from Mrs. Harry Stone written for her husband Rev. Stone who was ill.

The class colors of orange and black were used in the table decorations. The flowers were orange lilies and dyed black wild flowers which were very effective and ended to be a conversation piece.

After much betting on who had the most grandchildren the honor went to Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Heaton who had 13.

A most impressive memorial service was conducted by Mrs. Verne Waldron of Lubbock, Texas and Wilbur Rowland of Jacksonville for Elmer Yeck who died in 1957. Mr. Yeck was the only one who had passed away since the last reunion five years ago.

On the committee that planned the reunion were Mrs. Ralph Heaton, Mr. Bill Kitner, Lettsom Reid, Mrs. Harry Ezard, Ed Moy, Wilbur Rowland, Miss Margaret Gruny, Harold Campbell, Lynford Reynolds and Mrs. Harry Killam.

Because of the enthusiastic reception of this reunion plans were made for another gathering in 1965.

Officers of the class of 1924 were Harold Hopper, president; Margaret Curtis Moy, vice president; Sheldon Nicol, secretary, and Theodore Wetzel, treasurer.

Those Attending

Those attending the banquet and reunion were Mrs. Paul Woods, Beardstown; Ira Carter, Jacksonville; Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Cox and son Larry, Tulsa, Okla.; Mr. and Mrs. William Ransdell and daughter Nancy, Franklin; Rev. and Mrs. Lee Baldwin, Lona and Mark, Galesburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Armour Adkins, Ashland; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Killam, Chapin; Mr. and Mrs. Philip Bradish, Jacksonville; Mr. and Mrs. Russell Baker, Jacksonville; Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Ezard, Jacksonville; Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Dinwiddie, Jacksonville; Mrs. Ethel Cormick Lashmet, LaGrange; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Campbell, Franklin; Mrs. Dorothy Campbell Spaenhower, Jacksonville.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Cook, Oklahoma City, Okla.; Claude J. Cook, Franklin, Mich.; Alyce S. Douglass, Jacksonville; Mr. and Mrs. George Dodsworth, Independence, Mo.; Mrs. Dorothy Ellis Robinson, Woodstock, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. Werries, Winchester; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hopper, Glen Rock, N.J.; Mr. and Mrs. William Kitner, Jacksonville; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Welch, Springfield, Mo.; Mr. and Mrs. Edward Moy, Jacksonville; Miss Mary K. Montgomery, Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Osborne, Jacksonville; Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Olds, Elmhurst; Margaret Piepenbring Gruny, Jacksonville; Wilbur B. Rowland, Jacksonville; Mr. and Mrs. Lettsom Reid, Jacksonville; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Corrington, Jacksonville; Mr. and Mrs. George Schmalz, LaGrange; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Scholfield, Jacksonville; Miss Vida Sloan, Jacksonville.

Mr. and Mrs. Verne Waldron, Lubbock, Tex.; Bessie Purvis, Chicago; Theodore Wetzel, Lake Bluff, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Cruzan, Jacksonville; Mr. and Mrs. George Houston, Kirkwood, Mo.; Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Mutch, Ontario, Ore. Teachers attending were Mr. and Mrs. John May, Miss Lena Mae Hopper and Mrs. Bea Loomis.

Many who were unable to attend sent letters and telegrams.

Mrs. Joyce Steagall was organist and Mrs. Mary Jo McQueen was soloist.

For her matron of honor the bride chose Mrs. Mary Jo McQueen, cousin of the groom. Best man was Norman McQueen. Ushers were Jerry Lawless and Paul Russell Lewis, both cousins of the groom.

The bride wore a waltz length gown of pale rose lace over taffeta. She carried a white orchid on a Bible. Her only attendant wore a sheath dress of white lace and a corsage of red roses.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Carpenter wore a navy blue linen, the groom's mother a light blue eyelet.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church basement. Assisting were Miss Naydene Negus, Miss Dianne Negus, Mrs. Karen Carpenter, Miss Ruth Elaine Long, Miss Jeanne Cass and Mrs. Lois Cass.

On return from a honeymoon to the Ozarks the couple will reside in Alexander. The bride is employed at the Hertzberg-New Method Book Bindery and the groom at Capps Factory.

Roodhouse CWF Meets Tuesday

ROODHOUSE—The CWF of the Christian church met at the church Tuesday with the president, Mrs. Julian Sheppard, conducting the business session. The annual budget was voted upon. The meeting opened with the CWF prayer and pledge to the Christian flag.

It was announced that Mesdames Raymond Watkins and William Rees will organize a home mission group and use for their theme, "Heritage and Horizons in Home Missions." The group will be set up in September.

Mrs. William Russell will serve as worship chairman and will be in charge of the prayer study group. They will work with the book "Lord Teach Us To Pray." The theme for the general study group will be "Set Our Feet on Lofty Places."

Mrs. Ralph Benner, study chairman for Tuesday's meeting, presented "We Plant New Churches." In connection with the study a playlet was presented with the following participating: Miss Irma Fugger, Mrs. Russell, Mrs. Ralph Conyers, Mrs. J. E. Durham, Mrs. Watkins, Mrs. Benner, Mrs. Sheppard. Mrs. Grover Wallace served as narrator.

The worship service which followed, presented by Mrs. Russell, was on the same subject.

Did Success Of Japan's Riots Spark Commie Violence In Italy?

EDITOR'S NOTE — The writer of this analysis has been an Associated Press correspondent in Italy for 10 years.

By JAMES M. LONG

ROME (AP) — The Communist-led rioting that broke out in Italy this week seems to be a followup to the success of last month's riots in Japan.

There is no way of confirming this immediately, but Italian newspapers of independent strain are convinced that orders for Italy's wave of violence came from Moscow.

Italy has the biggest Communist party outside the Iron Curtain. It has played peaceful since it suffered defeats in street fighting in Italy in 1947-48. The Japanese riots which kept President Eisenhower out of Japan may have convinced some of the Red leaders here — or in Moscow — that a campaign of violent action can overthrow Italy's Christian Democratic government with its ties to the West.

The Reds picture their new demonstrations as protests against the Italian Fascist party, which polls about 6 per cent of the national vote.

But Interior Minister Giuseppe Spataro told Parliament this is only an excuse—that the Red-led battles with police were planned and provoked. He said Italy will use every means of force to preserve constitutional democracy.

The left says that if the government does not get out it will be "a government of civil war." The threat was backed up by Communist-called general strikes Thursday in almost every major Italian city.

In a week of street battles at least 200 police and 300 leftist demonstrators have been hurt, many of them badly. Several were killed.

A dozen years ago the fighters among Italy's two million communists battled police on streets and squares in almost every major city in an attempt to seize power by force.

They took a beating which brought Moscow orders to the Communist party headquarters in Rome and almost every other western European capital to switch to constitutional tactics of the ballot box and propaganda.

In Hollywood

By JAMES BACON
AP Movie-TV Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—A family can be reared in Hollywood successfully—but it's rugged, says MacDonald Carey, father of six.

"It's not the Hollywood people, surprisingly, who spoil their kids," said Carey. "It's the rich Beverly Hills crowd who come complete with indulgent grandmothers."

Carey's three boys and three girls range in age from 4 to 13. They attend the Good Shepherd Parochail School.

"A girl graduated this June from the eighth grade. Her grandmother gave her a diamond ring about the size of the one Zsa Zsa Gabor wears. Imagine that—for an eighth-grade graduation present?"

Betty Carey told of one of her children coming home one day and reporting that a playmate had received a million dollars.

"I couldn't believe it," says Mrs. Carey, "but my son said it was so."

She checked and it was. The million was put in a trust fund the boy will get when he's 21.

"These are not movie people but oil people, bankers and other assorted millionaires who live in Beverly Hills," Carey explains.

Carey, veteran movie actor and star of the TV series "Lockup" says he tries to bring up his family as his own was reared in Sioux City, Iowa.

The Carey children ride bicycles to school. Some of their friends show up in chauffeur-driven Rolls-Royces. Some of the Beverly Hills kids, even in the lower grades, are given candy allowances of $25 per week. Carey gives his older children $1.50 a week.

"They think I'm a miser now but they'll thank me when they grow up," he says.

The Careys live in a remodeled old English house on a pleasant Beverly Hills street. It's a big house with swimming pool—but it's lived in as any house with six kids would be.

Mac and Betty married in 1941 in Bryn Mawr, Pa. He was performing in radio soap operas. She was a Philadelphia socialite who aspired to a drama career.

She did one play and retired to being a housewife and mother.

Rotary Club Welcomes Two New Members

The regular meeting of Rotary Club was called to order by their new president Don Fahnestock on Friday noon and the official welcome was given to two new members, Thomas D. Rusinek and Walter Pruett, by Spike Dysinger.

Visitors to the club were Ray Watson, Henry, Ill., Herb Childs, Palmyra, N.Y., Ralph Roll, Mason City, Ill., and George Kreider, Springfield, Ill. Floyd Cox introduced his guest Bill Bear of Chicago.

The free meal was drawn for Earl Davis who was not present.

Mr. Fahnestock introduced Past District Governor Lloyd Coffman of Roodhouse who gave a report on the convention at Miami, Fla.

Wm. McCallister Dies; Services Will Be Sunday

PITTSFIELD—William McCallister, 82-year-old Pittsfield resident, passed away at the Illini Community Hospital about 5 a.m. Friday.

McCallister was born in Pike County Aug. 20, 1877, the son of Ben and Velvara Tedrow McCallister. His wife, the former Maude Shinn, preceded him in death about 40 years ago.

Survivors include three daughters, Mildred Bard of Tulsa, Okla., Pauline Winans of Lakeland, Fla., and Mary Cooper of Long Beach, Calif.; two sons, Claude and Harl McCallister, both of Chicago; 20 grandchildren; several great grandchildren and one brother, Ernie McCallister of Barry.

The body is at the Sutter Funeral Home where funeral services will be held at 3 p.m. Sunday. Rev. Rodney Miller will officiate. Burial will be in Taylor Martin Cemetery.

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The best covered convention in history — that's the radio-TV outlook for the Democratic parley when it begins Monday.

The man making the prediction is Bill Henry, and he should know. He's coordinator of radio-TV arrangements for both conventions and he's done the job since 1948.

"You won't be able to get away from the convention," Henry observed. "You'll see it in your living room, you'll hear it in your car; you'll even have it in the bathroom. No convention has ever been so widely covered on radio and TV.

"The reason is that it shapes up as a good fight. But the coverage of the Republican convention is going to be almost as big. I think that people sense this is going to be a hot campaign. Nobody is a sure winner, and this time an incumbent isn't running."

Henry added with a grin: "There's another reason the Democrats are getting such good coverage: Everybody wants to see Southern California."

Long-time columnist for the Los Angeles Times, Henry has also been a broadcaster since the early days of radio and will be reporting for NBC at both conventions. He told how he fell into his coordinator post:

"I helped out on arrangements at the 1944 conventions, where there was only radio, in 1948, when TV coverage was only a local affair in New York and Philadelphia, they needed help in setting it up. I was head of the House radio-TV gallery at the time, so I was enlisted.

"I've done it ever since. It's a thankless job and unpaid; I don't even get expenses. But the national committees need someone on the other side to help them weed out the station managers and salesmen who try to worm their way into a free seat."

Jack Christie, radio-TV director for the Democratic National Convention, reports that 980 persons have been accredited, aside from network personnel. Countries represented include Japan, Canada, Great Britain, France, Italy and several in South America.

Experts Say Dialects Dying Out In American Speech

NEW YORK (AP) — Listen to the roll of states at convention time:

"Ayalabayamah caysts elayuhvuhn votes foah — Mahsserchusserts cahsts sixteen vuhts fohuh—. Noo Yawk caasts foidy-six votes faw—'"

When Americans talk, you find the spoken word is one thing, the written word another. A traveler in the United States may feel he needs an interpreter for the dialects he hears.

But the experts say the ear-catching differences of American speech are dying out; that a cloak of conformity creeping over the language could even end the South's great phrase, "Y'awl cum bayuck naow."

A sameness sifting into our speech already has visitors to New York City understanding the cab driver's "Toidy-toid and Toid Avenoo."

And such Eastern seaboard specialties as the R that sneaks into idea and law, the H that falls from srimp (shrimp) and sreek (shriek) are fading fast.

It's an inevitable process, the speech experts say.

They blame natural change, mass communications, compulsory education, the mobility of restless Americans.

Allan H. Hubbell, associate professor of speech at New York university, predicts that within four generations virtually all regional U.S. speech differences will be gone. In their place will be the standardized, generally undistinctive speech of the American Midwest.

Midwesternese is not a type of speech beautiful to the ear. English as spoken in the north central states is considered by most purists as a horrible example of "Ahmerkuhn" at its worst; they cringe at the Midwest's "intruhst," (interest) "awflee" (awfully), "iny" (any).

"But it's a matter of geography and numbers,' Hubbell says. "Some 90 million speak it—more than any other speech form in the country. And it is spreading while other dialects are fading."

Hubbell himself was born in Brooklyn, home of kahlitch for college, moin for mine, daw for door.

But attendance at a New England college and marriage to an Englishwoman have taken away much of his Brooklynese.

"I do drop my R's as most New Yorkers do. But my two children (20 and 14 years old) have acquired R's—another sign of Midwest speech being adopted," Hubbell says.

Researchers ferreting out dialects like to talk to older folks who make a linguistic interview sparkle with such grammatical offshoots as "two of 'em' nough for me"—(New England); "I'd sure admire to set a spell"—(Mountain South) or "Make the window shut" — (Pennsylvania Dutch).

"But this is more and more the speech of the uneducated," Hubbell says. "Grandchildren of that generation use proper grammar."

Adding CHARM to YOUR Home

GROUP ACTIVITIES

If you are one of the many who have moved recently or have enlarged your home, and now find that your existing furnishings are not quite adequate—that you need something more to give your home that completed, well-furnished look—it is wise to consider the additions in terms of groups rather than piece by piece.

There are several reasons for this. Each piece in a well-planned group enhances the beauty and efficiency of the other pieces. Also, groups are better balancing units. For example, it would be difficult to offset a conversation group consisting of a sofa, tables, lamps and chairs with just one chair. But by using a pair of chairs and a table grouped together a sense of balance is achieved.

The chair and table group that fills in the large window area in the sketch above was planned as a balancing unit as well as furnishing additional seating facilities. In order to allow a sweeping view of the glorious landscape visible from the window, low pieces were chosen. Note how the group parallels the wide window. A single piece used here would, in all probability, create problems.

Whether you're buying one new piece, a group, or a whole houseful, we'd thoroughly enjoy helping you make selections from our extensive group of fine home furnishings. We stand staunchly behind every purchase you make from us. So come in today, shop with assurance.

Auto Damaged In Accident Early Friday Evening

Autos driven by Carlos Holder, 50 North Johnson street, and James R. Kitselman, 811 North Main street, were involved in a collision at the intersection of North Main street and Jordan alley at 7:08 p.m. Friday.

Both autos were headed south on Main. Holder stopped for traffic to clear and Kitselman, following the Holder auto, was unable to stop in time to avoid the collision.

The Holder auto, a 1949 Buick, was not damaged. Although the front end of the Kitselman auto, a 1950 Chevrolet, was damaged it was able to proceed under its own power.

Capt. Stafford, Sgt. Brune and Officer Cottingham attended at the scene.

Opening lead—♣Q

The game was match point duplicate and after South had located one ace and two kings by means of Blackwood he counted 13 top tricks. Seven hearts and two in each of the other suits. Hence, he bid the grand slam in no-trump to get that extra 10 points.

Unfortunately for South he had failed to allow for one thing. A singleton ace opposite a singleton king will produce only one trick, so when the dummy hit the table South saw that his 13 tricks had become only 12.

If South had contented himself with a seven heart bid he would have had an excellent play for that contract. All he would have have to do would be to establish dummy's fifth diamond.

At seven no-trump things looked bad indeed. However, there were two chances. The queen of diamonds might drop on two leads or there would be a squeeze if the queen of diamonds and the long spade were in the same hand.

The squeeze worked. South simply ran off all his hearts. He discarded two diamonds and two spades from dummy and the last heart squeezed East out of his spade protection.

Now South cashed the ace of diamonds; went over to dummy with the king of spades; discarded one spade on the king of diamonds and then found that the rest of his own spades were good.

Kiwanis Club Recognizes Best 4-H Public Speakers

THE WINNERS of the annual Morgan county 4-H club public speaking contest, held Wednesday evening at Farm Bureau hall, were Linda Mallicoat, of the Willing Workers, and Gerald Heaton, of the Lynnville Hustlers.

The judges were A. Paul Johnson of Ashland, Farm Adviser Arthur W. Haas of Brown county, and Mrs. Beverly Jackson, Schuyler-Brown home adviser.

The contest is sponsored by the Jacksonville Kiwanis club and Johnson, a member, presented the trophies to the two winners at the close of the contest.

This is the second consecutive year that Miss Mallicoat, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Mallicoat, Literberry, has won the contest. Her subject was "The Purpose and Aims of 4-H."

Heaton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Heaton, rural route 3, Winchester, used as his subject, "What 4-H Means to Me."

He and Miss Mallicoat will represent Morgan county at the state contest to be held Aug. 18 at the Illinois State Fairgrounds.

Wayne Strubbe served as vocalist with Carole Wessler as organist.

The bride chose as her only attendant Mary Beth Stubblefield of Jacksonville who wore a blue lace gown. Attendant to the groom was Ronald Camp.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, Mr. E. F. Hobson, was gowned in a Chantilly lace over satin gown and carried a bouquet of white carnations.

For her daughter's wedding the bride's mother wore a beige lace, the groom's mother a gold dress.

A reception was held following the ceremony at the bride's home with Miss Judy Martin assisting.

Upon return from a wedding trip the couple will reside in Meredosia. The bridegroom is employed at J. Capps and Sons in Jacksonville.

Ann Pearce Bride Of Richard E. Rodgers

An afternoon ceremony at Grace Methodist Church Sunday, June 26, united Miss Ann Pearce and Richard Eugene Rodgers. Ann is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Pearce and Richard is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Marshall G. Rodgers.

Dr. Frank Marston and Dr. McKendree Blair performed the double ring ceremony before an altar decorated with palms and ferns.

Mrs. G. O. Webster presided at the organ with Mrs. Gaylord Swisher as vocalist.

The bride chose for her maid of honor, Miss Irene Bonacorsi and her sister, Lynn Pearce, as junior bridesmaid. The attendants were gowned alike in pink chiffon over taffeta.

Robert Engebrecht served as best man. Ushers were Ronald Pearce, Rob Smith, Lee Davis and Judd Negus.

The bride wore a fitted gown with a regal air and graceful sweep in Chantilly lace over satin. She carried a cascade of feathered carnations centered with white orchids.

For her daughter's wedding the bride's mother wore a Dior blue lace over taffeta. The groom's mother wore a blue printed silk.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. Assisting were Mrs. Max Roegge, Mrs. Judd Negus, Mrs. John Taylor, Mrs. Harold Schmalz, Mrs. Walter Hamilton, Mrs. Harry Hammitt, Mrs. Lawrence Crawford and Mrs. Harry Crabtree.

On return from a honeymoon to Lake of the Ozarks the couple will make their home at 5715 Drexel Avenue, Chicago 37, Ill.

Mrs. Rodgers will teach in the elementary schools at Evergreen Park. The bridegroom is in his junior year at the University of Chicago Medical School.

Patricia Norris Wed In July 4 Ceremony

Patricia Ann Norris became the bride of Howard Frederick Schone in an impressive morning ceremony at the Church of Our Saviour July 4. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Kenneth Norris and the late Mr. Norris. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Schone, Chapin.

Father Robert Morris performed the double ring ceremony and the nuptial mass. Music was provided with Mrs. Alta Eisch at the organ and Mrs. Edward Bonacorsi was soloist.

For her attendants the bride chose Rita Marlene Smith and Carol Louise Proffitt.

Attendants to the groom were Glenn Schone, brother of the groom, and Michael Brown, cousin of the bride. Ushers were Robert Pahlmann, Clinton, Iowa, and Ronald Schone, Arenzville.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Donald Norris, was gowned in an embroidered nylon tulle. She carried a cascade of white carnations and ivy.

Her attendants were gowned alike in yellow silk organza.

The bride's mother chose for her daughter's wedding a light blue lace and the groom's mother a navy blue.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Dunlap Hotel with Miss Lavona Schone, sister of the groom, Miss Frances Casey, Mrs. Robert Pahlmann, Mrs. Sherwood Surratt, Miss Kay Williamson, Miss Wanda Waters and Miss Mary Jane Doolin assisting.

On return from a wedding trip to the northern states and Canada the couple will reside in Chapin.

Mrs. Schone is employed at the Elliott State Bank and her husband is engaged in farming near Chapin.

Leroy McDaniel Receives Safe Driving Award

BAUMHOLDER, Germany (AHTNC)—Army PFC Leroy W. McDaniel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred McDaniel, Franklin, recently received a safe driver award while assigned to the 664th Ordnance Company in Germany.

McDaniel won the award for driving military vehicles 6,000 miles without an accident or traffic violation.

The 19-year-old soldier entered the Army in June, 1958, and received basic combat training at Fort Leonard Wood, Mo. He was stationed at Fort Dix, N. J., before arriving overseas in December, 1958.

McDaniel is a 1958 graduate of Franklin high school.

Braves Bristle Over By-Passing Spahn In NL All-Star Choices

By DAVE O'HARA
Associated Press Sports Writer

MILWAUKEE (AP)—Is there any sentiment in All-Star squad selections? Apparently not for a pitcher — even if his name is Warren Spahn.

One of baseball's surest bets for the Hall of Fame, the Milwaukee southpaw great was by-passed in the selections this year for only the third time since he clinched a regular job with the Braves in 1946.

And at the age of 39, Spahn doesn't figure to have many more chances for a berth in the annual All-Star classic.

The old warhorse with a fistful of records listened intently as the names of the 10 National League pitchers were listed by a writer. He shrugged his shoulders and was silent for a moment. It was obvious his fierce pride had been wounded.

"That's the way it goes," he said finally. "It's an honor to be chosen, but everyone can't be picked."

Although Spahn took the news quietly, many of his teammates bristled. The "sentimental" choices of sluggers Ted Williams and Stan Musial came in for discussion.

"I don't know how they could leave Spahn off," said Lew Burdette, a 1959 selection who also failed to make the squad this year. "How many times has he been on the team? Twelve? Well, he deserved to be picked."

"He should have been a hitter instead of a pitcher," was the facetious comment of another in the clubhouse.

"How could they pick (Bill) Henry (of Cincinnati) and (Johnny) Podres (of Los Angeles) over him?" asked another.

If Spahn did have any anger, he took it out on the Philadelphia Phillies Thursday night as he fired a five-hitter and struck out 10 in a 2-0 victory that boosted his mark to 8-5 for the year.

The victory was No. 275 for Spahn, the top left-handed winner in National League history, and tied him with Early Wynn of the Chicago White Sox for 14th place among baseball's all-time pitching ranks.

A few other records held by Spahn include: major league mark for most seasons 20 or more victories by a southpaw (10); most shutouts by a National League left-hander (48), and most home runs by a National League pitcher (24). In addition, he is only three strikeouts shy of 2,000, a feat accomplished by only 11 other pitchers in history.

Ring Magazine Tabs Patterson Fighter Of Month

NEW YORK (AP)—Floyd Patterson won the Ring Magazine's "fighter of the month" award as well as the world heavyweight championship when he knocked out Ingemar Johansson June 20. Johansson was dropped to fourth place among the challengers in the magazine's monthly ratings.

Since Patterson is the first heavyweight to regain the title his choice was natural. Johansson was placed behind Sonny Liston, Zora Folley and Eddie Machen.

Paul Pender still is listed as the middleweight champion, with Gene Fullmer, recognized by the NBA as the titleholder, the No. 1 challenger.

A familiar name bobbed up in the light heavyweight list. Carl (Bobo) Olson, once middleweight champion, took over the No. 7 spot in the heavier class as a result of his upset victory over Mike Holt of South Africa.

135 YEARS OF GOLFING TEACHES TRIO TO LOOK FOR TOMORROW

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—So the score soars to the high 80s. There's always tomorrow.

A surgeon, engineer and attorney, who think they're the country's oldest active golfing threesome, share this youthful enthusiasm for the game. Together their ages total 241 and they've been golfers a total of 135 years.

"We keep coming back for the same reason everyone else does," explained 89-year-old John Chandler, the attorney.

"We think we'll do better tomorrow."

Dr. George Altman, G. K. Chapman, a retired engineer, and Chandler play at least twice a week at Seneca, a hilly course that sometimes the youngsters shun.

Usually they carry their own clubs. They play 12 holes—sometimes 15—depending on how hot the sun shines or how hard the snow.

Chapman and Dr. Altman are mere 76-year-olds.

Pizarro, Piche Stop Reds, 6-3

MILWAUKEE (AP)— Juan Pizarro held the Cincinnati Reds to two hits and one run through eight innings Friday night before he weakened in the ninth and had to get help from young Ron Piche before the Milwaukee Braves could come through with a 6-3 victory.

The Puerto Rican southpaw did a fine job before the roof caved in on him in the final innings when the Reds greeted him with three extra base hits that scored two runs with none out. Piche then struck out Frank Robinson and got pinch hitter Jerry Lynch and Harry Anderson to fly out to end the game.

Pizarro, who got credit for the victory, now is 5-2 for the season and has a 5-1 edge over the Reds. The loser was the Red's starter Jay Hook who now is 7-8.

PHILLIES' MEYER UNDERGOES SURGERY

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Jack Meyer, Philadelphia Phillies pitcher, Friday underwent what was described as delicate spinal surgery for a herniated disc.

Meyer was injured in Pittsburgh May 28.

He was fined an estimated $1,000 by the Phillies who contended he injured himself while indulging in horseplay with teammates. Meyer said he was injured while pitching.

While the operation is described as delicate, other athletes have undergone similar surgery and resumed their careers.

Meyer has a 3-1 record this season.

VEECK ORDERED OUT OF TOWN

CHICAGO (AP)— Chicago White Sox President Bill Veeck has been ordered out of town.

Veeck, who was released from Mercy Hospital Friday, was told by his physician to get away from baseball for four or five days. A June 25 operation was required to amputate three inches above his right knee, the seventh such operation since he was wounded as a Marine in World War II.

The sport-shirt-wearing Veeck and his wife are leaving Chicago on a short vacation.

Monbouquette Hurls Last Place Boston To 8-0 Win

BOSTON (AP)—Nerveless Bill Monbouquette pitched last-place Boston to an 8-0 victory over New York's American League leaders Friday night, humbling the Yankees on a seven-hit shutout.

The 23-year-old right-hander fashioned his eighth victory of the season by mowing down the New York siege guns with the same methodical nonchalance he attacked a large wad of chewing gum.

Monbouquette got all the support he needed when the Red Sox scored two runs on four singles in the fourth inning.

Boston came up with its other six tallies in the seventh when 10 men went to the plate. he only hits of the spree were Willie Tasby's three-run homer, and Frank Malzone's three-run, pop-fly double to left.

PHILADELPHIA (AP)— Relief pitcher Dick Farrell singled to right field scoring Ruben Amaro in the 10th inning to give the Philadelphia Phillies a 6-5 victory over the Pittsburgh Pirates Friday night in the first game of a twi-night doubleheader.

The 3-hour and 10-minute game wound up in a scene of wild disorder as Amaro slid into home plate and was called safe by umpire Ed Vargo on Roberto Clemente's throw to catcher Bob Oldis.

The Pirates surrounded the umpire and protested violently with Oldis being thrown out of the game—after it was over — for shoving the official.

Navy, California, Syracuse Crews Make Rowing Finals

By MURRAY ROSE
Associated Press Sports Writer

SYRACUSE, N.Y. (AP)—Navy's varsity and plebe crews, plus California and the underdog Syracuse Alumni Rowing Assn. Friday gained the eight-oared finals of the Olympic rowing trials after another series of pulse-pounding races.

Syracuse and California won the thrilling semifinals as the twin Middie entry captured second place in both to become the first college or club ever to put two crews into Saturday's eight-oared finals.

In the rain-delayed first heat, pace-setting Syracuse scored by a half-length over the Navy varsity. The Middies nosed out Cornell's varsity for the second qualifying position with Washington fourth and last.

Then California's poised Golden Bears led all the way in the second race.

The big battle was between the plebes and the Cornell junior varsity for second. The Plebes, in a bow-to-bow fight with the Big Red Jayvees, closed powerfully to earn the place by just under a half-length. Pennsylvania was fourth, two lengths back of the winners.

Penn had whipped Brown and Washington had beaten Harvard in morning "second-chance" repechages to enter the semifinals. The extra effort undoubtedly weakened them.

Syracuse was clocked in 6:57.8 for the 2,000 meters (1¼ miles) on Onondaga Lake followed by Navy's varsity, 6:59.8, Cornell University 7:01.2, and Washington, 7:03.8.

California's time, under far better weather conditions, was 6:29. Navy's plebes were timed in 6:31, Cornell's Jayvees in 6:32.6, and Penn in 6:37.2.

Lemon Replaces Pascual On All-Star Team

CHICAGO (AP) — American League President Joe Cronin announced Friday night that outfielder Jim Lemon of Washington will replace teammate Camilio Pascual on the All-Star team.

The selection was made by Chicago White Sox Manager Al Lopez who will be in charge of the American League stars when they play the National League stars in Kansas City on Monday.

Pascual, a right-handed pitcher, has been bothered by a strain suffered six weeks ago.

Hollywood Derby Draws Field Of Nine 3-Year-Olds

INGLEWOOD, Calif. (AP)—The $100,000-added Hollywood Derby at Hollywood Park Friday drew nine 3-year-olds on the eve of its 20th running.

The two standout colts, each carrying high weight of 122, appeared to be Ralph Lowe's New Policy and the C. R. Mac Stable's T. V. Lark.

The others, each carrying 110 pounds, are Nagea, Tempestuous, Henrijan, Blank Check, Prince Blessed, First Balcony and Top Caliber.

The distance is a mile and one-quarter, with post time 5:35 p.m.

If all nine reach the starting gate, the net value will be $114,800 and the winner will collect $67,700.

Senators Down Baltimore, 9-5

BALTIMORE (AP)—The Washington Senators downed the Baltimore Orioles 9-5 Friday night, taking advantage of four Oriole errors.

Four of the Senators' runs were unearned as they scored three times in the second inning and added four more in the fifth. Washington added another counter in the eighth and one in the ninth on Don Dobbeck's homer.

Pedro Ramos went the distance and was credited with his fifth triumph against nine losses. Jack Fisher was the loser, bringing his won-lost record to five and seven.

Hints Russ Pact With E. Germany In September

VIENNA (AP) — Nikita Khrushchev hinted today that Soviet Union may sign a peace treaty with Communist East Germany in September.

"I will tell you a secret," Khrushchev told correspondents in Vienna.

"We have information from West Germany that the West German Federal Parliament may meet in West Berlin in September. This is another provocation.

"We will consider with our friends Otto Grotewohl and Walter Ulbricht whether it would be possible to sign at this time a peace treaty with the German Democratic Republic (East Germany)."

"This," he continued, "would mean that all members of the West German Parliament would have to ask for a visa from the East German government in order to return to West Germany."

Earlier, Khrushchev had emphatically declared that he considers West Berlin to be on the soil of East Germany.

Khrushchev compared Chancellor Konrad Adenauer to Hitler again and said the West German leader would be smashed "if he attempted to touch" any country in the Communist bloc.

Khrushchev blasted Adenauer in answer to a question at a news conference in the closing hours of his nine-day state visit to Austria. He apologized to Chancellor Julius Raab for making such remarks on Austrian soil but said it was his "duty not to evade any question.'"

The United States, West Germany and Italy all have protested to Raab against Khrushchev's attacks on them during his visit.

World Record Setting Larsen Goes To Minors

KANSAS CITY (AP)— Don Larsen, who pitched the only perfect game in World Series history, was sent to the minors Friday.

The Kansas City Athletics, with whom the big 30-year-old righthander had an 0-5 record this season, was optioned to Dallas-Fort Worth of the American Assn.

Larsen achieved baseball immortality in the fifth game of the 1956 World Series, when the New York Yankees regained the championship from Brooklyn. He retired all 27 men he faced, finally putting a called third strike past a pinch-hitter for the last out and a 2-0 victory before 64,519 fans at Yankee Stadium.

He had been a Yankee just two years then, helping New York to the pennant with a 9-2 record.

He had an 11-5 record in 1956, won 10 and lost 4 in 1957, was 9-6 in 1958 and 6-7 last season. Then the Yankees traded him to the A's in a seven-player swap.

He had lost 11 games in a row. His last victory was more than a year ago.

Larsen managed only a 55-63 record for his eight seasons in the majors after breaking in with the old St. Louis Browns in 1953. He had spent four years in the minors.

He had pitched 47 2-3 innings in 13 games for the seventh-place A's this season, giving up 25 earned runs for a 4.69 ERA.

White Sox Make It 3 Straight; Stop Indians, 4-1

CHICAGO (AP)—The fourth-place Chicago White Sox made it three straight over Cleveland's slumping Indians with a 4-1 decision Friday night and gained ground on all three clubs ahead of them.

Chicago inched within ½ game of Baltimore, 1½ games of Cleveland and 4½ games of league leading New York. Baltimore lost to Washington 9-5 and Boston shutout New York 8-0.

A crowd of 48,031 saw southpaw Frank Baumann ride out a troublesome second inning and record his fifth triumph against four losses. Baumann limited the Tribe to six hits, walked two and struck out none.

Favorites Set Sensational Pace In AAU Decathlon

EUGENE, Ore. (AP) — The favorites in the combined AAU and Olympic decathlon tryouts set a sensational pace Friday.

After three events, three Americans were bettering last year's world record performance of Russian Vasily Kuznetsov.

The three are Rafer Johnson, former UCLA star and former world recordholder; Mike Herman of New York City, and Dave Edstrom of the University of Oregon.

K. C. Yang of Formosa, defending AAU champion, also was ahead of the world record pace.

Results included:

Tom Waddell of Wykoff, N. J., 3,823 points; Paul Herman, Canoga Park, Calif., 3,791; Bob Gutowski of the Marines, 3,756.

In the Stanley Cup hockey playoffs last April, Jacques Plante of the Canadians turned in three shutouts in eight games.

The high point boy for the meet was Stuart Hemphill who won three first places and was a member of the relay team. Judy Ferry and Candy Aichele took top honors for the girls. Judy won two firsts and was a relay member. Candy won two first and a third.

The next meet will be held Sunday, July 10, at the Mt. Hawley Country Club in Peoria.

Palmer Whittles Nagle's Lead To Four Strokes As Cloudburst Floods Course

By WILL GRIMSLEY
Associated Press Sports Writer

ST. ANDREWS, Scotland (AP)—A cloudburst flooded old St. Andrews Friday and forced postponement of the final round in the British Open Golf Championships until Saturday with Arnold Palmer of Latrobe, Pa., now only four strokes behind leader Kel Nagle of Australia.

The rallying Palmer, Nagle and Roberto de Vicenzo of Mexico, the leader at the halfway point, all finished their third rounds just before the deluge started. Palmer, who has won the U. S. Open and Masters this year with scorching finishes, had come in with a 70.

Nagle had a 71 for his tour of the Old Course where par is 36-37—73. De Vicenzo had a 75.

Nagle took the lead at 207. His playing partner, De Vicenzo, slumped visibily from his hot 67 pace of the first two days and landed at 209. Palmer and Syd Scott, 47-year-old British pro, are deadlocked at 211.

Palmer played perfect golf for the first 16 holes, then three-putted the last two.

He was bitterly disappointed both over his sluggish finish and the postponement, the second in the 100-year history of this oldest of golf championships. He started the day seven shots back of De Vicenzo. The delay figures to help the leaders—Nagle and De Vincenzo—and work to the disadvantage of Palmer, who was just beginning to roll when the awesome rains came.

Obviously fired up as he was on the final day of the Masters and the Open, Palmer began an electric charge at the leaders from the very beginning.

Hitting powerful drives which drew exclamations from the normally subdued Scottish galleries, he ran in birdies on the second, and fifth holes and turned in 34, two under par for the first nine.

At the 13th Palmer sank his first really good putt of the round—a 12-footer over two tricky rolls of green. He rolled up his sleeves meaning he was moving.

He proceeded to birdie the 13th and 14th, then parred his way to the 17th, only to bogey the last two holes for a 36.

Palmer blamed bad advice from his caddy, a 29-year-old Scot, for his bad play on the last two holes.

"Usually, I make up my own mind, but he had he using a wedge instead of a nine - iron at the 18th," Arnold said. "But it's my fault. I should do what I think is best."

Defending champion Gary Player shot a 72 for 215. Peter Thomson of Australia, a four-time winner, skied to a 75-216.

IL Transfers Cuban Team To Jersey City

MONTREAL (AP)—President Frank Shaughnessy of the International League Friday ordered the transfer of the Havana Sugar Kings to Jersey City. The Cuban-studded club probably will play its first game at a new "home" next Friday.

Shaughnessy's announcement came after he had sent a message to Roberto Maduro, president of the Havana club, notifying him of his decision.

The message said an emergency exists in Havana and that the safety and welfare of baseball personnel in the Cuban capital "is or might be endangered."

"I therefore direct that the Havana franchise be transferred to Jersey City if a suitable lease can be secured for Roosevelt Stadium," the message read.

In Jersey City, Parks Commissioner, Bernard J. Berry, assured Shaughnessay no difficulties would be encountered in working out an acceptable lease for Roosevelt Stadium, which seats 25,000.

The Sugar Kings have a working agreement with the Cincinnati Reds of the National League and many of their players are U.S. citizens. Havana's next "home" game is July 15 against Columbus.

SOUTHPAW FOOLED HER

The 11-year-old girl Little Leaguer made four trips to the plate Thursday and flied to center twice grounded out once and popped to first.

"The left-hander fooled me" Beverly said later. "He was the first southpaw I faced this season."

Her English teammates, however, came up with six runs in the final inning to win 12-5, and take over first place in the Tri-County League. Beverly's average is now .500.

Eddie Erdelatz, former Navy football coach, will coach the Oakland Raiders in the new American Football League this fall.

THE STORY: Marvin Leeds, a lawyer, calls on Artemus Baldwin with a proposition which he calls a "business opening." Baldwin, a Secret Service operative, knows Leeds has had his luggage searched and has found a bogus dodger which identifies Baldwin as a wanted criminal.

* * *

"Sweet Lips Chavez," said Artemus, "did a stretch for the Yaqui caper. I hear he's dead."

Leeds bent his brows as if in an effort to remember. "The name," he said, "isn't familiar to me."

"What do I get to know?" Artemus asked.

"You know me," Leeds said. "That'll do for the present."

"Take it or leave it, eh?" Artemus said.

"There's Chicago to think about," Leeds said blandly.

"You read all that paper said?" Artemus asked.

"It said you were a dangerous man." Leeds was genial. He might have been carrying on an amiable conversation with a friend. He shrugged and held out both his palms with an expressive gesture. "Watch," he said. "Watch closely." There was a blur as his left, not his right, hand moved. The flash of movement stopped and the hand held an automatic pointed steadily at Artemus' stomach. It vanished again as swiftly as it had appeared. "Not dangerous," he said; "just quick."

"You're good," Artemus said.

"So," asked Leeds, "where do we go from here?"

"What's my cut?" Artemus asked.

"You take the jack pot," Leeds said. "Deducting expenses, of course."

"Said the spider to the fly."

"Could be," Leeds said. "Fish, cut bait or get out of the boat."

Artemus pretended to consider this ultimatum. "Do I furnish my own pigeon?" he asked after a moment's hesitation.

"There's one set up for you," Leeds said. "A pushover. Gentleman from the deep South. Professional gentleman who never soiled his hands with sordid toil. Got scissors-cramp from clipping coupons."

"That," said Artemus, "would be Col. Semmes Bedford Beauregard."

"None other," Leeds answered.

"Thanks," said Artemus, "for the ticket to the ball game."

"We think things out," Leeds said.

"Suppose he had given me the brushoff."

"Unlikely," Leeds answered. "Pretty girl. Stranger in town. Lonesome, with no one to play with except papa. You're a good-looking chap. Maybe you go to the wrong tailor."

"What's the matter with my tailor?" snapped Artemus.

"No offense, friend. You're not exactly Harvard. But the old gentleman would expect some defects in a Northerner. We figured you'd pass."

* * *

Artemus let it be seen that his feelings were hurt. "I ain't so wrong as all that," he protested.

Leeds was confident he had found Artemus' Achilles' heel—an inferiority complex, a haunting ambition to be socially right. It was a weakness that might be played upon.

"You'll be traveling with a different set," Leeds assured him. "In six months you'll pass for a member of the Racquet Club. Maybe you'll even be a member."

Artemus veered back abruptly to the main object of the meeting. "Where do I get the Yaquis?" he asked.

"They'll appear," Leeds assured him. "Are we all set?"

"It looks," Artemus said grumpily, "like I can't duck it."

Artemus rented riding horses at the Casa Blanca stables. He called for Jennifer Beauregard at the hotel, and by nine o'clock they were in his car on their way out to Paradise Valley. Jennifer did not wear jeans, as was the almost universal custom, but beautifully tailored jodhpurs calculated adeptly not to deface the lovely contours of her legs. Her scarlet silk shirt was open at the throat and she was hatless.

Artemus, as most dudes do on a first visit, had gone Western and rather overdone it. He wore ornate cowboy boots and store-fresh dungarees and a flamboyant shirt embellished with piping. He had selected a white sombrero. It was a carefully achieved effect. Just a little wrong in every detail.

Jennifer seemed to be enjoying herself and rode contentedly. But, Artemus thought, there was no progress in silence.

"You lived a lot in Europe," he blurted.

"I went to school in Switzerland," she answered. "I like it here better."

"In Paris, in London, Rome," she explained, "you move in a certain set. You know a certain sort of people. Here the lines aren't sharply drawn."

* * *

"In Europe you couldn't go riding with a man like me?"

"I probably never would meet a man like you," she answered frankly.

"You'd high-hat me?"

"No," she answered, "I simply wouldn't be aware of you."

"So you like the way it is here—being able to play around with a jasper like me?"

"Yes," she said.

"But I might be a wrong one," he said.

"Quite likely you are," she said and smiled. "That would make it more amusing."

"But," he said, "you might fall for me."

"Attracted by the novelty?" she asked, and laughed softly. "Well, Mr. Baldwin, if I should fall for you that would be a real adventure, wouldn't it?"

Scholarships Awarded To Greene County Students

ROODHOUSE — State Teacher Education Scholarships have been awarded to the top three students of each high school in Greene County as reported by the principals of each high school to Mrs. Thelma C. Wilkinson, County Superintendent of Schools. These are to be used in teacher preparation and are valid for four years.

The successful students in Greene County are: Carrollton Community Unit 1, Joyce Schroeder, Jo Helton, Darla Havelka; White Hall Community Unit 2, Judith Seely, Pamela Eastham, Janet Collins; Greenfield Community Unit 10, James Clothier, Charles Hazelwood, Gary Bettis and Roodhouse Community High School, Valerie Shipton, Barbara Hallock, Roger Dean Barnett.

After July 1, 1960, a pool of scholarships will make available others for students in the county. To be eligible, the student must be in the upper half of his class and report to his principal that he wishes to apply for it.

James Powell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Powell, Hillview, Ill., and a graduate of White Hall Community Unit No. 2 High School in the class of 1960, has been awarded the Child of a Veteran of World War II Scholarship at the University of Illinois.

Announce Marriage

Mr. and Mrs. James Farrell are announcing their marriage which took place on June 17. Mrs. Nellie Barth and James Farrell were united in marriage at the First Baptist Church parsonage on that date. The single ring ceremony was performed by the pastor, Rev. H. L. Janvrin. Serving as witnesses were Joe Hopkins and Ernst Janvrin.

Mrs. Farrell chose a summer weight light blue street length dress with white accessories for her wedding.

Mr. Farrell is employed on the GM and O railroad and the couple reside in an apartment at the home of Mrs. Grace Sawyer.

Personals

Staff Sgt. and Mrs. Paul Barth and daughter, Forbes Air Force Base, Topeka, Kansas, are expected here for a visit with his mother, Mrs. Jim Farrell, and husband.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Reynolds attended a family dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Reynolds, Rockbridge, Sunday.

Holiday visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Beck have been his mother, Mrs. Myrtle Beck, White Hall; his aunt, Mrs. Irene Creager, and daughter, Mrs. Ruth Anderson, Chicago; an uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Smith, Lincoln; and the Becks' daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Ash, Alton.

Jerseyville To Ballot On Water Bond Issue

JERSEYVILLE — At its meeting Tuesday evening, the Jerseyville city council voted in favor of retaining a fiscal agent for the water bond issue election set for August 30. City Attorney Alvin H. Petitt was authorized to draw up an ordinance providing for the Municipal Research Agents of Chicago to act as the agent, subject to final approval at the time the ordinance is presented.

It was also voted taht the council of the city advertise for bids for the sale and removal of the old house on the corner of Lafayette and Carpenter streets recently bought by the municipality. Bids for the removal of the dwelling and clearing of the premises will be opened at the council meeting on July 19th.

Miss Betty Smith of Jerseyville was appointed deputy city clerk to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of the former deputy clerk, Miss Janet Stone, who has gone to California.

Fern R. Rauch from the Illinois Department of Labor was present and discussed with the council and water board a complaint which was received by him concerning new construction being done in the city with maintenance crews which should have been let to contractors. Rauch left some information with the water board which would clarify the situation.

The city is also accepting bids for a new five horsepower rotary type mower for the cemetery department.

Rockwood Families Hold Reunion At Hierman Home

The descendants of the late Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Rockwood of Bluffs, Ill. held their second annual reunion at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Aldo Hierman near Arenzville July 3. All of the living sons and daughters were present. They were Homer G. Rockwood, G. C. Rockwood, Sam D. Rockwood, Mrs. Maude Vannier and Mrs. Helen Hierman.

At noon a bountiful carry-in dinner was served from tables on the large screened porch and tables available on the spacious shady lawn for eating. The afternoon was spent socially. Group pictures were taken. Mrs. Pearle Rockwood Dunbar of Berwyn contributed the beautiful historical decorated cake bearing the inscription "Rockwood 1628-1960."

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Homer G. Rockwood, Winchester, Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Rockwood and grandchildren, James, Mark, Bruce and Elizabeth Rockwood, Mr. and Mrs. Sam D. Rockwood, all of Springfield. Mrs. Maude Vannier, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Danforth and son Keith Alan of Decatur, Dr. and Mrs. Jean M. Dunbar, Berwyn, Mr. and Mrs. B. N. Rockwood, Riverside, Mr. and Mrs. Harvard Johnson, North Riverside.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Ohlenkamp, Bloomington, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Chambers and grandchildren, Charlotte, Barbara and Pete Chambers, Naples.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Vortman and daughter Janice, Bluffs, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Deitrick and daughters Deborah and Rebecca of Peoria, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Dolan and daughter Nancy of Sullivan and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Aldo Hierman.

One birth was recorded during the year since the reunion held July 1959, Keith Alan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Danforth, a great grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Rockwood.

About 4,500 stars are visible to the naked eye on a clear night.

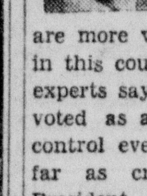
As I See It

by E. W. BROWN



Time was when the standard barbershop joke in this country was "a woman president." But the laughing's over, men. Because, according to the latest statistics, it could happen. Recent figures show that all of a sudden there are more women of voting age in this country than men. And experts say that if the gals all voted as a group, they could control every election, even as far as creating a Madame President. They've only been voting in national elections for 40 years. The first year, 1920, only a quarter of the eligible gals voted. In '56 they turned out 57.6%. This year the experts predict even more, and since there are over 3 million more voting age women than men, the gals are going to outvote us for the first time in history. So there you are, men. The handwriting is on the wall . . . and the election ballot.

In a Louisiana town, state fish and game agents donated to public school lunchrooms four tons of confiscated undersized shrimp. A large fry for small fry. Small fry and large fry alike will enjoy riding in one of our good clean used cars. Dad will appreciate the smooth, trouble-free performance of these mechanically-sounds automobiles. And Mom and the kids will like the clean, well-kept interiors and exteriors. Come in and see them soon. E. W. Brown, 406 South Main. Phone 5-4333.

OUT OF THE DEPTHS—What looks like a strange new weapon landing on a hostile beach is actually a Navy experimental device climbing out of the ocean off California. Dubbed RUM (for "remote underwater manipulator"), it is essentially a tank equipped with a long, jointed manipulator arm and hand together with special television cameras. Its purpose is to observe the ocean floor, collect samples and perform other research functions. RUM can operate at depths of 20,000 feet and maintain a speed of three miles an hour.

Merry Doshans Meet At School

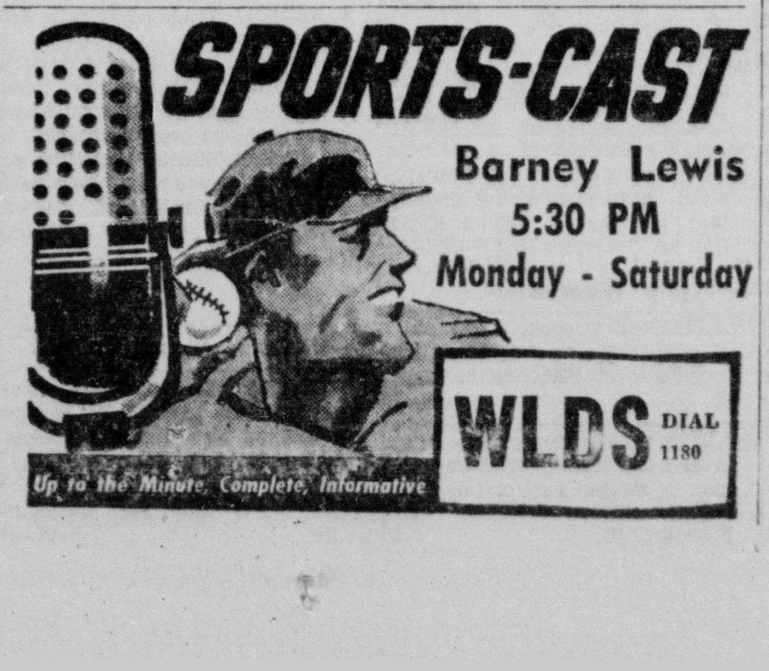
MEREDOSIA—The Merry Doshans 4-H Club met at the Meredosia high school on June 27. The meeting was called to order by saying the pledge of allegiance and the 4-H pledge. Secretary Patsy Schlieker called the roll and read the minutes. Treasurer Alberta Ruh was absent, so Rita Summers collected the dues. For new business, the girls were told that the next meeting would be held on July 5 at the home of the leader, Mrs. Wayne Hammitt, for a cookout.

Barbara Potter demonstrated how to wrap and fix sandwiches and talked on how to prepare a menu; Carla Kramer gave a demonstration on how to mix Brownies, and Terry Little, on quick mix devil's food cake.

Present were 18 members and two leaders, Mrs. Hammitt and Mrs. Roy Standley. Refresh-Refreshments were the foods served by the girls from their demonstrations.

Bob Ussery and Bill Hartack won three stakes races each during the 1960 Hialeah Park meeting.

Francis S. Lou Wolfson's 3-year-old stakes winner, was named after Frank Sinatra.



With The Girl Scouts

Even though vacation months are in full swing the Council camping is over, Girl Scouting activities are still going strong. The Scout office will remain open during the summer months for the first time. In past years the office has been closed during the month of August but this year during the first two weeks of August, office hours will be 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. During the last two weeks of August the office will be open full time, from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. except Saturdays and Sundays. During the month of July, also, office hours will be from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

A number of troops, too, are not taking a holiday from Scouting. Intermediate Troop No. 92 of Roodhouse, Mrs. Ruth Galloway, leader, is meeting once a month during the summer so that several new girls in the troop will have attended the required number of troop meetings by September and can be invested at the first meeting of the school year. Interest is high in this troop with all the girls taking an active part in badge work. Each troop member now has her own uniform and they are looking forward to a big year next year.

Members of Troop No. 59 of Carrollton, composed of 16 girls in the upper grades, spent an enjoyable day last Wednesday visiting Grant's farm in St. Louis. Mrs. Bud Roth is the troop leader and Mrs. L. A. Hardaway, her assistant. This group had day camp in Carrollton the first three days in June. They are planning a special activity each month to keep up troop interest.

Hold Cook-Out

Intermediate Troop No. 9 of Washington school has been meeting weekly for the summer months of June and July. Girls in the troop are working on their outdoor cook badge and sports badge. By the end of July it is expected that most girls in the troop will have earned these two badges. Fire building practice and other steps in outdoor cooking were practiced at meetings and on Thursday evening, July 7, the culmination of the practice sessions took place at Nichols Park when they held a real cook-out, cooking a one-dish meal. Troop leader, Mrs. Philip Bradish, and assistant leader, Mrs. Elvin Hisle, accompanied the girls. Nine girls took part and showed a great deal of skill in the out of doors.

Officers of Troop No. 9 for the summer months are: President, Shirley Hisle; secretary, Delores Sooy.

Pottery Pick-Up

Clay objects of art made at Camp Shagbark this summer as part of the Indian program theme may be called for by their creators anytime after August 1st at the Scout office. The modelled clay will be fired at the White Hall pottery kiln and returned to the Scout office by August 1.

Members of the Camp committee of the Board of Directors of Illinois Prairie Council met Wednesday at the Scout office. The morning hours were spent talking over camp operation this past summer and setting up suggestions for next year. The afternoon was spent sorting equipment used at camp and storing it for the next season. Unit boxes were checked and the contents replenished so that everything will be ready ahead of schedule. Three boxes were readied for the use of troops during the year on overnight trips. Mrs. Marie Houlette of Greenfield is camp chairman.

Schooners were mailed Friday to all members of Illinois Prairie Council giving a full report of summer camps held at Shagbark, Robin Hood and Lions Park.

To Close Offices In Court House For Greene Fair

CARROLLTON — The members of the Greene County Board of Supervisors met in monthly business session Tuesday morning in the Greene county court house. In addition to their regular business of approving the bills for the month, the board also approved the closing of the offices in the court house on the afternoons of Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of next week in observance of the Greene County Fair which opens July 11 and continues through July 16.

Lions Club Family Night

The Carrollton Lions club will have Family Night in the form of a carry in supper Sunday at 6:30 p.m. at the Robin Hood Country club. F. L. Imus is the president of the club and is in charge of plans for the evening.

Club Meeting Postponed

The meeting of the Carrollton Past Noble Grand club of the Rebekah lodge scheduled for Friday evening has been postponed and will be held July 22 at the home of Mrs. Lavern Bell with Mrs. John Voiles as the assisting hostess.

Catholic Daughters Meet

The new officers of the local Court of the Catholic Daughters of America were the hostesses at the meeting of the membership held Tuesday evening in the Knights of Columbus hall with Mrs. Henry Schmidt, grand regent, and Mrs. August Pohlman, vice grand regent, as co-chairmen.

Guests at the birthday table during the evening were Mrs. Elmer Stout, Mrs. Jerome Beiermann, Mrs. James Scott, Mrs. Henry Carl Steinacher, Mrs. Francis Roth and Mrs. Henry Thien.

Ernest D. Miner Participates In Field Training

GRAFENWOER, Germany (AHTNC) — Army PFC Ernest D. Miner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Miner, Route 1, Franklin, participated with other personnel from the 4th Armored Division in a field training exercise in Grafenwohr, Germany, which was concluded June 22.

The exercise, conducted under realistic combat conditions, was designed to evaluate the combat effectiveness of the unit, a major element of the NATO shield of defense in Europe.

Miner, a driver in Company B of the division's 54th Infantry in Heilbronn, entered the Army in December, 1958, and completed basic combat training at Fort Hood, Tex.

The 24-year-old soldier is a 1955 graduate of Waverly high school. Before entering the Army, he was employed by Whalen Grain Company, Waverly.

Howard Walker To Attend 1960 Dealer Council

Howard Walker of Walker Motor Company, Inc., 1110 West Morton, Jacksonville, will leave for Dearborn, Mich. this weekend to attend the 1960 National Lincoln-Mercury Dealer Council.

Mr. Walker is one of 21 Lincoln-Mercury dealers elected by fellow dealers to represent them in meetings with management of Lincoln-Mercury Division and Ford Motor Company, July 12-14.

The 21 dealer-delegates bring to the discussions the ideas generated in a series of zone and district dealer meetings throughout the country.

A new chairman and secretary of the council will be chosen by dealers July 12. Dealer wives who are accompanying their husbands will be entertained by Mrs. Ben D. Mills, wife of the general manager of Lincoln-Mercury Division, and wives of divisional officials.

There are more than 250 ski resort areas in the United States.

PRISCILLA'S POP

By AL VERMEER

AW, COME ON, MR. NUTCHELL!
BE A SPORT, POP!
THINGS SURE CAN CHANGE IN 24 HOURS!
TODAY I'M "THE BEST UMPIRE IN THE WHOLE NEIGHBORHOOD"...
YESTERDAY, ON THE VACANT LOT, I WAS A "BLIND BANDIT."

THE STORY OF MARTHA WAYNE

By WILSON SCRUGGS

SORRY TO TROUBLE YOU, MA'AM, BUT ONE OF OUR CLERKS INSISTS YOU FORGOT TO PAY FOR YOUR PURCHASES!
WHY, I DON'T KNOW WHAT YOU'RE TALKING ABOUT! IF YOU'RE ACCUSING ME OF-- Durnham's EST. 1910
JUST TO BE ON THE SAFE SIDE, WHY DON'T YOU CHECK INTO YOUR PURSE?
I'LL DO THAT VERY THING. AND THEN WE'LL BOTH GO IN AND TALK TO MR. DURNHAM HIMSELF!
THAT MIGHT BE A GOOD IDEA!

I AM COLONEL S.B. CANYON, U.S. AIR FORCE...
INDEED, COLONEL! —WE HAVE BEEN WAITING FOR YOU TO CALL!
JEFATURA de POLICIA
REALLY? I---
WE WONDERED HOW HIGH THE MIGHTY U.S. AIR FORCE WOULD GO IN RANK TO 'RESCUE' SEÑORITA HALL FROM "THOSE LATINOS"!
WHEN YOU ARRIVED WITH NO OTHER OBVIOUS ASSIGNMENT, WE CONCLUDED THAT SHE WAS YOUR TARGET!
WE ARE AWARE THAT YOUR GOVERNMENT IS VEXED...
...PERHAPS AS A RESULT YOUR PEOPLE WILL BECOME MORE AWARE THAT WE EXIST!
AAH—THE COMMISSIONER WILL SEE YOU NOW—AND REPEAT WHAT I HAVE SAID!

ACROSS THE Fields AND Furrows

with ED GARLICH

MADE A DEPOSIT LATELY?

Every time you market a crop, a lot of fertility leaves your farm.

Here's how it all adds up: A 100 bushel corn crop, including stover will take from your soil 150 pounds of nitrogen, 60 pounds of phosphate and 100 pounds of potash per acre.

A 40-bushel wheat crop will remove 66 pounds of nitrogen, 26½ pounds of phosphate and 40 pounds of potash per acre.

Three tons of alfalfa will take 140 pounds of nitrogen, 35 pounds of phosphate and 135 pounds of potash.

DON'T BE HYPNOTIZED

Highway hypnosis is one of the major causes of accidents on our expressways. Avoid it as you would the plague.

Monotony is the chief cause of trouble. The steady purr of the engine, the hum of the tires, the absence of traffic lights all have a hypnotic effect. You can doze without realizing it.

Make it a rule to stop for five minutes every hour you drive, at least after the first two or three hours on the road. Get off the road, out of the car and walk or exercise.

FROM THE CORN CRIB

On his way to visit relatives in the swamp country, the stranger asked directions of a native.

"Is it true that if you carry a lighted torch through the swamp, the alligators will not bother you?"

"We-el, depends on how fast you carry the torch," the native replied.

Across the Fields and Furrows is brought to you daily at 12:45 P.M. on WLDS, 1180 on your dial by the people at Elliott State Bank.
